ASK FOR BOUNTY LAW

Commission Report Contains Plea
For Protection.

Declaring the sheepmen of Oregon lost between $1,000,000 and $1,500,000 from the ravages of coyotes last year the board of sheep commissioners asked the state to put up a bounty on animals in a report filed today.

The board declares that war against the scourge has been conducted by means of pamphlets to sheepmen showing how the coyotes can be killed, but believes that nothing effective can be done until the state puts a price on the heads. It declares the loss is not only among the sheep, but colts, pigs and calves suffer as well.

The request for the bounty law is embodied in the report of Dan P. Smythe, secretary of the sheep commission which has just been filed with Governor Chamberlain. Aside from the question of coyote bounty, the report also tells of the fight waged by the commission against scab, their difficulties with the sheepmen of Washington and other things of interest.

According to the report there were 250,000 scabby sheep when the sheep law went into effect. Now there are but 176 scabby bucks in eastern Oregon, while there are a few isolated cases of scab in the valley.

Regarding the general status of the sheep business the report says: "The season of 1907 has been a banner year for the woolgrowers. The highest prices ever known in the state during the past 30 years prevailed for wool and mutton. Range conditions were exceptionally good, consequently the year was a happy and prosperous one for the sheep owner."

"Oregon had in 1907, 1,800,000 sheep of shearing age and about 1,000,000 lambs, with an approximate total value of $9,500,000. The wool clip aggregated 15,300,000 pounds valued at $3,121,200, the average weight of the Oregon fleece being 8 1/2 pounds—the highest average of any state in the Union. The shrinkage was 70 per cent.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of county Judge, subject to the decision of the Republican primary election.

To the voters of Morrow county: I take this method of announcing my candidacy for the office of Sheriff on the Democratic ticket, at the coming primary and election. If nominated and elected I shall use all legal means to enforce law and order in Morrow county. I shall endeavor at all times to perform the duties pertaining to the office of sheriff in a competent and business like manner to the best interest of the taxpayers and if elected will not ask to be retained in office indefinitely.

By hard, persistent, active work the law-breaking forces of Morrow county have been held in subjection the past few years, and especially during the coming two years will it require constant vigilance to keep the lid on and to maintain our present reputation—of having our laws more rigidly enforced than in any other county in the state of Oregon. If my past experience and record in this capacity prompts the voters to believe that they will receive the best service by nominating and electing me their sheriff, I shall accept the great responsibility again and will continue to give the duties of the office my entire time and energy, as I have done in the past.
