Thanksgiving dinner at The Palace 50c.

Take your Thanksgiving dinner at The Palace.

The prosperity panic will soon be a thing of the past.

S. A. Thomas, of Lexington, was a Heppner visitor Friday.

A Keller, The Dalles brewer, was in the city, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ayers came from Parker's Mill, Monday.

Nat Webb, of Walla Walla, was an incoming passenger Monday.

Dr. E. R. Swinburne came from Pendleton, Monday evening.

R. F. Wigglesworth, the Butter creek stockman, was a Heppner visitor Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wattenburger, of Butter Creek, were Heppner visitors, Tuesday.

F. E. Westerberg has purchased the interest of his partner J. J. Simas in the Pastime.

Washington county is all right—mills all running, $1,000,000 cash in its banks and farmers all prosperous.

See window posters and folder programs for particulars of high class entertainments in this city next week.

Mrs. Geo. Conser has returned from a visit at Portland. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Mc Swords who is now her guest.

Some of those people who have been troubled about having their money tied up can realize who the country editor feels all the time.

Five nights of entertainment and fun by the Trans-Continental popular winter Chautauqua assembly at the M. E. church beginning next Thursday, Nov. 26th. You can't afford to miss these.

Owing to the delayed harvest, farmers have not had time to sow the usual amount of fall wheat up to this time. Wheat that was sown early is making a good growth and is looking well.

This is fine fall weather with occasional frosts. While it has been a long dry spell and not favorable for stockmen on account of grass being short, the working season has been unusually long and has been about all that could be desired by the farmers.

Dr. and Mrs. M. B. Metzler have returned from a two months visit in the East. While in the East the doctor took a post graduate course in the Kansas City Dental college where he spent the most of the time in looking after the most modern methods in dentistry. Before returning Dr. and Mrs. Metzler visited the doctor's aged father at old home Creighton, Missouri.

Hugh Johnson, Chancey Wilson and Lee Jones returned from Heppner Sunday where they have been to sell several head of steers. The steers averaged 1026 pounds each and were sold at 3 1/2 on foot. The cattle were purchased by William Swick and will be fed at his ranch south of Heppner this winter.—Monument Enterprise.

CONTEST NOTICE.

Department of the Interior, U. S. Land Office La Grande, Or., Nov. 14, 1907.
A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Rose H. Kelly contestant, against homestead entry No. 13187, made November 22, 1902, for E 1/2 NE 1/4 Section 21, Township 4 S., Range 28 E., W. M. by Joseph Huffman, contestee in which it is alleged that said Joseph Huffman has wholly abandoned said tract; that he has changed his residence therefrom for more than one year since making said entry; that said tract is not settled upon and cultivated by said party as required by law, and that said alleged absence is not due to his employment in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States.
Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m., on December 28, 1907, before J. P. Williams, U. S. Commissioner at his office in Heppner, Oregon, and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m., on December 31, 1907, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in La Grande, Oregon.
The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit filed October 1, 1907, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
E. W. DAVIS, Register.
Nov 21-Dec 26 A. A. ROBERTS, Receiver.

Hiram Task, of Hardman, was in the city, Tuesday.

The best in the market will be served at The Palace Thanksgiving. Leave your order early.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jackson, of Butter Creek, were registered at the Palace, Tuesday.

Medford Tribune: G. K. Quine, who owns what he proudly terms the finest pack of varmint hounds in the country, has been engaged by an organization of sheepraisers near Silverton, Marion county, to bunt down and kill coyotes in that vicinity, where they are committing numerous depredations, at $40 per head. "If the coyotes are as thick as they say they are I'll have a grand old time," said Mr. Quine. "It will be just like finding money."

A Josephine county man 74 years old has picked over 200 quarts of huckleberries this fall.

A 13-year-old girl won a prize for writing the best essay about "The Resources of Sherman County."
