

HUNTING IS PROHIBITED On Government Irrigation Lake at Hermiston.

That the government has issued an order prohibiting hunting in the vicinity of the Cold Springs reservoir near Hermiston was the statement of Game Warden O. F. Turner yesterday. The ground around the big inland lake will be staked off in a few days and notices posted forbidding all hunting on the premises.

The location of the reservoir makes the place especially good as a roosting place for ducks and geese and if protected properly will be a means of increasing the game in this section of the country many-fold. The reservoir is four miles from the Columbia and about seven from the Umatilla and if hunting is permanently prohibited near it the geese and ducks, when driven by hunters from both rivers, will make the reservoir a permanent roosting place and will come out in all directions in search of food. This fact, Mr. Turner and many others say, will make the hunting much better for everybody all over this section.

In the past, it is said by many who have observed matters, that the privilege of hunting on the lake has been subjected to flagrant abuses. Hunters have gone out in the water on rafts and at night on fire boats and have slaughtered the ducks and geese mercilessly. If this state of affairs is allowed to continue the game will be driven completely out of the country.

Another point which has been mentioned in favor of the steps which are being taken by the government is that many people are around the lake and shooting would be dangerous. In every respect it is considered a splendid ruling and one which should be enforced to the letter. The man in charge of the reservoir will be instructed to keep continual watch. —Pendleton Tribune.

Cold Weather Advice.
To all in to beware of coughs and colds on the chest; as neglected they readily lead to pneumonia, consumption or other pulmonary troubles. Just as soon as the cough appears treat it with Ballard's Horehound Syrup, the standard cure of America. Use as directed—perfectly harmless. A cure and preventive for all diseases of the lungs. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Patterson & Son.

Scriber Out on Bail.

At La Grande Friday evening J. W. Scriber, cashier of the Farmers' and Traders' National bank was placed under $15,000 bonds by John Hailey, Jr., United States commissioner. He furnished the necessary bail and will be at liberty until his case is passed upon by the United States grand jury which will be called in Portland the latter part of November.

The particular charge against Scriber sworn to before U. S. District Attorney John McCourt, charges the banker with having converted to his own use bank funds amounting to the sum of $12,525.25.

But it is now said that this does not show the extent of Scriber's crookedness. He is said to have made a continuous practice for years of forging notes for the purpose of raising money on the same. It is reputed that fictitious notes amounting to $50,000 or more have been unearthed. To Deputy Griffith he admitted yesterday that he had been engaged in the perilous practice for five or six years.
