FULTON IN HEPPNER

ADDRESSED A LARGE AUDIENCE.

Much Enthusiasm Shown at Big Rally.

The presidential campaign in Morrow county was opened in earnest last Saturday, upon the arrival of Senator Chas. W. Fulton, who addressed the largest assembly that has gathered in Heppner for a long time.

Arrangements had been completed by the Morrow County Taft Club, and while a big crowd was expected, the number of people that came exceeded all expectations.

Arrangements for a special train to take visitors back Sunday morning were completed and Ione, Lexington and other points sent up good sized delegations.

A committee from the Taft Club met the speaker at the depot and he was brought to the Palace hotel in a carriage appropriately decorated with our national colors and pictures of Taft and Sherman.

Early in the evening the Ione band in uniform appeared on Main street which brought out an immense crowd.

Taft Club members with white and blue canes to which were attached pictures of Taft, were in evidence in the parade to Roberts' opera house.

Many people went to the opera house before the parade started and by the time the bulk of the procession arrived, the opera house was already well filled.

Many were turned away being unable to get standing room.

T. J. Mahoney presided over the meeting and introduced the speaker.

Senator Fulton appeared in good form and for almost two hours held the audience in close attention.

His speech showed careful preparation and was made up from gold facts, making the argument both impressive and interesting.

The general good impression will no doubt result in much good for the republican cause in Morrow county.

The Ione band furnished good music and helped greatly in the entertainment.

BACK FROM THE FAIRS

W. O. MINOR GETS THE PREMIUMS.

More Prize Winners Added to Show Herd of Shorthorns.

W. O. Minor, the well known Shorthorn breeder has returned to Heppner with his prize herd of Shorthorns after making the Northwest fair circuit.

Mr. Minor naturally is greatly pleased over his success with his show herd.

The first meeting visited was the State Fair at Salem, where Mr. Minor took 19 head of his cattle.

At Salem the following prizes were awarded:

One champion, 1 grand champion, 5 1sts and 7 second premiums.

At Pacific National Show, Portland—One champion, 1 grand champion, 5 1sts, 4 2ds, 4 3ds.

At Salem and Portland the competition was exceptionally strong, there being 75 Shorthorns to contend with.

At Portland, Mr. Minor bought from the Glide show herd, three winners including Inwood Lass, the grand female champion throughout the entire circuit. Inwood Lass is a yearling weighing 1450 pounds.

At Yakima, Wash.—Both grand champions, 3 champions, 10 1sts, 4 2ds, winning every first and second premium competed for, including a silver cup offered for best beef animal of any breed.

Spokane, Wash.—Both grand champions, 3 champions, 10 1sts, 4 2ds, 4 diplomas, and a silver cup for best beef herd any breed.

Walla Walla, Wash.—No championships offered; 9 1sts, 3 2ds.

Mr. Minor received $1711.50 in cash premiums and sold 11 head of cattle.

MEETING OF GROWERS

GOOD ATTENDANCE LOOKED FOR.

Eleventh Annual Convention Oregon Wool-growers.

Dan P. Smythe, secretary of the Oregon Woolgrowers Association, sends out the following:

"The eleventh annual convention of the Oregon Woolgrowers Association will be held in Heppner, Oregon, Tuesday and Wednesday, November 17 and 18, 1908. The O. R. & N. Co. has granted a special reduced rate of one and one third regular fare for round trip, and the people of Heppner have provided ample accommodations and entertainment.

This meeting is most important to the sheep and wool interests. The program is excellent, such vital subjects as the range question, scrub eradication, forest reserve administration, wool warehouses, wool sales, tariff revision, sheep killing out aces, salt, predatory wild animals, speed limit law, and improvement of general sheep condition will be discussed by able and prominent speakers. All wool growers should be present, take part in the discussions, and assist in the formation of plans for the future. The association has done much for sheep men of Oregon. It can do a great deal more, especially if all actively give it support.

You need the Association and the Association needs you.

Come and be a part of this convention and bring your family and friends.

Lexington.

It rained.

Postmaster McMillan made a business trip to Portland, Monday.

Mrs. Jane Penland went to Heppner, Tuesday, to visit friends a few days.

P. M. Christenson went to The Dalles last Thursday, returning Saturday.

DEATH OF MRS. T. W. AYERS

Remains Brought to Heppner on Special Train.

Although not unexpected the people of Pendleton were shocked Saturday morning by the news that at 5 o'clock Mrs. T. W. Ayers, Jr., had been relieved from her sufferings by the visitation of the Grim Reaper and her spirit had gone to its Maker.

Mrs. Ayers had been ill but two weeks but was suffering from a severe attack of pleuro-pneumonia and it had been certain for several days that her recovery was impossible. The aid of the best physicians was constantly at her service and it is seldom that such incessant care is bestowed upon one so soon afflicted but it was all in vain. Surrounded by her husband and numerous relatives the end came peacefully as the return of day approached with its promise of a new life for the busy world.

Mrs. Ayers' maiden name was May Katherine Matlock and she was born in Lane county on the 12th of June, 1871, being just past six weeks of age. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Matlock. When a young girl her parents moved to Heppner and in 1892 she was married to T. W. Ayers, Jr. In 1895 they moved to Pendleton where their home has since been.

Mrs. Ayers was especially popular in this city and wherever known and was highly esteemed by all who knew her. Her sister, Mrs. A. A. Roberts, of La Grande, died six weeks ago and her remains were taken from this city to Heppner for burial by whose side the body of Mrs. Ayers was laid, and as the sisters were inseparable companions the short time elapsing between their deaths lends an especial sadness to the double affliction.

Mrs. Ayers leaves two sisters, Mrs. Dr. E. A. Vaughn of Pendleton, and Mrs. Frank Richardson of Portland. Also a brother, Leslie Matlock.—Pendleton Tribune

The special train bearing the remains arrived in Heppner at 12:45 p. m., Sunday.

A large number of friends were at the depot. The body was taken to the Elks hall and from there to the South Methodist church where funeral services were conducted by Rev. Orr.

The remains were laid at rest by the side of her sister among a great quantity of floral tributes.

What the Kidneys Do.

Their unceasing work keeps us strong and healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealed some part of this impure matter settles in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, etc.

Mrs. Geo. Shipley living in the northern part of Heppner, Ore., says: "My kidneys gave me a great deal of annoyance for years. My back ached and when I stooped or lifted anything, or brought any strain on the muscles of the back, the pains would become acute pronounced. At times I could not rest well on account of the pains thro' my kidneys and there were so many other symptoms which denoted a disordered condition of these organs that I decided to try Doan's Kidney Pills, procuring a box at the Slocum Drug Co. I used the contents when I noticed a great improvement in my condition, continued taking them and they relieved all the troubles. Doan's Kidney Pills have proven of great value to me and I cheerfully recommend them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 25c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's and take no other.
