

The Heppner Gazette

Established March 30, 1883.
ISSUED THURSDAY MORNING.

Fred Warnock

Entered at the Postoffice at Heppner Oregon, as second-class matter.

THURSDAY..... June 6, 1907.

Heppner is to have a ga-lor-ious celebration on the Fourth, and Ione and Lexington are trying to do the same. Come off, boys. Let all of Morrow county people go over to the county seat and have a good time. We are now speaking for the people of Irrigon, some of whom have already accepted invitations to the Heppner event.—The Dalles Optimist.

The last issue of the Times in speaking of the stock shipments says: "The grand total shipments aggregating about 150 carloads or in the neighborhood of 125,000 sheep." This is going some. The maximum load for the cars that were used here is about 300 head of sheep, but the Times has succeeded in loading each car with over 800 head. The facts are that it took over 230 cars and the exact number shipped was 77,722 head, 4,000 of the sheep being trailed out.

Heppner has to date this season shipped more than 80,000 sheep and will ship 2,500,000 pounds of wool. During the same period several thousand head of cattle have been shipped and about 200,000 bushels of wheat will be marketed at that point during the season. This showing for one of our interior cities, and especially one that was practically wiped out of existence only a few years ago, is a remarkable one, and is additional testimony that Oregon is the greatest state in the union.—Oregonian.

Strange how the aspect of land changes with changing conditions. The East Oregonian can remember when the Sand Ridge, the best wheat land in Grand Ronde valley was looked upon as worthless grass land, not worth the homestead bling fee. It can also remember, more recently, when much of the finest wheat land in the northwest part of Umatilla county was counted "cultus" and farmers looked upon the tenderfeet who first located upon it in pity and compassion. Now the Sand Ridge land is worth $100 per acre for wheat, sugar beet or orchards and the land northwest of Pendleton is not for sale at any reasonable price. Will not the same be true of Harney, Malheur, Gilliam, Morrow and other counties having vast areas of waste land?—East Oregonian. The Gazette believes that there are thousands of acres of Morrow county wheat lands that are just as good as the Sand Ridge country or any other part of Eastern Oregon, and the time is coming when it will be selling for just as much money. The fact that some of our Morrow county farmers now expect 40 bushels of wheat to the acre for the coming crop is good foundation for this belief.

McCabe-Doherty.

A wedding of more or less note occurred at the Catholic church last Sunday in this city.

The contracting parties were Frank McCabe and Miss Norah Doherty and the ceremony was performed by Father Kelley.

A wedding dinner was served at the Palace hotel after which the happy couple and a large share of the guests left for the Jas. Doherty ranch, where a dance was engaged in until Monday morning.

Both parties are well known here. Miss Doherty, a pretty Irish girl, who has made her home with her brother-in-law, Jas. Doherty, is well thought of by her friends and Mr. McCabe is a prosperous sheepman and owns the Thos. Watlock ranch on Butter creek, where the couple will make their home.

Window sale at The Palm on Saturday, June 8, at 2 p. m., conducted by the ladies of All Saints Guild.

A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. This too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them Remedies of Known Composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that he is not afraid to subject them to the fullest scrutiny. Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, torpid liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, the full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but the standard medical works of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral acids or other poisonous or injurious agents and that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the uses of not a few of our most valuable native medicinal plants was gained from that source. As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prostrations, inversions and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

The Publisher's Claims Sustained

UNITED STATES COURT OF CLAIMS
The Publishers of Webster's International Dictionary allege that it "is, in fact, the popular Unabridged thoroughly re-edited in every detail, and vastly enriched in every part, with the purpose of adapting it to meet the larger and severer requirements of another generation."

We are of the opinion that this allegation most clearly and accurately describes the work that has been accomplished and the result that has been reached. The Dictionary, as it now stands, has been thoroughly re-edited in every detail, and is admirably adapted to meet the larger and severer requirements of a generation which demands more of popular philological knowledge than any generation that the world has ever contained.

It is perhaps needless to add that we refer to the dictionary in our judicial work as of the highest authority in accuracy of definition; and that in the future as in the past it will be the source of constant reference.
