Estacada News: Some interest is being manifested by several of our townspeople and farmers in the walnut culture proposition. A number are looking up the walnut with a view of putting out a few acres of the trees if the prospects are at all favorable, and make a business of it. It is known that our climate and soil are both well suited to the nut, and that they grow well here.

Postmaster Smead, who attended the meeting of the Presidential Postmasters of Oregon, for the purpose of forming a postmasters' association for this state, returned Sunday. Organization was perfected and resolutions adopted urging our delegation in Congress to do their utmost to secure the passage of a postal savings bank law during this session of Congress. The next meeting will be held in Portland sometime during the coming summer. The Postmaster General has promised to attend and matters pertaining to the postal affairs of this state will receive attention at that time.

The Klamath Falls council has cut down wages of city laborers to $2.25 a day and is otherwise retrenching in expenditures as much as possible.

Eugene is considerable ahead of Portland, says the Eugene Guard, in one respect, in that she has an all-night car service. It matters not if the cars do not make frequent trips. They run as often as the trains come in and that is often enough.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that I, the undersigned, under and by virtue of the laws of the state of Oregon, prohibiting the running at large of animals within Morrow county, have taken up and have in my possession at my place known as the Jones ranch, one mile south east of Heppner, Morrow county, Oregon, the following described animal: One black sow, white strip in face, weight about 300 pounds, ring in nose, crop off both ears.

The owner or owners of said animal is hereby notified that unless the same are claimed within the proper time or manner, that I will on the 28th day of December, 1907, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day at my said farm sell the said described animal in the manner and for the purposes provided by law.

Dated this 11th day of December, 1907.
