OREGON SHEEP TO WISCONSIN

Experiment of Grazing on Logged off Land.

E. Hess, of Weyerhauser, Wisconsin, is in the city.

Mr. Hess owns a large body of land that has been logged off by the lumber jacks in early days, and while covered with brush, produces an abundance of fine grass.

He is going to try the experiment of grazing sheep on this land and is here for the purpose of buying 1000 head of yearling wethers to take back with him.

If the experiment proves to be a success, Mr. Hess will graze several thousand head on his holdings.

Even the owner of 1000 head would be considered a sheep king in Wisconsin.

NEW ICE CREAM PLANT

Machinery Now Being Installed by Westeberg.

F. E. Westerberg, of the Pastime, is putting in an ice cream plant.

Mr. Westerberg's plant, the power for which will be furnished by a gasoline engine, is large enough to furnish all the towns of Morrow county.

Last year Mr. Westerberg paid out over $500 express alone on ice cream.

From 20 cows Willard Couch of Union county realized $1,236 for butter fat in 12 months, exclusive of cheese made from the milk. To produce this it required but four months of hay feeding, the other eight months' feed was obtained on the pasture. No grain or bran was used. In 12 months past he also realized $188.20 from eggs, and $71 from the sale of chickens to the meat markets. Twelve months ago Mr. Couch had 75 chickens and he still has that number. The cost of feeding the chickens is a trifling figure. The hens rustle their feed from the haystacks.

Easter Services.

Easter was appropriately observed Sunday at the Methodist church. Special music was arranged for the occasion and the several numbers were well rendered. The special numbers sung by Mrs. Winnard and Miss Britt and solos by Edwin Porter and Otheo G. Crawford, are especially worthy of mention.

At the M. E. church, South, the services were not altered much from the regular Sunday services. There were a few special songs and the church was fitfully decorated for the occasion. A large crowd attended both the morning and the evening services.

A Weston Normal school student fell heir to $100,000, but he goes on studying just the same and playing ball.
