

A Happy New Year

We extend to our numerous customers our sincere thanks for the patronage you have kindly given us during the past year. Our business relations have no doubt been of mutual benefit to both of us; we having increased our sales and you having received the best merchandise at greatly reduced prices. We will continue in the future to merit your confidence by giving you the best values in our line at the lowest possible price. Wishing to all of you the success of the season, we are

Sincerely yours,

Turner-Cochran

Mr. Frank Turner and Miss Lillian Cochran, were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Turner, in this city, Saturday morning, Dec. 25, Rev. D. C. Keliems officiating.

While the wedding was a surprise and their were no invited guests, there were a number of young people at the train to extend congratulations and shower them with rice.

The groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Turner, pioneer residents of Morrow county. He received his education in the local schools and a business college in Portland, and is one of the promising young men of the community.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cochran, of Monument. For a number of years she has made her home in Heppner, attending High school, from which she graduated, and later holding the position of teacher of the Eighth grade, of which she is the present incumbent.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner returned from their honeymoon trip last night and are living at the J. V. Crawford residence in the western part of town.

Married.

Married at the South Methodist parsonage, last Thursday morning at 7 o'clock, Mr. Wilbur Nuckols and Miss Fucasia Dinwiddie, E. P. Warren officiating. They took the morning train to Portland, where where they will spend their honeymoon. They will make their future home in Heppner.

The Junior and Senior students of the High school gave Miss Helzer and Miss Boyd a very pleasant surprise party Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson. The evening hours were whild away with music and games, a spirit of jollity pervading the entire evening. The young folks had provided ice cream and cake and this was enjoyed by all despite the fact that the weather was cold. After an exchange of holiday greetings and many expressions of the pleasant evening they had spent, the young people departed for their homes.
