

U. S. DISPENSATORY

Describes the Principal Ingredients Contained in Peru-na.

Are we claiming too much for Peru-na when we claim it to be an effective remedy for chronic catarrh? Have we abundant proof that Peru-na is in reality such a catarrh remedy? Let us see what the United States Dispensatory says of the principal ingredients of Peru-na.

Take, for instance, the ingredient of hydrastis canadensis, or golden seal. The United States Dispensatory says of this herbal remedy, that it is largely employed in the treatment of depraved mucous membranes, chronic rhinitis (nasal catarrh), atonic dyspepsia (catarrh of the stomach), chronic intestinal catarrh, catarrhal jaundice (catarrh of the liver), and in diseased mucous membranes of the pelvic organs. It is also recommended for the treatment of various forms of diseases peculiar to women.

Another ingredient of Peru-na, corydalis formosa, is classed in the United States Dispensatory as a tonic. So also is cubeba classed as a stomachic and as a tonic for the mucous membranes.

Cedron seeds is another ingredient of Peru-na, an excellent drug that has been very largely overlooked by the medical profession for the past fifty years. The seeds are to be found in very few drug stores. The United States Dispensatory says of the action of cedron that it is used as a bitter tonic and in the treatment of dysentery, and in intermittent diseases as a substitute for quinine.

Oil of copaiba, another ingredient of Peru-na is classed by the United States Dispensatory as a mild stimulant and diuretic. It acts on the stomach and intestinal tract. It acts as a stimulant on the genito-urinary membranes. Useful in chronic cystitis, chronic dysentery and diarrhea, and some chronic diseases of the liver and kidneys.

Send to us for a free book of testimonials of what the people think of Peru-na as a catarrh remedy. The best evidence is the testimony of those who have tried it.

HARDSHIPS OF ARMY LIFE.

The experience of David W. Martin, a retired merchant of Bolivar, Mo., is just like thousands of others. Mr. Martin says: "I think I have had kidney disease ever since the war. During an engagement my horse fell on me, straining my back and injuring the kidneys. I have been told I had a floating kidney. I had intense pain in the back, headaches and dizzy spells and the action of the bladder was very irregular. About three years ago I tried Doan's Kidney Pills, and found such great relief that I continued, and inside a comparatively short time was entirely rid of kidney trouble."

CATARRH BLOOD AND SYSTEM DISORDERED

Catarrh is not merely an inflammation of the tissues of the head and throat, as the symptoms of ringing noises in the ears, mucous dropping back into the throat, continual hawking and spitting, etc., would seem to indicate; it is a blood disease in which the entire circulation and the greater part of the system are involved. Catarrh is due to the presence of an excess of uric acid in the blood. The Liver, Kidneys and Bowels frequently become torpid and dull in their action and instead of carrying off the refuse and waste of the body, leave it to sour and form uric acid in the system. This is taken up by the blood and through its circulation distributed to all parts of the system. These impurities in the blood irritate and inflame the different membranes and tissues of the body, and the contracting of a cold will start the secretions and other disgusting and disagreeable symptoms of Catarrh. As the blood goes to all parts of the body the catarrhal poison affects all parts of the system. The head has a tight, full feeling, nose continually stopped up, pains above the eyes, slight fever comes and goes, the stomach is upset and the entire system disordered and affected by this disease. It is a waste of time to try to cure Catarrh with sprays, washes, inhalations, etc. Such treatment does not reach the blood, and can, therefore, do nothing more than temporarily relieve the discomfort of the trouble. To cure Catarrh permanently the blood must be thoroughly purified and the system cleansed of all poisons, and at the same time strengthened and built up. Nothing equals S. S. S. for this purpose. It attacks the disease at its head, goes down to the very bottom of the trouble and makes a complete and lasting cure. S. S. S. removes every particle of the catarrhal poison from the blood, making this vital stream pure, fresh and healthy. Then the inflamed membranes begin to heal, the head is loosened and cleared, the hawking and spitting cease, and the constitution is built up and vigorous health restored. S. S. S. also tones up the stomach and digestion and acts as a fine tonic to the entire system. If you are suffering with Catarrh begin the use of S. S. S. and write us a statement of your case and our physicians will send you literature about Catarrh, and give you special medical advice without charge. S. S. S. is for sale at all first class drug stores.

I had Catarrh for about fifteen years, and no man could have been worse. I tried everything I could hear of, but no good resulted. I then began S. S. S., and could see a little improvement from the first bottle, and after taking it a short while was cured. This was six years ago, and I am as well today as any man. I think Catarrh is a blood disease, and know there is nothing on earth better for the blood than S. S. S. Nobody thinks more of S. S. S. than I do. M. MATSON, Lapeer, Mich.

"During our courtship," said Mrs. Weeds, "poor John declared he would die for me and he did."

"Indeed!" exclaimed the surprised friend.

"Yes," continued the fair widow. "I did the cooking myself and he died of indigestion."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. 1/2 DEER IN THE UNITED STATES.

Whitetail Population North of Rio Grande About Half a Million.

In the season of 1895 the official returns showed that 4,900 deer were killed in the Adirondacks. It is notorious that official returns are far below the actual slaughter, for we must add those killed illegally during or out of season as well as those that were killed and not found. There is also a proportion destroyed by natural enemies, so that we need not hesitate to accept the chief protector's estimate that 10,000 deer were killed in the Adirondacks during the season of 1895.

But this must have been far less than half their number, otherwise they could not stand the drain, as they evidently do. I have heard hunters estimate that under the most favorable circumstances the deer do not add more than a third each year by actual increase. If, therefore, more than a quarter are killed in a season it means a falling off. But the Adirondack deer are holding their own and I should therefore estimate their numbers at 40,000, or, roughly, three to a square mile.

The official report for Maine gives 7,579 deer killed in 1899, which we are to believe means a destruction of at least 12,000 deer. But they have ample room and are steadily increasing, so that I put those in Maine at not less than 60,000, or about two to the square mile. In 1900, W. T. Hornaday gives the estimate of deer in Maine at 100,000, or three to the square mile, in 1904.

The Adirondacks, northern New England, northern Michigan, northeastern Texas and the dry parts of Florida, aggregating 10,000 square miles, may yet show an average of three deer to the square mile. But we must consider the species absent from Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Kentucky, the northern half of Missouri and the southern halves of Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, New York and Ontario, a total of about 600,000 square miles of their best country. And the rest of the region marked for whitetail in present times is so nearly without them that one deer to five square miles would be a liberal estimate. These figures would make the entire whitetail population north of the Rio Grande somewhere about 500,000. The State of Maine, therefore, has now one-fifth of the deer in the country, because she has learned that they are worth keeping.—Scribner's.

It has been estimated that in France alone the amount of nitrogen yearly taken from the soil is 600,000 tons and not much more than one-half of this is returned to the soil in stable manure. Let it be assumed, for the purpose of argument, that those countries employing nitrogenous fertilizers use during each year 5,000,000 tons of nitrogen.

This seems to be a fairly liberal estimate judging from the above figure regarding France and the fact that during 1905 1,500,000 tons of nitrate of soda were employed throughout the world. On this basis it is easily seen that there is no danger of impoverishing the atmosphere, for the atmospheric pressure at sea level corresponds to about eleven pounds of nitrogen a square inch, or say 1,500 pounds a square foot, or 20,000,000 tons a square mile.

Each square mile of the earth's surface has above it enough nitrogen to supply the entire world for five years on the basis assumed above and since the entire surface of the earth is not much short of 200,000,000 square miles the world can go on abstracting nitrogen at this rate for about 1,000,000 years before reducing the quantity in the atmosphere one-tenth per cent.

An Art Anecdote.

Edward Rosewater, founder and editor of the Omaha Bee, had a sincere love of art. He hated pictures that indicated scamped work, so called impressionistic pictures that were merely rough and hurried sketches and so called portraits that bore no likeness to their originals. A young painter showed Mr. Rosewater one day a portrait of a mutual friend.

"That a portrait of Smith!" the editor exclaimed. "I'd never have known it."

"Oh," the artist exclaimed. "I didn't try for a likeness, you know. I tried for an effect—an effect in grays."

"I know a man in New York," said Mr. Rosewater, "who had his portrait painted last year. It cost him $4,000, and he was very proud of it. When it came home he showed it to his cook."

"Well, Mary," he said, "how do you like this portrait?"

"Sure, sir," said the cook, "it's lovely. It's beautiful. It's divine."

"And, of course," said my friend, "you know who it is?"

"Oh, of course I do, sir," said the cook. "Of course, of course." As she spoke she kept drawing nearer to the picture, studying it more and more closely. "Of course, sir," she said. "It's you or the mistress!"—Buffalo Enquirer.
