Local and Pesonal Notes

Harry Warren was in from Spray, Friday.

Miss Leah Minor returned yesterday evening from Pendleton.

F. E. Westerberg returned yesterday evening from a visit to Northern California.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Whetstone have returned from a visit to New Baltimore, Ohio.

Thirteen cars of beef cattle were shipped to Troutdale today to the Union Meat Company by A. A. Harris.

A party having good sheep ranch with privileges in the range would like partner who can furnish the sheep. Inquire at Gazette office.

Rufus Farns was in from Gooseberry yesterday. He says that it will take about two weeks to finish threshing in the Gooseberry country.

W. O. Bayless, of Hardman, brought to the Gazette office two of the finest potatoes that we have seen. They are of the Early Rose variety.

The social dance at the Commercial Club held last Saturday evening was a very pleasant event. The music was furnished by Thos. T. Wise and was highly spoken of.

Eighteen cars of yearling sheep were shipped this week to Cutbank, Montana, by Halversen & Younch. The sheep were purchased from the Penland Land & Livestock Company.

Mr. Thos. T. Wise an experienced furniture man from Minneapolis has bought the Yeager furniture business. Beginning Nov. 1st the entire Yeager stock will be closed out at cost to make room for a complete new stock.

Thos. T. Wise and family of Minneapolis, Minn., have arrived in the city, and will make their future permanent residence in Heppner. Mr. Wise who is a thorough furniture man has purchased the Yeager furniture store. Mr. Wise is a musician and will be a great help in musical circles.

S. W. Spencer, Geo. Perry, Wm. Barrett, C. A. Minor, John Kilkeney and Forest Supervisor T. E. Chidsey were in Pendleton this week to meet A. F. Potter, chief of grazing in the forestry department in relation to grazing matters in the Heppner National Forest. There was also a meeting of the advisory board of the State Wool Growers' Association.

The city council met in regular session Monday, with Mayor Gilliam presiding. Councilmen Kirk, Hynd and Quaid answered to roll call. There was only a small amount of business before the meeting. The usual number of bills were allowed. Liquor licenses were issued to Fred McCarter, Denis McNamee, Frank Roberts, C. Gordon, McAtee & Swaggart, Maddock & Co. and Victor Groshens.

Mr. Dell Ward of this city and Miss Effie Wilson, of Monument, were married in Portland, on the 23d inst. They were met at the depot on their return to this city by a number of friends and were escorted to the Star hotel with a great display of noise, old shoes and rice. Mr. Ward is one of the accommodating and popular salesmen at Marquardsen's Department store. Mrs. Ward is an accomplished young lady with many friends.

On Sunday next Rev. Chas. H. Porter, pastor of the M. E. church will preach at 11 a. m. on "The Call of Abraham," at night "Abraham the Father of the Faithful and Pattern to the Church." All are invited to attend.

The attendance at the prayer meeting is growing each week at the Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. Charles H. Porter, the pastor, is giving a series of prayer meeting talks each week on John's vision of the seven churches of Asia as seen on Patmos and as recorded in the 2nd and 3d chapters of Revolations. Thursday night's topic is the 3d and 4th churches with a brief review of the 1st and 2nd. All are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blackman arrived in this city Monday evening from an extended Eastern trip. They have been gone since the 8th August, and on the trip visited St. Paul, Chicago, Niaggra Falls, Buffalo, New York City, spending a month in Massachusetts, most of the time at Springfield, visiting Boston and the surrounding manufacturing towns. One the return trip they stopped 10 days in New York where they visited their son Heppner Blackman, who is rapidly coming to the front as a cartoonist and sketch artist. At Washington D. C., Mr. Blackman saw Alvah Patterson who is in the law department of the patent office, and who wanted to be remembered to his many Heppner friends. On the return Mr. and Mrs. Blackman made short stops in Chicago, Kansas City, Denver, Salt Lake, Pocatella and Boise. Mr. Blackman says that the great march of progress was noticable. In the East the slouch and depression in industrial stocks has made a light money market. The great cities are so crowded that the people must go to the south or west. Mr. and Mrs. Blackman after a short visit here will return to their home in Portland.
