Under Auspices Ladies Aid Society of M. E. Church.

Franklin P. Davis of New York was in our city this week. Mr. Davis is manager and sole director of the noted psychologist Dr. George Gilbert Bancroft, and D. Lillian Lewis, vocalist and impersonator. Mr. Davis made arrangements to bring this talented pair to our city for two entertainments, Dec. 2nd and 3rd, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church.

Dr. Bancroft will present on the first night his famous psychological lecture, "Hoodooos," a scientific discourse on all psyche phenomena, a most startling as well as interesting entertainment.

On the second night Dr. Bancroft will give his humorous sketch, "When, Whom and How to Love," a musical lecture novelty and a laugh producer of great magnitude. Dr. Bancroft will be ably assisted each evening by the charming singer, Miss Lewis, in a brilliant and versatile repertoire of vocal and literary gems.

Mr. Davis assisted the ladies on Monday in listing tickets and the results were very flattering, but owing to election day the work was postponed until some future date, when the ladies will finish listing the entire city.

R. R. BUTLER

Spoke to Crowded House in Heppner.

R. R. Butler who spoke at the Commercial Club in this city last Friday evening in behalf of the republicans, was greeted with a crowded house.

Mr. Butler while a young man is one of the best speakers in Oregon and created a good impression here.

Good music was furnished by the Lone band and the Crawford orchestra.

At the Methodist Church.

The special music rendered by the choir at every service is of a very high order. At the close of the morning service on last Sunday the choir sang, "Oh, Be Reconciled!" The song was well rendered, making very impressive the sweet pleading of that wonderful chorus. At the evening service, Miss Glasscock, alto, and Mr. C. M. White, tenor, sang, "Through the Gates of Gold," an exquisitely beautiful duet rendered so splendidly and with such a feeling of earnestness on the part of the singers that it doubtless made the vision of "the Gates" come near to many.

On next Sunday, Nov. 8th, Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. and junior League at 3 p. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., by the pastor. Subjects, morning sermon, "Endurance by Vision of God;"—Heb. xi:27; evening, "The Pharisee and the Publican"—Luke xviii:10-14.

A Jeweler's Experience.

C. R. Klinger, the jeweler, 1660 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my back ache and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now at end to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed."
