THURSDAY..... July 2, 1908

And the next thing is the Fourth of July.

To get on the water wagon now like falling off a log.

Some people say that the man with a cool cellar is lucky.

Are you going to Ione on the Fourth. Our sister city will have a big time.

T. L. Barnett, the chief stockholder in the Pears' soap concern, which has within the past few years spent $15,000,000 in advertising, expresses his conviction that printer's ink is the best kind of commercial investment, in the following language: "I cannot understand how the question can be debated. Why, the fact that advertising pays is as clearly demonstrated every day as the sea rises. Select the proper medium, advertise intelligently, and your fortune is made. You must have new ideas for the changes of fashion. I spent $630,000 in advertising in one year and it paid well. Good goods, good advertising and plenty of it is my advice to ambitious commercial men."

A. E. Blain of Albany has lived there continuously for 60 years.

Woodburn wants a new county, and suggests Mathtion as its name.

Phoenix has been visited lately by a bear and a panther; nobody killed.

Albany is crowing because it has 26 automobiles, one more than Eugene.

Cottage Grove is pining to pay a tax to pay off its debt; does not want the salaries back.

A well of artesian water has been struck near North Powder, and people up there are greatly elated thereat.

A $20,000 business building, a $6,000 hotel, a $25,000 college building, and a $30,000 school building for the district, are among the improvements soon to be made in Milton.

Albany Democrat: The papers in Douglas and Yamhill counties claim to have the best counties in the state, but Mathtion better than either. Really this is a grand valley and all parts can't be beaten.

The Grande is better situated for the accommodation of large gatherings of people than any other locality in the interior of the northwest, says the Star. This is because of the construction of the Mormon tabernacle.

Lace county comprises territory 50 by 150 miles in extent, has 34,000,000-000 feet of standing timber, the finest water powers in the state, and room for 50,000 population says the Register.

Albert Swisher who died at Albany, Tuesday, was the oldest mail carrier in the United States says the Herald. He graduated from Brown university in 1856, and was a classmate with Secretaries of State Olney and Hay.

With indications that the sum may be doubled before the year ends, nearly $80,000 is being spent by private owners in building residences in Corvallis, that sum having either been spent or contracted to be spent on structures completed since January 1, now in course of construction, says the Times.

POLK'S GAZETTEER—A business Directory of each city, town and village in Oregon and Washington, giving a descriptive sketch of each place, together with the location and shipping facilities and a classified directory of each business and profession. R. L. Polk & Co., Inc., Seattle.

The editorial page of the Weekly Oregonian gives a broad treatment to a wide range of subjects.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS.

"Tom, Dick and Harry," with a trio of funmakers, Bickel, Watson and Wrothe, are pleasing big houses on the road.

Henry C. Mortimer has been engaged to originate a role in "The Lucky Miss Dean" at the Madison Square theater, New York.

Henry W. Savage has sold the South African rights of "The Prince of Pilsen" and "King Dodo" to James Nelson of Johannesburg.

Joseph Coyne appears as an Indian squaw in a burlesque of "The Squaw Man," which is one of the features of "Coming Thro' the Key."

Chauncey Olcott has resumed his tour in "Edmund Burke." During the next three months he will fill engagements in the principal southern cities.

Joseph Cawthorn will begin rehearsals of a new play, "Apartments to Let," by John J. McNally, on Jan. 29. Mr. Cawthorn will appear as a janitor.

John E. Henshaw, Agnes Cain Brown and other members of "The Sho Gun" company were entertained at dinner in Duluth recently by the Japanese consul.

The chief sensations that run through "When the World Sleeps" embrace the burning mills, the escape from the county jail, the chase of the fugitive, the midnight murder and the swing for life.

FACTS FROM FRANCE.

In Paris the average price of pure milk is 33.8 cents a gallon.

The average number of residents to the acre in Paris is no less than 128.

There are nearly 700,000 apartments or lodgings in the French metropolis which rent for less than $100 a year. About 17,000 bring $800 or more.

All the theatrical and amusement announcements of Paris are posted on pillar billboards that are placed at intervals along the boulevards. It is against the law to disfigure walls with posters.

All Paris is reading and discussing the memoirs of the Philadelphia dentist, Dr. Evans, the friend of Napoleon III., which have just been published and which contain a most excellent description of the last days of the second empire.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Criticism, like charity, should begin at home.

Apologies are like tears. They should be suppressed.

Don't sit down too long to rest if you have any desire to reach the top.

No man likes it when callers tell his wife that she is working too hard.

Don't tell your troubles. The exercise they get in the telling makes them grow.

A woman can make an enemy of another woman any day by looking sympathetically at the other woman's husband.

The trouble with the boomerang you send out against an enemy is that it will fly back and hit you at a time when you are most defenseless to meet it.—Athens Globe.

IMPERTINENT PERSONALS.

Hetty Green and Mark Twain have each celebrated a seventieth birthday. Mark has a lot of friends and Hetty has a lot of money.—Puck.

Secretary Loeb is now the father of a son, in accordance with his usual custom of doing all he can to promote the president's policies.—Kansas City Journal.

John P. Holland, the inventor, says that men will fly within a year. But it is recalled that in 1900 Mr. Tesla was going to be talking to Mars within twelve months.—Kansas City Times.

The new British cabinet contains the following writers: John Morley, James Bryce, Augustine Birrell and Winston Churchill. Hall Calne and Marie Corelli must feel terribly slighted.—Baltimore Sun.

MODES OF THE MOMENT.

Matelasse makes the handsomest and costliest of all of the new lounging robes.

Very short coats reaching just to the hips are seen in some of the newest tailor makes.

The empire coat is the thing this winter, and some very graceful models have been exhibited.

Long black gloves, long enough to wrinkle up on the arm, are being worn with all sorts of gowns.

The new linen turnover collars are fully two inches deep and are decorated with tiny linen covered buttons.

Buttons are used in every conceivable way. Tiny lace or pearl ones trim the sheerest of blouses, and big ones, elaborate or plain, trim coats and suits and dresses.

Scientific Progress.

Plumly, the scientist, was worried. "I've discovered today a wonderful fact," he said.

"Well, you ought to be glad."

"Yes; but, you see, it knocks out the wonderful fact that I discovered yesterday."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Overheard at the Club.

Gunner—They say Flusher sits at the poker table like a bisque statue.

Guyer—More like a plaster of paris statue.

Gunner—How so?

Guyer—Always cheap and easily broke.—Detroit Tribune.

Condon Times: There's no use worrying about crop prospects, and that the town has gone dry. Thing and conditions will eventually adjust themselves and promote the growth and prosperity of the home town. Cheer up and look pleasant! Stand up and yell for Condon.

Bears are more numerous in the mountains than for some years past says the Klamath Herald.

There are no less than three or four mills and factories of different kinds that are contemplating locating in Bandon, says the Recorder, and at least one or two of them are practically assured for this place. Bandon is liable to double in population within the next two or three years.

Men employed in road work, and straw berry pickers in northern Benton county were driven from there Monday in haste by a shower of bullets which whizzed uncomfortably close to their heads and ploughed the earth all around them, fired by sportsmen on the Willamette river, and a resident says people are frequently annoyed in this way.

Westerberg's Pure Ice Cream

Is a strictly Morrow County product made of 21 per cent cream, Babcock test, [which means 21 pounds butter fat per 100 pounds cream] guaranteed to be strictly first class and free from adulteration.

During the season of 1907, according to a conservative estimate, there were paid $7000.00 to Portland ice cream manufacturers and the express company, for ice cream, by Morrow County dealers. This money you will see was sent out of the county and never returned. I believe in boosting Morrow County. Distribute the money among our farmers. Morrow County first, last and all the time.

My plant is of sufficient capacity to supply the entire county with the frozen product and I solicit agents in every town. Write or call for wholesale prices.
