J. R. Nuamaker came up from Hood River, Friday.

Dan Rice, of Hardman, was a Heppner visitor Friday.

John Reese returned from the Walla Walla fair, Monday.

S. P. Garrigues came up from Portland, Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Cornett were in from Butter creek, Saturday.

Bob Carsner, the Spray stockman, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ayers came in from Parker's Mill, Saturday.

Everybody goes to the Orpheum. The greatest show on top of earth for 10c.

Peter Baurenfiend, of Cecil, was an incoming passenger Tuesday evening.

J. P. Rhea was in the city Saturday. Mr. Rhea is now a resident of Walla Walla.

L. E. Ward, editor of the Ione Proclaimer, is in Heppner Saturday, to hear Senator Fulton.

Postmaster Smead returned Tuesday evening from Ukiah, Cal., where he has been visiting his mother.

Judge H. J. Bean returned to Pendleton, yesterday morning, after attending to court business in this city.

There is a shortage of $5000 in the Portland postoffice. The matter is being investigated by the Government.

W. O. Minor, who has been making the circuit of the fairs with his prize herd of Shorthorns, returned Tuesday evening.

Emil Scharff came in from Monmouth, Thursday evening. Mr. Scharff brought in 200 head of hogs which were purchased by C. A. Minor.

A Clatskanie man went hunting and lost his dog. Sunday he went out to look for it, taking along a shotgun and a revolver, and found the dog guarding a treed cougar, which with several shots was killed. It measured 9 feet 8 inches in length and stood 3 1/2 feet high.

Congressman Ellis found himself an important dignitary when he went to Coos Bay on the Breakwater, for in his honor the steamer was decorated in gay colors, and on her arrival at Marshfield and North Bend signal guns were fired. The ship's code was used for decorating the craft. Ellis was out on a speech-making tour.—Portland Telegram.

W. O. Minor, who has just finished the Northwestern fair circuit, comes back to Heppner again loaded down with sweepstakes, grand champion, champion and first prize winnings galore. Not content with his magnificent herd that he started out with, he has added the cream of the winners from other herds. His success is the result of years of untiring effort and good judgment in the work that he loves. Mr. Minor's cattle were highly complimented by the Eastern judges, who strongly insisted that he should show his herd at Denver and Chicago. Morrow County should feel proud of the Mountain Valley Stock Farm.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs quickly, strengthens the lungs and expels colds. Get the genuine in a yellow package. Slocum Drug Co.

Saturday afternoon at the Orpheum for children.

County Commissioner W. T. Campbell, of Lexington, was in the city yesterday.

For children under 12 years of age, 5 cents, at the Orpheum, Saturday afternoon, at 2:30.

Miss Mabel Cameron and brother, Neil, came up from Portland yesterday to be with their mother who now resides in Heppner.

The meeting for women only which was postponed last Sunday will be held at the Christian church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Three shows Saturday evening at the Orpheum. First, 7; second, 7:40; third, 8:15. Come out and laugh and see some of the world's greatest plays reproduced.

It isn't a new baby in W. P. Smith's home that makes him so good natured—his wife is using Folger's Golden Gate Coffee—her grocer grinds it.

Henry Neal of Lone Rock passed through town today with three carloads of cattle, mostly dry cows, for the Portland market. He also purchased 3400 head of lambs at two dollars a head from Bob Wright, W. Mascall and others, that will be run this winter on the Lone Rock range.—Fossil Journal.

The Sunday school of the Christian church is breaking all former records on attendance. Last Sunday 156 were present. An effort is being made to have 200 present next Sunday. The Superintendent and teachers urge all who are not attending Sunday school at some other church to be present next Sunday and enroll as regular members.

The revival conducted by Evangelist Handsaker at the Christian church continues with growing interest. There will be meetings each evening but Saturday this week and next. It is not known at this time just how long the services will continue. The Evangelist announces his intention of staying as long as the interest demands. There have been several additions to the church and many more seem to be deeply interested in the message that is presented from night to night.

Saved His Boy's Life

"My three year old boy was badly constipated, had a high fever and was in an awful condition. I gave him two doses of Foley's Orino Laxative and the next morning the fever was gone and he was entirely well. Foley's Orino Laxative saved his life." A. Wolkush, Casimer, Wis. Slocum Drug Co.

Democratic Speaking.

Hon. O. P. Coshow, of Portland, will address the citizens of Morrow county at Roberts hall, Thursday evening, October 29. Mr. Coshow is an ex-state senator and an able speaker. Everybody invited to attend.

New Song Books.

The South Methodist church has received the new hymn books ordered a few days ago. They have new books for the congregation, also new books for the Sunday school, and new anthem books for the choir. The books will be in use next Sunday.

Preaching at 11 a. m. Subject: "Prevailing Prayer." Evening topic: "Temptation." The evening hour for service will be at 7 o'clock during the winter, instead of 7:30. Sunday school at 10 a. m. All are welcome without regard to "race, color, or previous condition of servitude."

There is none better than the Orpheum. The show houses of Portland at the same price are none better. "Always the best" is our motto. A good show is educative. Get the habit, thereby get educated.

Married Man in Trouble.

A married man who permits any member of the family to take anything except Foley's Honey and Tar, for coughs, colds and lung trouble, is guilty of neglect. Nothing else is as good for all pulmonary troubles. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates and is in a yellow package. For sale by Slocum Drug Co.

Little Miss Margaret Garrison of Forest Grove, in addition to the prizes which she won at the state fair on her sewing, was awarded a sewing machine at the Washington county fair last week for the best exhibit of needle work of girls under 14 years.

A Jeweler's Experience.

C. R. Klager, the jeweler, 1060 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my back ache and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now at end to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed. Slocum Drug Co."
