The editorial page of the Weekly Oregonian gives a broad treatment to a wide range of subjects.

To the voters of Morrow county, Oregon:

I would further state that I have been a resident of Morrow county for the past 25 years. Have always been used to an active country life and think that I know something of the county's needs. I am a staunch Republican, but no politician, and will employ no methods but that are just and honorable to obtain this office.

W. B. BARRATT.

S. E. NOTSON.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of county Judge, subject to the decision of the Republican primary election.

F. M. GRIFFIN.

To the voters of Morrow county:

I take this method of announcing my candidacy for the office of Sheriff on the Democratic ticket, at the coming primary election. If nominated and elected I shall use all legal means to enforce law and order in Morrow county. I shall endeavor at all times to perform the duties pertaining to the office of sheriff in a competent and business like manner to the best interest of the taxpayers and if elected will not ask to be retained in office indefinitely.

JOSEPH C. HAYES.

By hard, persistent, active work the law-breaking forces of Morrow county have been held in subjection the past few years, and especially during the coming two years will it require constant vigilance to keep the lid on and to maintain our present reputation of having our laws more rigidly enforced than in any other county in the state of Oregon. If my past experience and record in this capacity prompts the voters to believe that they will receive the best service by nominating and electing me their sheriff, I shall accept the great responsibility again and will continue to give the duties of the office my entire time and energy, as I have done in the past.

E. M. SHUTT.
