A TREAT COMING.

Five Nights of High Class Entertainment.

Week after next the people of Heppner and Morrow county will be treated to five nights of as fine entertainment as has ever been given in this city. The famous Meneley Lyceum Bureau, of Chicago, will begin their five nights of splendid productions on Nov. 26th and will close on the 30th.

On each evening a different program will be rendered by different people, the bureau consisting of five distinct troupes of high class entertainers. It is seldom that our city is treated to such talent, and our citizens will no doubt show proper appreciation by giving these estimable people crowded houses each night.

Look for posters and also particulars in these columns next week.

While the water was turned out of a mill company's ditch a short time at Lostine, two small boys picked up 40 pounds of fine trout in 100 yards of the ditch bed, measuring from 6 to 18 inches in length.

A man near Weston dug over 400 sacks of potatoes from two acres.

There are some great potato yields around Echo. One man has 85 acres.

BORN.

FARLEY—November 4, 1907, to Mr. and Mrs. James Farley, a daughter.

Miss Cornelia Barker, of Portland, pleased a good sized audience at the Christian church last Tuesday evening. Miss Barker is an artist and as a soloist ranks high.

We doubt if there is another town of its size in the state which is backed by the same amount of good substantial farming country, capable of producing the same amount of value in farm produce, says the Hains Record. Crops were unusually good, prices were high, stores carry large stocks and big warehouses and new dwellings are being or are to be erected. There are now awaiting cars for shipment 450 cars of hay and grain, while 150 carloads have already been shipped this season, which represents only part of the crop. It is estimated that it will take nearly 1,000 cars to move this year's crop.
