

#2047 The Beverly SKIRT
The Store That Strives to Please

A Great Showing of Fashionable Ladies Tailored Suits and Skirts---Exceptional Values

"SLAVES OF FASHION"—It is a misnomer and our gathering of new Fall Suits and Skirts is proof. It is you rather than whimsical Dame Fashion who is to be blessed. In fit the fashion is as broad minded semi-fitting to the silhouetting of the good lines of the figure. We feel confident we can and are prepared to meet the requirements of the most exacting tastes. We guarantee absolute fit in all garments and alterations free of expense to customers.

CORSETS

The style of the woman, the effect of her gown—indeed, the very life of the gown itself depends largely on the corset she wears. If it is the correct model, the one that suits her, she may be dressed with the utmost simplicity yet be distinctively stylish. If you have corset troubles we would suggest that you see our new fall and special demonstration of the American Lady Corsets. No. 404 new snug hip for medium and well developed figures, medium high bust, long hip and back. Material Batiste, hose supporters front and sides, $1.00. No. 750 for slender figures, high in bust, especially long and cleverly designed with bias seams. It molds the form perfectly. Material coutil, $2.00. No. 404, for slender and medium figures, made on long graceful lines, high bust, long back and hip, material coutil, $1.25

LAKE MANGISHLAK.

How Strangely Perfumed Waters Are Mauve in Color.

"Grasse, clinging to its Alp, high above the Mediterranean, is supposed to give the stranger a headache on account of its perfume," said a perfumer. "Grasse makes the world's perfumes. You see mountains of flowers there, as in a smiling country you see mountains of wheat. The odor is powerful, but as far as headaches—no."

"But in the Caspian district there is a lake so strongly perfumed that if the perfume boats on it or swims in it he usually gets a headache. This lake's waters are of white salt crystals, its waters are mauve in color, and from it the odor of violets is exhaled."

"It is Lake Mangishlak. I visited it once and I couldn't bottle it up and put it on the perfume market. No go."

"You see, it is the presence of the wonderful Polydeytha violacea that gives the lake its hue and smell. When you bathe the waters the seaweed at once after a few days die and rot. Then the odor changes from violet to—pink."

"That if you are over in the Caspian you take a look at the lake. It is in its way as curious as the asphalt lakes of South America."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

SARTORIAL DILEMMAS.

Geography Problems That Are Puzzling Our English Cousins.

A problem is put forward by a writer in a contemporary who gives food for thought. It is this: Suppose by some combination of circumstances you were faced by the alternative of wearing a frock coat with brown boots.

Which would be the better way out of it—to wear a bowler or a tall hat? As the writer justly remarks, if you wear a bowler then the thing you have to wear away is the coat. If you wear a tall hat, you have only the boots to wear away for. We should advise those of our readers who find one morning that all the wearing apparel in the wardrobe had been stolen during the night, with the exception of a frock coat, waistcoat, trousers, shirt, collar, vest, a pair of brown boots and two hats—one tall, the other round—to cut the Gordian knot by staying in bed. Another of life's dilemmas which may face the traveler down the world's dusty highway has to do with collars.

Suppose on arriving at a house for a week end and starting to dress for dinner you find that your evening collar have not been vented by your sponge or otherwise defaced. Should you wear a clean double collar or a dirty orthodox evening collar? In the former case you will be natty, but a thing of nothing to all properly constituted men. In the latter you will give the impression that you cannot afford the services of a laundry.—London Globe.

Both Ways.

Woman—Now that I have fed you, are you going without doing your work? Tramp—O couldn't wurruk on my hungry stomach, mum, an' Oi niver wurruk on er full one, so there yez be!—Smart Set.

Making Headway.

Nervous Traveler (to seat companion)—How fast should you say you were traveling? Companion (who has been sitting with the girl across the way)—About a smile a minute.—Life.

To Make Waxed Paper.

This is used for keeping substances which contain either a volatile aromatic ingredient or grease, which would penetrate through ordinary paper. On a flat sheet of copper over a gentle fire place a sheet of paper as a base and then lay a second sheet on top of the first. Coat this second sheet with yellow or white wax and distribute the latter uniformly over the entire sheet by means of a sponge, exerting a little pressure, till the paper is everywhere transparent and consequently permeated by the wax. If the fire is too feeble, the process will be retarded. Too powerful a flame is still more harmful, as the paper is liable to become brown or black. Stearin may be used instead of wax.—Der Industriose Geschafstmann.

Sure to Be There.

An old Scotch farmer was lying on what he thought was his deathbed. He began to give orders to his wife about his funeral and the people to be invited. His wife, knowing that he was not dying, paid but little attention to his requests, and this so enraged the farmer that he rose on his elbow and cried out:

"What need I speak? There'll be naething dune richt unless I'm there myself!"

His wife, patting him on the shoulder, replied: "Toots, man, Bauldy! Keep yer min' easy. Ye'll be the principal man there."—Glasgow Times.

Where They Gas Away.

Of the late Langdon Smith, the brilliant journalist and author of New York, a Denver reporter narrated anecdotes the other day.

"I remember," he said, "my first visit to Washington. Smith, big and handsome and vivacious, showed me about. From an eminence a great pale dome rose up against the blue sky, the dome of the capitol.

"What is that?" said I.
"That?" said Smith. 'Oh, that's the national gas works.'"

In One Lesson.

He—Your sister said she couldn't dance.

She—Well, can she?

"Yes; I made her. We hadn't been on the floor a minute when I stepped on her foot. You just ought to have seen her."—Yonkers Statesman.

Misnamed.

Towne—Why do you call young Petherbrane "Cholly?" His first name is Noah.

Browne—Yes, but that's so inappropriate. Noah had sense enough to get in out of the rain.—Philadelphia Press.

He who will not reason is a bigot; he who cannot is a fool; he who dares not is a slave.—Byron.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

DIRECT TO YOU

4 quart bottles of GENUINE CYRUS NOBLE direct to you all charges paid to the nearest railroad express office, $4.90 from the best known, strictly wholesale house in the Northwest. Established in Portland in 1864.

4 quarts GENUINE CYRUS NOBLE $4.90.
A pure—old—honest—whiskey bottled by the distillers. Guaranteed to the United States Government, and to you, to contain nothing excepting pure straight whiskey.
Many of the railroads use Cyrus Noble almost exclusively. So do the big steamship companies. So does nearly every big metropolitan hotel. Because it's pure. Because it's aged in wood. Because it has that soft, delicate, palatable flavor of the ripened grain, often mentioned but rarely found.

It's Easy to Reach North Beach

Take Steamer Potter from Portland

Passengers are now transferred to the railroad at MEGLER—fourteen miles up the Columbia River from Ilwaco. This eliminates the necessity of steamers waiting for the tide, and insures a prompt and regular Summer Schedule.

The Steamer T. J. POTTER leaves Portland every morning except Saturday and Sunday at 8:30 o'clock—Saturday only at 2 o'clock p. m. Remember the Summer rate on the O. R. & N. is $11.80 from Heppner, Oregon, to all North Beach Points and return; good until September 30.

North Beach is a famous, beautiful place—the most perfect beach on the whole North Coast. There are accommodations galore at prices to suit all tastes; camping facilities without equal—perfect bathing conditions; all sorts of amusements and diversions. Come, have a good rest and a jolly good time. Let us send you our new summer book, and tell you all about NORTH BEACH.
