

Local and Personal Notes

Miss Helena Rhea was a passenger for Pendleton, Monday.

Thomas Graham, of Hardman, was a Heppner visitor yesterday.

Lexington creamery butter on sale at Marquardsen's Department Store.

Phil Metschan, Jr. was shaking hands with friends in Heppner this week.

Geo. Perry came in from Rock creek Monday and left Tuesday for Portland on a brief business trip.

The Odd Fellows of this city will celebrate their anniversary on tomorrow evening. A program is arranged for the occasion.

Ray Fairchild is in Grant county buying hogs. He has bought several hundred head in the vicinity of Monument and Long creek.

Mrs. A. L. Ayers returned Saturday from Pittsburg, Pa. Mrs. Ayers went to visit her mother who was very sick but is now much improved in health.

Jack Matlock and Tom Gilfillan are in Grant county receiving sheep which they bought there the past winter. The sheep bought are in the vicinity of Canyon City.

Mrs. Gertrude Parker left on yesterday morning's train for Dayton, Wash., where she will visit with a sister before returning to her home at Cove, Union county.

Theme of 5 minute sermon to boys and girls at 11 a. m. next Sunday at the M. E. church will be "How to be Untruthful," and the theme of the morning sermon will be "Jacob before Pharaoh," and in the evening "Wages or service? Welcome."

County School Superintendent S. I. Stratton has sent out notice inviting the teachers to attend the local institute to be held at Lexington, Saturday, April 27, at 10:30 o'clock. The following program has been prepared: "Thoroughness in School Work," Prof. D. V. S. Reid—"The Teacher Outside of the School Room," Prof. R. B. Wilcox—"History in Grades," Prof. W. C. Howard—"School Discipline," S. I. Stratton. Discussions open to all.

If you are hunting Vacant Government land, J. T. Williamson, La Grande, Oregon makes maps of any township in the La Grande Land District showing the condition of the township at the date made for $1 each, as shown by the records of the land office. Land office practice a specialty. June 7-M.

John F. Spray, of Spray, was in the city yesterday.

L. L. Putnam is called to Heppner, by the illness of his wife who is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. Andrews, of that place.—Coos Bay Harbor.

M. B. Haines is fixing up the Star restaurant on May street and will have the same open to the public immediately. Mr. Haines is a thorough restaurant man and will conduct his place in an up-to-date manner. It will be run in connection with the Star hotel.

Jeff Neel is making some expensive and valued improvements to the Star hotel. A modern septic tank has been installed, and up-to-date patent water closets will take the place of the old ones with a good sewer system to Willow creek. Mr. Neel has thoroughly renovated the hotel and has added much new material in the way of carpets and furniture.

A. J. Cook recently butchered a hog that dressed 717 pounds. The hams after being cured weighed 92½ pounds and were sold for 17c per pound. At the present prices for pork this hog would bring in the neighborhood of $70. Many farmers are buying their bacon at from 16c to 20c per pound. Mr. Cook says there are no hogs to speak of in Morrow county.

The entertainment given in Roberts' hall on last Saturday evening by the Heppner high school, assisted by Chas. R. McCally and Mrs. M. B. Metzler was a success in every particular. Mr. McCally was the principal feature of the evening's entertainment and his solos were well received. A chorus of high school pupils rendered two songs to their credit. Katie Neville's recitation, the "Burglar Alarm" was exceptionally good and showed rare elocutionary ability. "The Dyspeptic Goat" by Lulu Campbell in German dialect brought forth roars of laughter and applause, as did "The Pants my Mamma Makes" by little Paul Gamble. Blanche Carter's recitation was of merit Mrs. Metzler and Mrs. Winnard acted as accompanists. The entertainment was given for the benefit of the high school, the proceeds to be used in graduation exercises.

We care not how you suffer, no what failed to cure you, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes the penicil, weakest specimen of man or womanhood strong and healthy. 35 cents. W. P. McMillen, Lexington, Oregon.

Of course you pay your money, But you get your money's worth, for what does money mean to you When Rocky Mountain Tea's on earth? W. P. McMillen, Lexington, Oregon.

Why Not Remove the Rubbish?

EDITOR GAZETTE:—Some few weeks ago it was given out as an authoritative utterance of the "powers that be" in the city of Heppner, that if the householders situate therein would clean up their dooryards, back and front and collect the debris, in convenient piles in the streets, alleys, by ways, or elsewhere where it could be collected by wagons drays, or other suitable vehicles and carted to some suitable place of deposit outside the city limits, then the said city dads, or some other fellow would see that said carting was duly and promptly performed, and our little city that sits so snugly in the forks of Willow creek would shine like the eye of an oyster by moonlight. This order was duly obeyed by the trusting and loyal citizens, the general appearance of the city vastly improved, and some unsightly heaps of rubbish are still waiting for the scavenger to convey them to their long sought and final place of sepulture.

THE POINT OF VIEW.

They sat before the kitchen range, The corn was bobbing in the pan, She was a sweet and lovin' lass, He was a brave but bashful man. For full a year on her he'd called And looked the love he bore the maid, But still it seemed he never would Declare himself without her aid. So, weary of the long delay, A hint resolved to give him, She said: "Look at the frisky corn. I do declare it's poppin', Jim!" "It's poppin', poppin', Jim! Dear me! What is it tellin', don't you know?" He blushed and cove. "I guess," said he, "It's tellin' me it's time to go!" Henry Waldorf Francis in Woman's Home Companion.
