Lexington, Ione, Irrigon and other districts will be represented with a good showing of the products from their respective districts.

There is every indication that there will be a large number of Morrow county people go over on the special on Wednesday. For the people who want to come back in, extended to Pendleton, as a daily on Thursday, a special car will be attached to No. 5 which will be met at Heppner Junction by anengine from Heppner.

The fair management is making every effort to make Morrow coanty day one of the features of the fair. Wednesday afternoon will be devoted exclusively to Morrow county. There will be a big meeting. Joe Woolery, of Ione, will act as chairman. There will be speeches by S. E. Notson of Heppner, Clarence White of Ione, A .--Bennett and Rev. Myers of Irrigon. In fact Pend eton will do everything possible to show Morrows county people a good time.

As a source of good clean enter-tainment the fair this year will be a never ending joy. Good mesic. interesting speakers, clever specialties and parades will be daily features and no two days will be alike. Monday the opening day, will be Pendleton day; Tuesday, company 30 days in which to place | Portland and agricultural day; Wednesday, Morrow county and livestock day; Thursday, Elks day; Friday, children's day, and Satorday, Political day.

The McElroy band, which will play daily throughout the week, is one of the finest organizations on the coast. It is the official band at the state fair in Salem now and is one of the best drawing cards there ... Among the players are some of the best known musicians in the west of the disease, and giving the patient and include Signor De Caprion, . gth by building up the constitution and as- leader of the Pendleton fair band last fall, B.
