The Leader, Elgu's new paper, has been received. The new paper presents a neat appearance and is well edited.

Senator Fulton has pledged his support to H. M. Calk. Fulton is the right kind of material any place you put him.

Pendleton will, in the near future hold a monstrous mass meeting for the purpose of boosting the town. Tom Richardson has been to Pendleton and he is waking her citizens.

A company of Idaho stockmen recently paid $10,000 for a Percheron stallion. The Rural Spirit thinks that this is a big piece of extravagance and can never be a profitable investment, and the Rural Spirit is about right about it.

Every farmer and every business man in Morrow county should attend the meetings to be given in this county on May 12, by the farming demonstration train of the O. R. & N. company. The railroad company has secured specialists of good reputation who are ready and willing to give information which will, if studied and followed, be of great benefit to the country. Every farmer should be interested in his own business, and should attend these meetings, if only from a business standpoint.

Elks' Concert.

The Elks' lodge of this city certainly did things up proper on last Friday evening. The Elks are noted for never doing things on the half way order, and this fact was thoroughly proven on last Friday evening when the Birgfeld orchestra, of The Dalles, gave a concert and dance under the auspices of Heppner Lodge No. 358. The concert was a grand musical feast for Heppner people and the person missing it has good cause for regret. Prof. Birgfeld has one of the best orchestras west of Salt Lake, if not the best, and the class of music played was all of the popular operas and is most pleasing to the ears.

To tell all the good things of this concert would take up a great deal of time and space, but we must say that the harmony and interpretations were grand.

Miss Myrtle Michell's solos were also a very strong drawing card in the entertainment. The Nightingale's Song was a beautiful classic and Miss Michell's rendition was of the very best. To say that the people appreciated Miss Michell's wonderful voice is putting it mildly. The hearty applause was evidence of the fact that she was more than appreciated.

After the concert the Club room was cleared of chairs and a dance participated in until a late hour. The Elks will try to secure Prof. Birgfeld and orchestra for a series of entertainments next winter.

TWO GOOD PLAYS

Splendid Productions by High School.

The young people did themselves proud and the people of Heppner are well satisfied.

The two plays given by the High School, last Friday and Monday evenings were successful in every particular.

Friday evening "A Case of Suspicion" was rendered to a good house and well received. This play was a one act comedy, but had a great deal of memorizing for the participants. The characters were well sustained, if not better than the following play, however it was lighter.

"The Rio Grande" a good home talent play was well produced and the characters were exceptionally strong. They all had their lines perfect, and credit is due every one taking part.

A little of the stiffness will no doubt be removed on the next presentation which will be at Lone tomorrow evening and we can recommend to be good people that little city that they are to receive a rare treat at the hands of the High School.

Brosnan-Hager.

Johnny Brosnan and Miss Zetta Hager were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Monday morning at 6 o'clock, April 27, in the Catholic church in this city, Rev. Father Kelly officiating.

The young couple are of Morrow county production and are well and favorably known by a large number of our citizens. They will make their future home on Butter creek, where the groom was raised, and took up their abode there immediately following the ceremonies.

A large crowd of intimate friends attended the affair and participated in the wedding breakfast which was served at the Palace.

Republican Committee.

The Republican precinct committee-men elected at the primary election, held a meeting and elected E. L. Freeland, chairman and W. L. Smith, secretary.

Another meeting of the committee was held yesterday in this city.

C. M. White, W. W. Smead and E. L. Freeland were elected as delegates to the Republican state convention to be held in Portland, on May 14.

C. M. White, W. W. Smead and E. L. Freeland were elected as congressional delegates.

C. M. White, C. E. Woodson and W. W. Smead were appointed as an executive committee to act with the chairman and secretary.

The following delegates were present: E. L. Freeland, W. L. Smith, W. W. Smead, Johannes Troedson, John Kilkenny, C. E. Woodson, C. M. White, J. H. Barker, E. C. Dillingham, Michael Kenny by proxy, Paul Reitman by C. M. White, M. S. Maxwell by C. E. Woodson, J. S. Young by E. L. Freeland, A. Bennett by E. L. Freeland.

A recognized authority--The Weekly Oregonian.

Geo. Perry, of Lone Rock is in the city.

Miss Grace Tillard, of The Dalles attended the Birgfeld concert in this city last Friday evening.

Wm. Huston, a former resident of Heppner, who now resides in Portland, has purchased the Ham Lurchell place near Lexington and will again make Morrow county his home.
