Women's Stylish Apparel

FIRST SHOWING OF SWELL FALL SUITS

We were offered many garment lines. We had our choice, we selected "La Vogue" line because that line has earned its reputation solely on its merit. It is not a cheap line. There's nothing cheap about the material, or workmanship, nor a cheap look about a single garment. But it is a line in which value is predominant. Correct in style and equally faultless in quality.

"La Vogue" garments are fashioned to fit living breathing, active women--not pictures or impossible models. They are practical as well as stylish and very moderately priced.

Its very easy to talk--If you'll just call at the store and look over the line, we'll feel gratified
