Mr. Walpole went over to Heppner last Friday to attend the annual tax sales, says the Irrigator, and came home Sunday. Mr. Roadruck drove over Saturday and brought him back Sunday.

The school at Castle Rock got down to two scholars and quit. Miss Gardner, the teacher, had a contract for the full term, but as the only family in "town" left there was no place for her to board. So she is now in Irrigon, with her sister, Mrs. Slater. She will probably bring suit for the balance of her salary, as she had a contract for the full term.—Irrigon Irrigator.

An Irishman wishing to possess a homestead, and not knowing how to go about it, sought information from a friend. "Tim," he said, "you've taken a homestead, an' I thought, maybe, ye could tell me the law consarnin' how to go about it." "Well, Patrick," says Tim, "I just don't just remember the exact wordin' uv the law, but I kin give ye the meanin' uv it. The meanin' of it is this: The Government is willin' to bet ye 160 acres uv land against $14 that ye can't live on it for five years without starvin' to death.

Invitations are out for the Elks annual ball to be given the evening of the 21st inst. Several of the "Old Bucks" are getting up early these mornings and are to to be found in their woodsheds practicing the Minuet. George Washington and his Martha never were capable of doing this famous old dance in a more graceful and chivalric manner than these boys of 358. The affair will be held in the Commercial Club and the entire building will be at the disposal of the Elks. An orchestra to furnish music for the occasion has been secured from The Dalles and good music as one of the main attractions is now an assured fact.

Skating is fine now on the Klamath lakes.

Who would ask for better Winter weather.

Dillard French was in from Gurdane, Monday.

Henry Blackman came up from Portland Monday.

A new national bank with a capita stock of $25,000 will soon be established in Milton. Application for a charter has been made to the comptroller of the currency at Washington. The new institution will be known as the First National Bank of Milton.

Columbia College at Milton is to be enlarged. At a recent meeting of the Board of Trust it was decided to erect a brick building to cost not less than $25,000, exclusive of furnishings and equipment. The plans for the building include a dormitory, study hall and recitation rooms.

Correspondence of the Burns Times-Herald: We Windy Pointers don't want to brag or boast of our chickens, but we have one hen in this vicinity that really has a record. In, fact, it's a cold day when she doesn't lay two eggs. She is a full blood Leghorn, owned by Mr. Skinner. This hen is more or less bothered, as she hasn't time to set, so it is necessary to get an incubator of 200 egg capacity, and by the time one hatching is ready to come off another lot of eggs is on hand ready for the incubator.
