THURSDAY.....April 1, 1909

Already movement is on foot to arrange for a monster Fourth of July celebration in Heppner. Let us make it the biggest and best ever known here.

Weather conditions could hardly be better for both the stockman and farmer. With plenty of moisture, warmth and sunshine, everything is doing well.

And now Aoki and Miss Emery will be removed from the front pages of the city dailies—they are married. There ought to be a separate reservation for the like. They are not good enough to be put with the Indians.

The new bridge across Rhea creek at the Scherzinger place, will be a steel structure, the first one ever built in Morrow county. While the first cost will be a little greater, in the long run it will be economy as well as safety for the public.

It is to be hoped that the sleek swindler, Davis will be captured and punished in a manner equal to his crime. Such a man is dangerous to be at large. With all of the safeguards of prudent business methods, such cunning students of crime often catch the most careful business man off guard and plunder honest earnings. It would appear that Davis had an accomplice, however, little is known of the man. Previous arrangement for putting into effect his nefarious transaction, was worked to a state of perfection rarely witnessed. It would seem that he had anticipated every question that was asked and the child like simplicity of his ready answers would indicate an old hand at the game. It is lucky that his fraudulent transactions were not greater.

GETTING OUT OF THE RUT.

The order of the county court of Morrow county to appropriate $13,000 from the general fund for purchase of the land and equipment for an experimental farm, provided of course, that this county is fortunate enough to be favored with the site by the government and state officials, can be looked upon as one of the first moves to climb out of the rut of isolation and mossback ideas that have prevailed for years.

Morrow county is probably the only county in the state without an active booster organization of some kind.

The railroads with the low col- onist rates are bringing thousands of Eastern people to Oregon.

Many of these people are looking for homes and investments. But very few are coming here because the opportunities of our county are not made known.

An active demonstration farm in charge of agricultural experts, if the experiments are given proper publicity, would not only benefit directly the people who are already living here, but would be the means of bringing others who would help in our welfare and progress.

A Simple Trick.

It is an easy matter to keep your joints and muscles supple—no matter what your age may be or how you have suffered with rheumatism. Rub yourself night and morning with Ballard's Snow Liniment. Cures rheumatism, stiffness, cramps, crick in the back, side, neck or limbs, and relieves all aches and pains. Sold by Patterson & Son.

Sheepmen Take Notice.

All members who own shares in the Idaho Salt Association, wishing to have their salt shipped to Heppner by wool hauling time, should send in their orders to W. B. Barratt by the 1st day of April, 1909. The sum of $14 must accompany the order for each ton of salt required. W. B. BARRATT, Trustee for Morrow County.

C. R. Kluger, the jeweler, 1060 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my back-ache and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now attend to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed." Slocum Drug Co.

A Cure For Insomnia.

Next time your slumber fails to arrive on schedule time cast all thought of sleep from your mind and start in to name to yourself all the friends you have had or now possess. It's much more interesting than counting sheep. Perhaps you have only one friend, but one is enough—he may be the more appreciated. Just think of how you came to know each other, of how the friendship developed and of the happy incidents that have marked your acquaintance. Or, if you have no earthly friends whatever, let your thought dwell upon the great Friend of the friendless and how you came to know him. Somehow the most precious of our earthly friendships seem poor compared to this one that distance and time and even death itself cannot sever. And there is one advantage in this attempt to defeat insomnia—even your wakefulness will be enjoyable and restful.—Interl.

Repartee.

Him—And you won't go with me? Her—No; I don't like your style. Him—Pooh! You're as full of airs as a street piano. Her—Maybe, but I don't go with a crank.—Cleveland Leader.

More Effective.

Father (angrily)—If my son marries that adventuress I shall cut him off absolutely, and you can tell him so. Legal Adviser—I know a better plan than that—tell the girl.—Exchange.

A Cheerful Greeting.

Augustus—Hello, old man! How are you and how are your people and all that sort of silly rot?—London Globe.

A good conscience is to the mind what health is to the body.—Addison.

Strayed or Stolen.

One brown two-year-old horse branded T U B, connected UB on left thigh. He was last seen in the Wilson Prairie pasture in the southwestern part of Morrow county. Any one knowing of the whereabouts of this horse who will let me know will be rewarded for their trouble.

CUSTOMERS WHO HANG ON

A bank's customers who hangs with it year after year brand that bank as good. The fact is an indication that it will be a good bank for YOU.

Steadfast customers are satisfied customers, which means that the bank requires good service, not only good service now but it shows also that past service was good. Past and present good service are conclusive pointers to good, future service.

We point with pride to the names of a large number of our present customers whose names have been carried on our books since the bank was organized 21 years ago.

We are also pleased to note that the names of our present customers have remained on our books constantly since their first transactions with us.

And again, we congratulate ourselves that new customers are constantly being added to the number of the bank's patrons, and from the past records of our customers, we have every reason to believe that these new names will remain with us.

We shall render you this same satisfactory service for whatever business you may give us as long as you wish to receive the benefits.
