Two Hundred Thousand Pounds Withdrawn on Account of Low Bids.

Pendleton, May 23.—Five hundred thousand pounds of wool sold at from 16 to 20 1/2 cents per pound. Two hundred thousand pounds withdrawn on account of low bids. Judd, Abbott, Dufour and Patterson principal buyers. Cunningham clip offered but no bids. The Gazette is indebted to Phil Cohn for the above telegram.

HEAVY STOCK SHIPMENTS

BUYERS ARE MOVING BOTH SHEEP AND CATTLE.

Rea Bros. Shipping Sheep—Big Cattle Shipment Early in Month of June.

Rea Bros. loaded out from the Heppner stockyards Tuesday morning 30 cars of sheep. This is the biggest sheep shipment so far this season. Now that the shipping season is here a large number of both sheep and cattle will be shipped from Heppner within the next 30 days. W. S. Wharton of the Bank of Heppner will ship 1000 head of cattle to be delivered here June 1, on a government contract. The cattle will go to Bismark, N. D. Mr. Wharton recently shipped 1200 head of steers from Arlington to Montana parties.

ENGINE WRECKED.

Louis Kinney Hurt and One Man Killed on North Bank.

The following letter was received by Garfield Crawford, K. of R. S. for Doric lodge, K. of P., which explains the accident and condition of Louis Kinney, who was hurt in a wreck on the north bank railroad, May 14: "Mr. Kinney instructed me to write you in regard to his condition, etc. He is doing nicely at the present writing, and we are doing everything we can to make things pleasant for him. He met with an accident three days ago while at work for Mr. Towley, just across the river from The Dalles. The engine that he was running became uncontrolable on a steep grade, and in order to save himself jumped just at the last moment before the engine dropped down the embankment 70 feet. Another man was killed in the wreck and another injured, but had he not stayed by his post, until the last, a dozen or more would likely have been killed. He sustained a fracture of the knee cap, otherwise he is all right. It will lay him up for 10 to 14 weeks, if not more.

Dr. A. C. STECKLE."

Mrs. Kinney who has been at her husband's bedside at The Dalles hospital returned to this city Monday evening.

FROM MAYFLOWER MINES.

work commenced—Great Amount of Snow at Greenhorn.

Greenhorn, May 16.—[Editor Gazette] We arrived at the Heppner Mining Co's camp on the evening of the 10th; got within about a mile of camp when we got into snow up to the wagon axles and were obliged to stop. After turning our team out, we drove them to the pasture below and stretched a tent over our wagon as it was snowing at this time. Then we started for camp; when we arrived we had to dig into the house from the top of the door. The snow was about four and one half feet deep on the level on an average and some places it was ten to twenty feet deep. It was snowing when we arrived and continued snowing off and on until Sunday evening, the 12th. Since then the snow has been going very fast and possibly will be all gone by the first of June, when the Heppner mines will be opened up for business. The only claim that was below the snow line was the Oregon where we have been at work since the 13th. We have taken out some very fine ore, some of the finest specimens that the Mayflower group has yet produced. G. H. B. Wm. L.

WANT WHEAT AT 72C PER BUSHEL

The Gazette is informed that a local wheat buyer is ready to contract for the coming wheat crop at 72c per bushel.

Memorial Services.

[Editor Gazette.—]The highest gift of love is appreciation, and because we love our country, we shall help to observe Memorial Sunday and Decoration Day. Whenever oppressed men hear the names of Washington and Lincoln, they feel their manhood rising within them, but these names would perish from human remembrance had not defenders sprung to the flag during those years from '61 to '65. The red expresses sacrifice, the white purity, and the blue loyalty. All honor to the saviors of free institutions and liberty.

B. J. HOADLEY.

Heppner, Oregon, May 21, '07.

All sheep owners who are granted the privilege of crossing, or grazing within the Blue mountains, East National Forest, will be required to furnish a dipping certificate signed by either a county or federal inspector showing that their sheep have been dipped since April 1, 1907, in accordance with the requirements of the Bureau of Animal Industry and laws of the State of Oregon, before their stock will be allowed to enter the forest.

The M. E. Sunday school next Sunday will convene as usual at 10 a. m., and at 11 a. m., the congregation will unite at the Christian church in the memorial service. At 8 o'clock in the evening, the pastor will preach a thirty minute sermon on "To Construct or Crush, Which? Welcome.

W. W. Smead, who is in attendance at the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias, now in session in Portland, was on Tuesday elected Grand Master at Arms for Oregon. Mr. Smead is a well posted Knight and will his office in an efficient manner.

Mrs. Elsie Cecil died at The Dalles, of consumption Tuesday evening. Mrs. Cecil leaves three children: Mrs. Wilbur Swaggart, Ralph and Glen Cecil. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Swaggart and Mrs. Geo. Swaggart left for The Dalles this morning.

E. W. Elrod, at one time a big real estate man of Ione and who is associated with Moore Bros., of Portland, came in Monday evening to appear as a witness in the Stratton case now before court.

CIRCUIT COURT IN SESSION

Circuit court was convened at the court house Monday by Judge Bean and is still in session. The Stratton case is now on trial which will probably be finished today which will end the term.

Heppner has a new park. Conser's park, while not as large as some others, makes up for lack of size by rare beauty. Mr. Conser has gone to considerable work and expense in fencing off a narrow strip of land on Chase street under the beautiful shade trees at the First National bank. The ground has been seeded and roses and many other beautiful flowering plants have been set out. The park will be an attractive and comfortable place during the summer months. Those comfortable seats will be greatly appreciated by the jack knife artists and other representatives of industry.

J. A. Moore, a prominent Long Creek merchant, suicided Sunday at noon in the basement of his residence by putting a bullet through his brain. The cause was the loss of eyesight and a drunken stupor. The suicide was deliberate and was no surprise to his friends. He was a successful merchant and was well known, and had been in business at Long Creek for about 10 years. He leaves a widow and three children.

WOOL SALES POSTPONED

Owing to shortage of shearers, and the late arrival of wool at the Heppner warehouses the wool sale has been postponed to June 4th and 5th.

New Road Surveyed.

County Surveyor Heath and Viewers W. O. Minor and J. W. Brown finished surveying and viewing a new road, Friday.

The new road will start at Geo. Perry's place on Rock creek, intersecting the county road at the head of porcupine canyon.

The new thoroughfare when completed will add greatly to the convenience of a large number of people. The grade will be reduced and the distance between Heppner and Lone Rock will be shortened about six miles. By using the new road the heavy grade of Sweet Milk canyon can be avoided.

Forest Superintendent Chidsey informs the Gazette that the statement published last week that a telephone system would be installed in the Heppner National Forest, is erroneous. No telephones will be put in this season.

E. H. Green, general manager and J. C. Thrall general agent of the National Livestock Insurance Association, of Portland, were in the city this week.
