Broken milk is better than quart of frozen milk on a stick is a very formidable weapon in the hand of an angry man or boy, as it is possible to knock a person down with it. Irkutsk people hang their milk on hooks instead of putting it in pans, though, of course, when warm spring weather comes on they have to use the pans or pails as the milk begins to melt and drop down the hooks.

Individuality is the keynote of all "Sincerity styles. They are not mere imitations of fadish models, but the original prodduct of high class American designers and tailors, who adopt the latest suggestions of style and incorporate them into their clothing.

Their clothing is all cut and finished by custom tailors, hence their perfection of fit and finish. Every detail of their making is supervised by skilled experts. The utmost care and good judgment is exercised in the selection of findings and trimmings, resulting in their unrivaled style, fiit and shape retaining qualities.

We are justly proud of our showing of "Sincerity" Clothes for spring and invite inspection of our new line which has just been received. Come in and look them over whether you intend purchasing just now or not. You will be welcome.

At least I think many people of those nobier trades that work by night (journulists, policemen, burglars, coffee stall keepers and such mistaken enthusiasts Miss Etta Morrison, formerly of Kicker; organized adult class as refuse to go home till morning) must often have stood admiring some black bulk of building with a crown of battlements or a crest of spires and then burst into tears at daybreak to discover that it was only a haberdasher's shop with huge gold letters across the face of it.-G. A. Chesterton in London News.

Tax on Hats.

Not only have hats at various times been subject to taxation, but have even been made the subject of special laws. Thus in Henry VII.'s reign none was allowed to sell hats at a larger price than 20 pence or caps for more than 2s. Sd. Some compensation, however, for this interference with free trade on Sundays and holidays every one above seven years of age was required to wear a cap of wool of English make under penalty of 3 farthings fine for every day's neglect.-London Chronicle.
