THE HALL OF FAME.

Admiral Jaureguiberry has been appointed head of the French mission which will take part in the celebration of the Quebec tricentennial.

The queen of the Netherlands has by a decree dated June 1 conferred the order of knighthood of Orange-Nassau upon F. Cumliffe Owen of New York.

The president has appointed Captain Lewis Gulon of the Twenty-sixth Louisiana Infantry a member of the Vicksburg national park commission to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of General Stephen D. Lee.

N. S. Bowker of Marshfield, Me., has been chairman of the board of selectmen for forty-nine years, from 1856 to 1906, excepting 1904. He was also town treasurer for twenty-two years and is at the present time town clerk.

A sixty-first wedding anniversary was observed recently by Mr. and Mrs. Hobart B. Ford of St. Johnsbury, Vt. Mr. Ford is eighty-one years old. His father lived to be ninety-six and practiced fancy skating until he was over eighty.

Lord Mount Stephen, formerly the president of the Canadian Pacific Railway company, who had previously donated $200,000 to the King Edward hospital fund, has now further donated 5,000 shares of the Great Northern railroad to the same fund.

City Councilman Victor Carlson of New Britain, Conn., in the street in that town ran so near a man on the walk he started to beg pardon and found he was a long lost brother, August, of Boise, Ida., whom he had not seen or heard from for twenty-two years.

At the recent golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Lloyd of Waltham, Wash., more than 200 old settlers were on hand with congratulations. Lloyd crossed the plains in 1845 in season to take part in a four day fight with the Indians on the banks of the Wallawalla river.

in Proportion.
"Yes," drawled Reginald, "I always select a gray hat."
"And why?" asked Miss Tabasco.
"Why, to match the color of my brains."
"Gracious! You must select a small hat then."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Fly Catches.

The Boston National club has purchased Catcher Harry Smith from the Pittsburg club.

With the exception of Hostetter, not one of the present St. Louis National men was on the team three years ago.

Charley Ganzel, once a veteran catcher, is now salesman for a Boston manufacturing concern and looks prosperous.

Los Angeles failing to act promptly to secure the return of outfielder Carlisle, the Boston American league club sold that player to Kansas City.

Scout Tom O'Brien of the Cleveland club reports that it is next to impossible to find players of major league caliber in the various minor leagues.

German Gleanings.

Jena is to have a biological (phylogenetic) museum as a memorial of Professor Haeckel.

A Bible well preserved in wooden covers dated 1590 has been found built into the wall of an old house at Stuttgart, near Danzig.

Berlin workmen obtain higher wages than those in other parts of the empire. These Berlin men also have a reputation of being the best workmen in Germany.

The savings banks of Germany have some 19,000,000 pass books out and their deposits amount to 33,500,000,000 marks ($3,213,000,000). These deposits are practically all guaranteed by the various municipalities of the empire.

Plays and Players.

"A Waltz Dream" is to be produced in Australia.

Vera Michelena is going to Paris to study for grand opera.

Elsa Ryan has been engaged for the new opera by Pixley and Luders, entitled "Marcelle."

Nanette Comstock is to star under the management of James K. Hackett in a comedy called "Jet," by Louis Lovell.

Next season John Drew is to appear in "Jack Straw," by William Somerset Maugham, a young English dramatist who has suddenly become famous.
