A Harney county man's sheepher ler reported that it would be necessary to provide him with an other band of sheep if he was to hold his job, as he had lost all those entrusted to his care-he lost his job, says the Burns Times Her ald. He was inexperienced, and when some sheep strayed he search ed and come upon some animals that looked like stray sheep, but of a rather peculiar color. They were chased some 10 or 12 miles over the bluff, but at last werbrought into the band. He has had been lost so long that they were real wild, and if they didn' quiet down and feed with the others he would simply run them to death, and on investigation they were found to be antelope.

The Modesty of Women

faturally makes them shrink from the indelicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annovance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Rierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispenses that the examinations and local treatments. female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly nonalcoholic, non - secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of KNOWN COMPOSITION. It makes weak women strong and sick
