SENATOR FULTON NEXT SATURDAY

Arrangements Completed for Big Meeting.

The presidential campaign will be opened in Morrow county next Saturday, when Senator Chas. W. Fulton will address the citizens at the opera house in Heppner.

Arrangements have been completed by the Morrow County Taft Club for a big meeting.

The lone band has been engaged to furnish music.

There will be a big parade and a big time.

Two traveling salesman representing Eastern buggy houses, were recently fined $300 each in Wasco county for violation of the peddler's license law. The constitutionality of the law will be tested in the supreme court. It is now time of year for these fakirs to come in with their cheap wares. Taxes cannot be collected from them and they should be compelled to pay a license or a fine.

The Irrigon Irrigator is up in arms over a report that an Echo man circulated at the Pendleton fair, trying to make people believe that Irrigon's fruit exhibit was shipped from other points and not grown at Irrigon. The Irrigator calls the man who circulated the report a lying skunk and a few other pet names. Irrigon's fruit display was a credit to that fertile district and the enterprising community. The man who circulated the untruthful report must be a fool, to say the least.

The Dallas Chronicle: "Nika wake cumtux Injin," said a Siwash individual this morning when asked about the brown people. The gypsy fortune-tellers who are located in a tent west of Gunning's blacksmith shop, are a curiosity to the Indians in the city, who cannot understand what sort of yellow-haired Indians those are who look at palms and by cards can tell what will befall you in the future.

The work of ridding the orchards of pests goes bravely on in several Oregon counties.

The newspaper business must be picking up in Corvallis, remarks the Albany Democrat. The Times man offers $100 toward a big pipe organ, whoever installs it.

Item in Medford Tribune: J. C. Godlove has sold 35 acres off his place on the Medford Jacksonville road to Mr. Brooks of California for $300 an acre. Alfalfa is growing on it.

Albany Democrat: Dr. L. M. Davis of Portland, who has sued the Journal for $40,000 damages, values his future political opportunities at $10,000 and wants that much for damage by The Journal. This is getting interesting.

Merrill Record: There is lots of good hunting on hunting on Tule lake now. Every day sees some of our local hunters bringing in a fine string of Mallards. At this time of the year there is no place that can beat the Merrill country for good bird shooting.

Langell Valley item in Klamath Falls Republican: A great many different modes of travel may be witnessed along the road at present. Some afoot carrying their bed, bicycling, buggies, freight wagons, autos, etc., all en route to the dam site.

So well pleased are the people of Burns with Prineville flour that they have supplemented their original order of 100,000 pounds of the staple, made and hauled to Harney county during August, with an additional order of 60,000 pounds to be freighted over in October.—Prineville Journal. But you watch Harney county and see it raising flour for export in a year or two.
