

The Heppner Gazette

Established March 30, 1885.
ISSUED THURSDAY MORNING.

Fred Warnock

Entered at the Postoffice at Heppner Oregon, as second-class matter.

THURSDAY..... March 7, 1907.

It seems that spring is here for sure.

Don't forget Tuesday, March 12 Clean up day.

Many towns are now arranging for clean up days. A good suggestion for Heppner.

The loss to the O. R. & N. Co. by the recent storms is about $300,000. It was certainly the worst winter all around for many years.

The Portland Commercial Club is doing much for Portland and the entire state of Oregon in the way of effective advertising, but one club cannot do it all. The whole state should help. The club now has a pledge of $1600 per month to assist the publicity department.

And now it is beginning to be realized that the pure food law is a reality. It has been announced that the department of agriculture will locate a pure food laboratory in some northwestern city. The location of this laboratory will exercise a wholesome influence.

George Abbott, representing the Botany Worsted Mills, who is the first wool buyer to arrive in Eastern Oregon this season, is now in Pendleton. He is of the opinion that wool will be lower this season than last. He thinks that the opening prices will range from 12½ cents to 19 cents per pound. This is the opinion from the standpoint of a buyer.

A NEWSPAPER DISGRACE.

The Gazette would ask the indulgence of its readers in the article below in relation to the continued and unwarranted venom coming from the unfortunate editor of the Ione bungalow, who every week persists in personalities and mud slinging unworthy of a gentleman in every respect.

In the first place the little boy represents nothing—neither influence, business interests or the people of the town of Ione. Little Johnny got swelled up over his prowess as a basket ball player and got mad.

The Gazette will send down a kindergarten bandage to this unfortunate idiot, this victim of a solitary habit that has robbed him of all the sense that he ever did have.

A dirty skunk will contaminate the atmosphere of any community, but the community is not to blame. Neither is the good community of Ione to blame for the presence of the loathsome skunk with the handful of type and a handpress in our neighbor city.

Carter came to Heppner as the tail end of a Kansas cyclone from his training in chasing grasshoppers. Like the other parasites, when they left Kansas, he was forced to leave also.

In the basket ball game where the little fellow got mad, he was outclassed in every play and for this reason quit like a dirty cur, because it was impossible to keep down his real nature.

But then a fool is a fool.

Stock Ranch for Sale.

Offering about 17 head of cattle and new harness, 11 sets of farm implements, four trees, berries and bees, fine range for sheep or cattle, running water everywhere, will be sold at a bargain. Write Geo. A. Nymann, Mt. Vernon, Grant Co., Oregon.

ANTLERS RALLY

Heppner Lodge No. 358 Hold Annual Roundup.

The annual roundup of Elks and their does occurred on last Thursday night when Heppner Lodge No. 358 celebrated the occasion in grand style. The hall was appropriately decorated and arranged with tables for the playing of progressive five hundred, which was indulged in until a late hour.

Miss Ella Ayers' songs were very sweet and well received by the crowd, as were the recitations by Blanche Carter. Mrs. Julia Metzler's piano solos were splendid and her rendition of "Old Black Joe," with variations, was exceptionally good. Music and recitations were interspersed with the cards, so as to furnish recreation to the players.

A light lunch was served at 12 o'clock.

In response to invitations sent out to all lodges in the state the only response received was from Ashland Elks who extended their greeting by the following telegram: Ashland, Or., Feb 28, 07—E. L. Freeland, Heppner—Ashland Elks now two hundred strong, remembering your loyal support at Buffalo, send kindly greetings to Heppner 358 on this your annual roundup. E. V. Carter, P. E. R.

Words of Praise

For the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, as given by leaders in all the several schools of medicine, should have far more weight than any amount of non-professional testimony. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has the name of HONEY on every bottle-wraper, in a full list of all its ingredients printed in plain English.

If you are an invalid woman and suffer from frequent headache, backache, gnawing distress in stomach, periodical pains, discharges, catarrhal, pelvic drain, dragging-down distress in lower abdomen or pelvis, perhaps dark spots or specks dancing before the eyes, faint spells and kindred symptoms caused by female weakness, or other derangement of the feminine organs, you can not do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The hospital, surgeon's knife and operating table may be avoided by the timely use of "Favorite Prescription" in such cases. Thereby the obnoxious examinations and local treatments of the family physician can be avoided and a thorough course of successful treatment carried out in the privacy of the home. "Favorite Prescription" is composed of the very best native medicinal roots known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, contains no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs. It does not expect too much from "Favorite Prescription"; it will not perform miracles; it will not dissolve or cure tumors. No medicine will. It will do as much to establish vigorous health in most weaknesses and ailments peculiarly incident to women as any medicine can. It must be given a fair chance by perseverance in its use for a reasonable length of time.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this remedy of known composition. Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver bowels. One a laxative; two or three cathartic. Easy to take as candy.
