

FORCED SALE

of the Entire Stock of

Marquardsen's Dept. Store

It is not very hard to spend money. You can induce most anyone to take it away from you. But how about the equivalent? The return you get for your money is what counts. We want your money, but we are more than sure that you are getting full value. Nothing can stop the tide of favor that carries this sale on. Our incomparable values unite us by indissoluble bonds to a wise and discriminating shopping public. Bargains greater than ever crowd our store during this sale.

This is a Forced Sale

By all the words imply. Marquardsen is hard pressed for the ready money and absolutely necessary that he raises cold cash to buy his spring stock in Eastern markets in February, 1909. Like all good merchants he discounts his bills by paying cash for his goods, but the condition of the country as you know well, has been non-favorable in the mercantile lines. Fire and water, backed by the sheriff could not make the prices that we do for the Seven Days Big Selling.

My entire stock of Men's, Ladies and Boys Suits, Overcoats, Furnishings, Dry Goods and Groceries, to be sold at practically your price--FOR SEVEN DAYS.

Look for the Big Colored Cloth Signs--THAT'S THE PLACE

Sale will Continue but Seven Days, Saturday, January 9, to Saturday, January 16, Inclusive

Perhaps some will say Marquardsen is broke, others, perhaps he is crazy, but never mind the comments, just remember Marquardsen stands ready to deliver the goods, if you have the cash to pay for them.

We have passed our 21st milestone in our as the First National Bank of Heppner.

During this time we have been identified with the growth of Morrow county and have assisted many of our customers in becoming well-to do. At the same time we have made reasonable profit on the capital we have had invested.

We do not take up every proposition that is presented to us, but we have always tried to meet the reasonable demands of our customers.

It is our purpose to merit a continuance of the confidence of the community, which has been extended to us for the past twenty-one years.
