UNCLE JOE CANNON.

"Uncle" Joe Cannon, steady at his post, keeping to grow about, nobody to roast. Hears senators talking, listens all the while, when they get too frisky, calls them down in style. Never had the fever, to hunt or maintain goat, thinks more of his cigar than of bear-skin coat. Likes to argue "tariff" and "protection," too, in fact, will talk of anything, to make "free trade" skidoo. Pleased to see the ladies in the gallery grand, like "Marching Through Georgia," when played by any band. Well tell a "funny" story, while chatting with the "boys," no use for politicians, built on plan of puppet-toys. Goes along serenely, traveling to the end, not a thing to vex him, United States his friend. Knows what he is doing, no favorites, high or low, "square deal," "fair play," honest man, is claim, old "Uncle" Joe. Doesn't need a medal for anything he's done, public life is spotless, bright as mid-day sun. Does his duty fearlessly, for stars and stripes will fight, long may he be with us, "Uncle" Joe's all right.

LUC F. VERNON

Silver Wedding Anniversary.

On Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Pennell celebrated the 25th anniversary of their wedding. They had issued invitations to a number of their friends, and at half past three, Rev. Mr. Looney, Rev. Joe Baie, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Garrigues, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Adkins, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Emerson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gemzell, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Briggs, and Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Notson were assembled in the parlor of the Pennell home. Mr. and Mrs. Pennell soon after entered the room. Rev. Mr. Looney then addressed them, felicitating them upon their having arrived at this milestone in their wedded life and expressing the hope that they would live to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary and that the succeeding years would be full of happiness for them. After which, he offered a short prayer asking the favor of God upon the home and those assembled. The company then extended their congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Pennell. The company were then invited to the dining room, where they sat down to a bounteous feast, to which they did ample justice. The dinner hour was enlivened by the sparkling wit of the Rev. Looney and the Rev. Baie. To say that the occasion was an enjoyable one is to put it very mildly. The occasion will ever be remembered by those present as one of the most pleasant events of life.

The following is a list of the presents received by Mr. and Mrs. Pennell: Napkin rings, Rev. and Mrs. Looney; salad fork, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gray; lettuce fork, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Meadows; set teaspoons, Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Borg; gray ladle, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Adkins; dessert fork, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Farnsworth; bon bon spoon, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thompson; gray ladle, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Garrigues; set soup spoons and ladle, Messrs. and Mesdames H. A. Emerson, L. W. Briggs, J. H. Gemzell, and S. E. Notson.

"With or without the Yoke" will be preached about next Sunday at 11 a. m. and in the evening at 7:30 "God's greatest joy." With three pearls shown the audience at the M. E. church.

Local Notes.

A. Kellar, The Dalles brewer, was in the city yesterday.

Dr. and Mrs. Arlet Brock returned to Portland this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Varn Barton came up from Ione yesterday evening.

County School Superintendent S. I. Stratton came up from Ione yesterday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Farnsworth, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beymer and Misses Mary and Emma Farnsworth were passengers for Portland, Saturday.

Church services will be held in the Catholic church, Heppner, on Sunday, Jan. 20th, at 10:30, a. m.

Considerable interest is being shown in the revival meetings which are being held in the M. E. church South.

H. A. Murphy, formerly of the M. M. Co. of this city, was down on the South Fork last week and purchased 1400 head of sheep from E. O. Martin, paying $3.00 per head. Mr. Murphy also bought the hay and will use the range this winter.—Moument Enterprise.

The Lexington basket ball team will play the commercial club team in this city on next Saturday evening. The game will be called at 9 o'clock, owing to the fact it being Saturday night and this will enable the merchants and clerks to attend. This promises to be an excellent game, as the two former games resulted in a tie. Turn out and see a good, clean, sporty game.

H. E. Warren, formerly of Heppner, who owns a big ranch near Spray, has just finished a new irrigating plant. The plant consists of a 10 horse power gasoline engine which pumps water from the John Day River into a flume which carries the water to a ditch which supplies the land. Mr. Warren has 70 acres of rich bottom land which will be put under water when the proper time comes. The irrigating plant was tested last week and the results were very satisfactory.

Walton--Devin.

The marriage of Mr. J. C. Walton and Miss N. Viella Devin occurred at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Devin, in this city, last Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Joseph Baie performing the marriage ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Walton are two very popular young people of Heppner and have many friends here.

Mr. Walton recently purchased the comfortable residence property formerly owned by J. J. Wells, where Mr. and Mrs. Walton are now at home to their friends.

A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry-bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherry-bark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe, obstinate, lingering, chronic coughs, bronchial and laryngeal troubles, and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering hangover coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. Holding a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs, especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach). It is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric (stomach) acidity."

"Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood curing blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings and old sores, or ulcers. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the native medicinal roots composing this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.
