Johannes Troedson was in from Ella, Tuesday. Mr. Troedson is one of the oldest farmers in this section of Morrow county and says that he never saw crop prospects brighter at this time of year.

Frank Menefee, a prominent attorney of The Dalles, came up Monday to attend to some legal matters before the circuit court, Tuesday. Mr. Menefee is Grand Vice Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of this state and met with the boys here Tuesday evening.

Phil Cohn's warehouse, near the depot was broken into one night this week. The miscreant did not seem to find anything desirable. Nothing was missed. A number of strangers with every appearance of being undesirable have been lounging around the city for some time. A good sized camp of walking and box car tourists are taking life easy along the railroad track below the depot. Street work or the rock pile would be the proper entertainment for this class of visitors.

Some miscreant broke into Noble Bros. harness and saddlery store last Saturday night and breaking open the till with an ax, took $2.50. Entrance was gained by forcing open a back door. Late in the evening a sale was made by Frank Noble, and not going to the trouble of unlocking the safe, the money was put into the till. Mr. Noble is of the opinion that the thief was looking in the window when the sale was made and in this way knew that the money was there. Nothing else in the store was disturbed.

School Notes.

The proceeds of the school entertainment given by the Hardman school a few evenings ago, amounts to something over $26.00. The money will be used for the benefit of the library.

A box social was held at the Social Ridge school house last Saturday night. An interesting program was rendered, after which the the boxes were sold. As the farmers are now very busy with spring work, the attendance was small. The sale of boxes netted $19.00, which will be used to purchase a globe and some maps.

The writer visited the school at Eight Mile Center last Friday. Miss Emma Wilson, the teacher, is keeping the work up to a high standard. The term will close next week. In the evening, a local educational meeting was held at the school house. The choir furnished two songs. Miss Wilson discussed the topic "Home Study," from the standpoint of the teacher; Robert Young discussed it from the standpoint of a pupil, and J. S. Young discussed it from the standpoint of a parent. The audience manifested much interest in the discussion. The writer delivered his lecture on "Ideas and Ideals." The people of this vicinity are awake upon educational matters. An excellent literary and debating society has been maintained during the winter. There has also been an excellent singing school one evening each week. Several old fashioned spelling matches have been held. A new organ has been recently purchased for the school. The school has also a new flag.

Sincerity Clothing

Standard of Style

Individuality is the keynote of all "Sincerity styles. They are not mere imitations of fadish models, but the original product of high class American designers and tailors, who adopt the latest suggestions of style and incorporate them into their clothing.

Their clothing is all cut and finished by custom tailors, hence their perfection of fit and finish. Every detail of their making is supervised by skilled experts. The utmost care and good judgment is exercised in the selection of findings and trimmings, resulting in their unrivaled style, fit and shape retaining qualities.

We are justly proud of our showing of "Sincerity" Clothes for spring and invite inspection of our new line which has just been received. Come in and look them over whether you intend purchasing just now or not. You will be welcome.
