

Death of Mrs. Hayes.

Mrs. Grace A. Hayes died in this city Saturday last, of consumption after a period of long suffering.

Mrs. Hayes was a highly respected lady and her kind and loving disposition will be remembered by all who knew her.

Deceased was born at San Diego, Cal., December 8, 1874.

On July 11, 1894, she was married to Charles Jefferson Hayes. Her husband died a year ago.

Funeral services were conducted at the Christian church, Monday by Rev. J. V. Crawford, and the remains were laid at rest in the Heppner cemetery.

Sunday was certainly Lexington's day at baseball. The Heppner high school boys were defeated to the tune of 8 to 5 at Lexington, and the Lexington juveniles put it over the Heppner kids to the pace of 8 to 12.

Portland Rose Festival, to be held in Portland, June 1 to 6, 1908, will be the most brilliant Floral Fiesta and Civic Jubilee ever held in the Pacific Northwest. Portland, "The Rose City," will be a scene of splendor and the center of world-wide interest for one week. Several important conventions to be held in Portland on that occasion. The O. R. & N. Co. will sell special tickets on this occasion from Heppner to Portland and return at $7.50. For further information call on J. B. Huddleston, local agent, or write to Wm. McMurray, General Passenger Agent, Portland, Oregon.

The only thing they can find to say against Shutt is, "He has been sheriff long enough." It is not every man who is capable of serving us as sheriff. Shutt is. We are sure of that. Then why turn him down for an untried man? We have the best sheriff in Oregon, so recognized by all; let us continue to hold the record.—Irrigon Irrigator.

Mrs. Eleanor Cameron, and daughters Misses Josephine, Mabel and Minnalena, left for Pendleton Wednesday morning where they will visit with Mrs. Cameron's eldest daughter, Mrs. Robert Fletcher, for a short time before returning to their home in Portland.

We are reliably informed that our name is being used throughout the county as "representative business men of Heppner who are in favor of prohibition," and beg to state that this is a misrepresentation. We believe that issues of this nature should be submitted to a vote of the people in general, but object to this being construed as an endorsement of prohibition. It is our belief that prohibition is not practical under existing conditions.

The ordinary employment of artifice in business is the mark of a petty institution, guided by petty minds, and it most always happens that they who use it to cover themselves in one place, uncover themselves in another. It gives us no small amount of pleasure to look back upon our past career with the knowledge that we never attempted to gain business by deceit, and every "knock" given us has been a "boost." The ones who first supported us in our efforts to lower prices in Heppner are still with us, because we have merited their confidence, because the goods were as represented and the prices were the lowest possible. All lines of merchandise in our various departments are up to the past standard of excellency and marked in plain figures, one price to all. Especial attention has been given to our Ready to Wear Clothing We present to the men of Heppner a complete stock, embracing 42 different and distinct patterns and all sizes from 48 stouts down. Price and quality have both been kept in mind. The
