

Local Notes.

Dates of Wool Sales.

Heppner—May 29; June 11-30.

Miss Anna Smith is visiting in Portland.

Alex Cornett lost a horse valued at $250 last week.

Emmett Cochran, the Grant county stockman, was in from Monument, Saturday.

Now is the time to buy your new hat. Don't wait. The earlier you buy the more you have to select from. For style and economy go to Mrs. Cohn's.

A. N. Hamilton, republican candidate for railroad commissioner, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Hamilton is a man of long experience in railroad work and will get a good vote in this county.

Sam Cochran and daughter, Miss Lillian, Mr. and Mrs. Perham, Mr. Russel Armstrong and Miss Blanch Armstrong came over from Monument yesterday and left this morning for La Grande to attend to some land business.

The Royal Neighbors of America will give a social on Thursday evening, April 16, in the I. O. O. F. hall. Program of the evening will consist of music, recitations, five hundred and fifty. Admission, 10 cents, including refreshments.

Ed Patterson, of Bristol, Vermont, visited his brother, Dan Patterson, and nephew, Ed Patterson, during the past week. The two brothers left yesterday morning for La Grande. This was their first meeting for 43 years and the reunion was a happy one.

Osman Shaner and C. L. Keithley have been appointed as additional rangers in the Blue Mountain National forest. This will make four rangers on this side and two on the other side of the John Day during the patrol season in Superintendent Chidsey's territory.

Mrs. L. E. Cohn carries the nicest line of millinery in Morrow county. Call and see.

Clothes cleaned and pressed, called for and delivered. Guy McKnight.

Rev. Charles H. Porter has some of the finest White Wyandotte chickens in the Northwest. They are beauties and the greatest as all egg layers. Three pens, each headed by prize winning males. Pen No. 1 by cockerel winning in six shows. No. 2 by cockerel winning in three shows this year. No. 3 by 3rd prize cockerel at Salem three years ago. See these "Royal Whites" and get some settings of eggs.

Frank Eggleman came up from Ione, Monday.

Eph Eskelsen was up from Lexington, Saturday.

Mrs. T. W. Ayers went to Portland this morning.

R. C. Wills is in the city this week from Corvallis.

E. Bergstrom, of Gooseberry, was in the city Friday.

Chas. Johnson, of Lexington, was in the city Saturday.

E. P. Michell, of Stevenson, Wash., was in the city the fore part of the week.

Mrs. L. E. Cohn has a most up-to-date line of spring millinery at very reasonable prices.

The styles are right and the prices are right at Mrs. Cohn's millinery establishment.

Don't forget about those free government seeds at the Gazette office. Come in and get a package.

There is a good demand for horses at present and good work horses seem to be unusually scarce.

J. A. McCumber came in from Glenwood, Wash., yesterday evening for the sheep shearing season.

Theo. Anderson was in from Eight Mile Friday. Mr. Anderson states that crop prospects are very good in his neighborhood.

FOUND—In Roberts' hall, one set of furs. Owner can have same by calling at the Belvedere saloon and paying for this notice.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Waldon Rhea, of Butter creek, Feb. 30, 1908, a bouncing baby boy. Waldon is the happiest man on Butter creek.

Sheriff T. D. Taylor has served Umatilla county the past six years as a democrat in a republican county, and he is now out for a fourth term and has no opposition from either party.

Call at the First National Bank and see the pedigree of the fine Percheron stallion Brasier, 41369, owned by Theo. Anderson, of Eight Mile. Will make the season of 1908 at Mr. Anderson's home ranch. Terms to insure, $20. Out of 38 mares bred last year, 80 per cent were in foal.

Dan Wilson, a pupil of the State Blind school, arrived here Monday night, and after visiting a day or two with Sheriff Shutt and family, will go to work on the dairy ranch of Wighman Bros. below town.

Hicks--Lawrence.

Mr. A. J. Hicks and Miss L. Frances Lawrence, were united in marriage at the Calumet hotel, in Portland, last Sunday, Dr. Benjamin Young officiating.

The many friends of the genial editor of the Times were greatly surprised Monday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Hicks arrived in this city.

A number of friends, including the Gazette force, gave Mr. and Mrs. Hicks an old fashioned charivari Monday evening.

Here's to you Brother Hicks.

Dan Hornor went to Portland yesterday.

Dr. Howard Gove, of Fossil, visited in the city this week.

Al. Emerson was an incoming passenger Tuesday evening from outside points.

C. O. Huelat returned to Portland this morning after a couple of days' visit here. Mr. Huelat is much improved in health.

Phill Cohn, at the Heppner warehouse, will pay the highest price for hides, pelts, and furs. Seed wheat, oats, rye, and barley on hand.

Your attention is called to the standing ad of the Bank of Heppner. The management of the bank are gratified at the showing made, as there has been a steady increase in the growth of the bank's business for the first three months of the year, and this, too, in the dull season. The increase in deposits aggregates nearly $40,000. Refer to the ad the figures are given in detail.

All Saints Memorial church was crowded Sunday evening last. Bishop Paddock of the new diocese of Oregon, conducted the services. Bishop Paddock Sunday evening talked of his experience in slum work in New York City, which was very interesting and instructive, giving some of the inside doings where the conditions are almost unbearable in some of the tenement districts. He also explained the good that is being accomplished through missionary work and Christian teaching. The Bishop is an able and earnest man and Heppner people will welcome his return.

Our Clothing for Boys

Mothers take pride in having their boys well dressed, and this involves correct style. We are as particular about boys styles as about men's, but careful that exclusiveness does not mean extravagance. Our boys section was never so full of novelties, never seemed so bright. You are welcome to look, never under obligation to buy. There isn't a youth in this vicinity whose father, no matter what his income, cannot afford to dress him well by our system.
