VERN BARTON.

The death of Vern Barton, which occurred at Hot Lake last week, was a shock to his many friends. Mr. Barton's death was very sudden, the cause being heart failure. He was 35 years old and has been a resident of Morrow county for a good many years.

William Verner Barton was born in Adair County, Iowa, in 1872. Came to Oregon in 1880, where he grew to manhood in the vicinity of Heppner.

He leaves a wife, an aged mother two sisters, and one brother to mourn his loss. He was kind to all he chanced to meet.

Obituary.

Dr. Randolph C. Hunter, whose death occurred at Lexington Tuesday evening January 21st, was born in London, England, May 28, 1834. He received his medical education at Edinburgh and Glasgow Medical colleges. Soon after leaving college he received a commission as surgeon in the English army and was sent with his regiment to the Crimean war where he served three years.

Shortly before going to the front with his regiment he married an estimable young English lady. On his return he found that his wife had died, nearly two years before, leaving a daughter. The Doctor had had no news from home and knew nothing of his wife's death, or the birth of a daughter. That daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Smoother, is now living in Oakland, California.

He came to the United States about 45 years ago and first settled in Nevada, afterwards moving to California where he served several years as deputy coroner of San Francisco. He was one of the founders of Cooper Medical College and was demonstrator of anatomy in that institution for several years. On account of ill health he left the Bay City and came to Southern Oregon where he practiced his profession for several years.

While in San Francisco he was married to Miss May Tenny on September 10th, 1872. There were six children as a result of this union. Three sons, Harry, who is secretary of the Portland Manufacturing Co., of St. Johns, Ore.; Dr. Frederick, a rising young physician of the Hoquiam, Wash., hospital; Montie, the youngest son is a student of the Lexington public school; and three daughters. Mrs. John Goodman, of St. Johns, Misses Pearl and Ruby, who are teachers in the Hoquiam public school.

Dr. Hunter moved to Lexington two years ago where he practiced his profession. During his residence in Lexington he made a number of warm friends.

He was a member of Mammoth Lodge No. 87, A. O. U. W., at Coos Bay, Oregon.

The remains were shipped to Portland Thursday and funeral services were conducted at the chapel of the Portland Crematorium by Rev. John Dawson, pastor of the Episcopalian church. Immediately after the services the body was placed in the furnace and cremated, according to the wish of the Doctor.

The good people of Lexington did all within their power to comfort the widow and son, and all joined in words of condolence for the bereaved.

Heppner High School Boys Won.

A double header basketball game was pulled off in the Club gym last Friday night and both games were lively contested.

The first game was to have been between the "Club Kids" and a team of youngsters from Lexington, but the little fellows from our neighboring town failed to put in an appearance, so a team was picked up from the local town boys. The "Club Kids" won an easy victory with a score of 25 to 4.

The main game was immediately called following the preliminary, The teams contesting were the Lexington and Heppner High schools and resulted in a victory for the latter.

The game was rougher than necessary, but was full of life and the spirit of good fellowship prevailed at all times.

Following is the lineup of play-and the score:

Lexington—Beymer, C., 2; F. Munkers, forward, 2; R. Mnukers, forward; Raney and Thornburg, guards. Total score, 4.

Heppner—Guards, Gilliam, Alva Jones, 3; center, Turner, 4; forwards, Glen Jones, 6, Smead, 6. Total score, 19.

K. of P. District Convention.

Last Monday evening an affair long to be remembered by the Knights of Pythias of Doric Lodge No. 20. was held in their Castle hall in this city. The event was a district convention composed of the lodges from Lone Rock, Spray, Condon, Arlington, Fossil, and Doric Lodge No. 20, and was a success in every way.

There was a goodly share of visiting Knights present, the larger delegation being from Lone Rock, and an enthusiastic meeting was held.

Grand Chancellor Wall and G. K. of R. S. Stinson were present and assisted in the ceremonies. Talks along the line of Pythianism by these gentlemen were well received and had the result of bringing out the true Knightly spirit.

A candidate was given both the second and third degrees and at the conclusion a clam feed was indulged in by all present.

Doric Lodge is one of the strong institutions of Morrow county and has a large membership composed of our best citizens from every section of the county.

Marquardsen's Department store has been in a chaotic condition for the past week owing to a change in store arrangement. We can heartily add that we think the same to be much improved, and are glad that Heppner has added one to the list of enterprising men.
