

Local and Personal Notes

Geo. Perry came in from Lone Rock yesterday.

C. E. Jones was in from Eight Mile, yesterday.

Rube Cochran was in Heppner, yesterday from Ione.

Banker Wharton made a business trip to Cecil, Saturday.

John Hayes came in from his Butter creek ranch yesterday.

Mrs. A. G. Bartholomew is visiting relatives at Estacada.

Phil Doherty and wife were transacting business in town, Saturday.

Milt Maxwell was in town from Hardman the latter part of the previous week.

Jake Young, one of Morrow county's substantial farmers, came in from Eight Mile yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lora Campbell, of Portland, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ramos.

Singin' and speakin' by the old fashioned folks at the Methodist meetin' house, March 29.

H. S. Neal, councilman of the 44th ward of the city of Lone Rock, is registered at the Star.

Uncle Charley Kirk, of Hardman, was a business visitor in Heppner, the first of the week.

Oscar Keithly, an extensive farmer of the Hardman district, was a business visitor in Heppner last Friday.

W. J. Wattenburger came in from Butter creek and transacted business in our city the latter part of last week.

J. C. Keithly, the big farmer and stockman of the Hardman section was doing business in Heppner, Saturday.

Henry Wilkins, of Clem, Gilliam county, is in the city, negotiating with Metz & Sons for a French Coach stallion.

Wm. Everetts, of Condon, is in the city. While here Mr. Everett bought a Percheron stallion from M. Metz & Sons.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Garrigues who have been spending the winter at Palo Alto, Calif., returned to this city Saturday evening.

"Uncle" Jimmy Allen, the veteran road builder for Morrow county, was in from his ranch on Eight Mile, Saturday. Uncle Jimmy report everything in a flourishing condition in his neighborhood.

The sheep shearing season is almost here. In the Columbia river country, in this county, a number of fleeces will be clipped this week. An early spring means early shearing. The busy season for the sheepmen will soon be here.

Anson Wright was in from his big sheep ranch near Hardman, Saturday. Mr. Wright states that sheep are doing fine, but that the grass is not growing so fast in his section as it was about two weeks ago, owing to the cool nights.

Joe Hayes, Jr., who was in from the Hayes ranch on Butter creek the latter part of last week, reports stock in fine shape. They are building two immense sheep sheds on the main creek to shelter their flocks. Frank Brown, Levi Morgan and Ott Neal are engaged in the construction work.

The five minute address to boys and girls next Sunday in the M. E. church will invite all to take a peep in "A Boy's Pocket," and the sermon following will look at "Paul Before Athens," and the evening sermon will ask "How the Just Teach the Unjust." Welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sory formerly of Muckilteo, Wash., who have been visiting Mrs. Story's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hager, of this city, left yesterday morning for the Alberta country where Mr. Story will engage in business.

Read H. W. Fell's horse and Jack's in this issue. Mr. Fell's horse and Jack are very fine bred animals as well as being extra good individuals of their respective breeds. Mr. Fell is an expert judge of both horses and jacks and has been very careful in selecting the best animals that money can buy.

If you are hunting Vacant Government land, J. T. Williamson, La Grande, Oregon makes maps of any township in the La Grande Land District showing the condition of the township at the date made for $1 each, as shown by the records of the land office. Land office practice a specialty. June 7-11.

Judge Brierly, of Ione, was a business visitor, Friday.

Waldo Vincent was in from Butter creek, Saturday.

Henry Howell, of Ione, was a Heppner visitor, Monday.

T. W. Morgan was in from his Gooseberry farm, Saturday.

Ed McDaid and family, of Strawberry, spent Sunday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Antone Vey, of Butter creek, were in the city Friday.

Natt Webb, Jr., came in from the Webb ranch on Balm Fork, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eph Eskelson, of Lexington, were trading in Heppner, Friday.

Tom J. Mahoney, the Ione banker, was a business visitor in Heppner, Saturday.

R. E. Alstott, an Eight Mile farmer, was doing business in Heppner, the first of the week.

J. C. Alstott an extensive Eight Mile farmer, was a Heppner visitor the latter part of last week.

Tom Mathews, one of the big stockmen of Butter creek, was in town Saturday and Sunday.

T. T. Notson, of Dallas, Oregon, an uncle of Attorney S. E. Notson, of this city, is visiting the latter.

Have you planted your early garden yet? Lots of free government seeds left at the Gazette office.

L. Monteresteli, of Pendleton, was in the city this week looking after his tombstone and marble business.

M. R. Morgan, an extensive farmer of the Gooseberry section, was paying his taxes at the court house, Saturday.

Forest Superintendent D. B. Sheller left Monday morning for Sumpter, where he goes on business connected with the forestry service.

P. P. Peterson, formerly with Minor & Co. of this city, was in the city, Friday. Mr. Peterson is now a commercial traveler for a Portland firm.

The East Oregonian says that the white robin recently killed in Heppner, is an Albino robin. Guess that's right. The name sounds good, anyhow.

Tom Gillilan, one of Morrow county's leading sheepmen, was in from his Sand Hollow ranch, Sunday. Tom reports sheep in fine shape and grass the best in years.

G. M. Lavelett, an old pioneer and keeper of the Wall creek station, came up from the Willamette Valley, where he moved a little over a year ago, after disposing of his property in this country.

John Tash, of Clark's Canyon, was in the city Monday. Mr. Tash states that fall sown grain is looking exceptionally good in his locality. The ground is too wet for spring seeding, but the farmers are glad to see it.

Nearly every fruit tree in Lexington has been sprayed with a lime and sulphur solution, for San Jose scale, during the past two weeks. The Willow creek valley can and does produce as fine fruit as any part of Oregon, when the orchards are given proper care.—Wheatfield.

Preliminary work for the enlarging of the Hinkit ditch canal between Echo and Butter creek is well under way. Three thousand additional acres will be watered, and many men and teams will shortly be at work. Messrs. Teel, Hinkle and others are actively engaged getting the work under way.—E. O.

A Mr. Pace, from the Indian Territory recently purchased from Wm. Casey and Felix Johnson, a car load of horses which he shipped to the territory, to be used for light farm work. Wild range horses, 900 pounds weight, brought $40 per head. Mr. Pace intends to return in a short time and secure three or four car loads more.—Ukiah correspondent to Pendleton Tribune.

Attorney G. W. Phelps is now engaged in drawing up a charter for the town of Hardman, Morrow county. He was the legal representative of this town when it incorporated a few years ago under the general laws of the state, made and provided in such cases, and now that the town has on grown its charter he has been asked to make a special one for it.—Pendleton Tribune.

Of course you pay your money, But you get your money's worth. For what does money mean to you When Rocky Mountain Tea's on earth? W. P. McMillen, Lexington, Oregon.

A. B. Grover came up from Ione, Saturday.

Ed. McDaid was in from Strawberry, Monday.

Pat McDaid, of Ella, spent Sunday in Heppner.

J. S. Rodgers and wife were in the city Tuesday.

A. Rice and wife of Ione, were in the city Tuesday.

Nate Cecil came up from Cecil, Monday evening.

Frank Engleman came up from Ione, yesterday evening.

E. L. Freeland returned from Portland yesterday evening.

Peter McCabe was down from the Penland ranch and spent Sunday.

J. L. Howard spent Saturday in town from his Butter creek ranch.

Mike Marshall was up from Castle Rock and spent Sunday in Heppner.

Ed Schuer and H. L. Douthit, of Troutdale, were registered at the Palace, Saturday.

C. D. Lowe and W. H. Lythe were registered at the Palace, Tuesday, from Pendleton.

Remember the biggest sing Friday evening, March 29, at the Methodist meetin' house.

Rev. F. N. Looney, presiding elder, will preach at the Southern Methodist church next Sunday.

Frank Glasscock fell from a disc harrow one day last week and received a bad sprain of the knee.

H. W. Fell returned Friday evening from Prescott, Wash., where he has been for a week on business.

Mike and Frank McCabe, sheepmen from the Butter creek hills, were transacting business in town the first of the week.

Mrs. Ed. Reed was an incoming passenger yesterday evening from Prescott, Wash., and is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ramos.

Jeff Hayes left Tuesday morning for Ontario. Mr. Hayes is running his sheep near that place and will be absent about two weeks.

Captain Charles McDonald and Lieutenant George Ledec, of the Salvation Army, held an open air meeting, also services at the Baptist church, Monday evening.

The ladies of the Christian church will serve a good old fashioned dinner at the Slocum building on Friday evening next, beginning at 5 o'clock. Price only 25c.

Wm. Hughes came in by private conveyance from Harney county, Sunday. Mr. Hughes was accompanied by J. T. Duffee, of Portland, and J. M. Marlin, of Rutledge, Ore.

Geo. W. Junkin who has been spending the winter in Portland, came up yesterday evening. Mr. Junkin states that if he can sell his property in the Hardman country he will go to Portland to reside.

BORN.

HYND—In this city, Wednesday, March 13, 1907, to Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hynd, a son.

SLOAN—On Butter creek, to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sloan, an eight pound boy.

HISLER—In this city, to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hisler, a daughter.

Your stomach churns and digests the food you eat and if foul, or torpid, or out of order, your whole system suffers from blood poison. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea keeps you well. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets. W. P. McMillen, Lexington, Oregon.

We care not how you suffered, no what failed to cure you, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes the penniest, weakest specimen of man or womanhood strong and healthy. 35 cents. W. P. McMillen, Lexington, Oregon.

Catarh Cannot be Cured.

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarh. Send testimonials free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, price 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

The news of both hemispheres—in The Weekly Oregonian.

Complete Showing of Wash Goods

With Easter Only 10 Days off this Announcement Will Awaken Intense Interest

At no other time of the year do women pay so much attention to their attire. Everyone looks forward to Easter. Everyone wants and will have a new gown. It comes so early this year that your selections must be made at once. Here you will find the best.

We are showing the sheerest and filmiest of light weight materials, as well as the smart wash suitings for outing wear. In all lines the selection is most complete. Choosing from such a stock as this, is a delight to any woman. A few of the favorites are

Paris Silk Plaids,	Tokio Silks,
Tissue Brilliant,	Paris Organdies,
Imported Dimities,	May-Flower Britiste
Voile Suitings,	Ginghams
Pereales

BUY YOUR SUMMER WASH FABRICS HERE, IT PAYS

NEW
LACES
EMBROID-
ERIES,
RIBBONS

Minor & Co.

THE POPULAR STORE

We have the
"ROOSE-VELT
BEARS"
BELTS

Wanted and For Sale

Glasses properly fitted at P. O. Borg's.

Highest cash price paid for hides, pelts and furs. Phill Cohn.

Semi-Weekly Portland Journal and Heppner Gazette only $1.75 per year.

Highest cash price paid for second hand grain sacks at the flour mill.

Seed wheat, Oats, Rye and Barley for sale by Phill Cohn, at Heppner Warehouse.

Goose Eggs For Sale—Cross between Toulouse and Endem. Price $1.50 for five. Geo. B. Hufford, Heppner.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Holt

Weekly Oregonian—Heppner Gazette.
Always reliable—The Weekly Oregonian.

For Sale—Town Property.

Good 6 room house, good cellar, good wash house well furnished, wood shed, chicken house and barn, with 8 good lots four bordering on Main street, good well of water, shrubbery and shade trees. Fine garden and two blocks from public school. Price $1500. Inquire at this office.

Call at the Gazette office and learn of our cubbing offer with the Weekly Oregonian.

WANTED—Young men to study Telegraphy. Positions when qualified. Wages $75 to $90 per month. Apply immediately. Oregon College, 508 Commonwealth Bldg., Portland, Or. M2134

A young woman with two children, good cook, wishes situation on farm or ranch, where there are no small children. Give full particulars by letter. Address No. 538 Smith street, Montevilla, Oregon.

Tea Satisfaction

SEVEN FLAVORS

Golden Gate Japan
Golden Gate English Breakfast
Golden Gate Ceylon
Golden Gate Oolong
Golden Gate Fancy Blend
Golden Gate Gunpowder
Golden Gate Black and Green

Packed in Flavor-Tight Cartons

J. A. Folger & Co., San Francisco

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF HEPPNER.

O. A. RHEA..... President	G. W. CONSER..... Cashier
T. A. RHEA..... Vice-President	E. L. FREELAND..... Assistant Cashier

Transact a General Banking Business. Four per cent. paid on Time Deposits.

EXCHANGE ON ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD BOUGHT AND SOLD
Collections made on all points on reasonable terms. Surplus and undivided profits $70,000.

PALACE HOTEL

HEPPNER, OREGON

Leading Eastern Oregon Hotel

MODERN CONVENIENCES
ELECTRIC LIGHTED

Under New Management. Thoroughly Renovated and Refitted. Best Meals in the City.

MADDOCK & CO. Props.