Point of Difference.

"Yes," said the bride of three short months, "I had made up my mind to remain in the spinster class, then John appeared upon the scene and I accepted him because he was so unlike other men."

"Oh, of course he's different," rejoined the envious lady friend. "He proposed."—Yonkers Statesman.

An Annual Luxury.

An English boy went to visit his two Scotch cousins during his summer vacation. His breakfast every morning consisted of plain oatmeal, and he got very tired of it. "Say, Jack," he said, "don't you ever have milk with your porridge?"

Jack turned to his brother. "Eh, Tom," he said, "the lad thinks it's Christmas."—Success Magazine.

LAZY LIVER

"I find Cascarets so good that I would not be without them. I was troubled a great deal with torpid liver and headache. Now since taking Cascarets Candy Cathartic I feel very much better. I shall certainly recommend them to my friends as the best medicine I have ever seen."
Anna Bazinet,
Osborn Mill No. 2, Fall River, Mass.

Needed Attention.

The Parent—Are you sure you give my boy as much attention in school as you do the other boys?

The Teacher—Attention? Why, say, I'm afraid to take my eyes off that boy of yours.—Yonkers Statesman.

Clip This Out.

At the first sign of rheumatic pains or backache, or a feeling of being generally run down and weakened, the following simple prescription should be used:

"One ounce compound syrup Sarsaparilla; one ounce Toris compound; half pint high grade whiskey. Mix them and take a tablespoonful before each meal and at bedtime. The bottle must be well shaken each time."

Any druggist has these ingredients or he will get them from his wholesale house.

One on Mamma.

"Gwendolen, I suppose some worthless young dude is going to take you to the theater this evening?"

"Yes, mamma, I'm going with brother George to-night."

The danger from slight cuts or wounds is always blood poisoning. The immediate application of Hamlin's Wizard oil makes blood poisoning impossible.

Obviously.

"Aunt Hepsy, what do they use 'invisible hairpins' for?"

"To fasten up invisible hair, o course, child."

Habitual Constipation

May be permanently overcome by proper personal efforts with the assistance of the one truly beneficial laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs & Elixir of Senna, which enables one to form regular habits daily so that assistance to nature may be gradually dispensed with when no longer needed, as the best of remedies when required are to assist nature, and not to supplant the natural functions, which must depend ultimately upon proper nourishment, proper efforts, and right living generally.

To get its beneficial effects, always buy the genuine,

The first pair of spectacles was made by an Italian in 1299.

Norway has a factory in which 24,000 pounds of haddock can be turned into fish balls in a day.

Though hydrophobia has been stamped out of Britain, it is still rampant in Germany, where every year over 2,500 dogs and cats afflicted with the disease are destroyed.

When the post office was first opened at Kai-Feng, China, the clerks had a fight with some of the men who bought stamps and refused to go away until the stamps were licked and stuck on their envelopes for them.

The present wave of agitation for the amendment of the British copyright law is gaining strength from the discovery that a great-grandson of Robert Burns is now making a precarious living as a mender of pots and pans.

Queensland and Victoria possess only small ostrich farms, which have not produced very encouraging results. In all there are now about two thousand ostriches in Australia. The inferior feathers are used at home and the more valuable ones are exported, chiefly in Germany.

The French government takes 15 per cent of all the money staked at the casinos of the seaside and other health resorts on the little horses and other gambling devices. For the season of 1908-09 this percentage amounted to $943,393, the summer season naturally contributing the greater part—over $600,000.

The duke of Atholl holds part of his lands conditionally on his presenting a white rose to his sovereign when honored with a visit. The late Queen Victoria and Prince Albert once were his guests at a time when these flowers were out of season and the duke had much difficulty in obtaining two roses for the occasion.

The court house at Washington, Mason County, Kentucky, in which Uncle Tom of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" fame was sold, was struck by lightning and destroyed on August 13. The building was erected in 1794. It was the sale of the aged negro at this place that gave Harriet Beecher Stowe the basis for her story.—Green Bag.

One of the main features of the agricultural exhibition at Allahabad, India, next month will be the tillage field, on which as large as possible a choice of plows and other implements of tillage will be regularly at work, so that visitors can see for themselves the depth and quality of the tilth, and the weight and draft of the various implements.

About one million persons in the working period of life in the United States are on the sick list each year. The cost of their illness is about $1,000,000,000 a year, of which at least one-half is preventable. Therefore, the estimate, considered low, of the preventable loss from disease and death in this country is $1,500,000,000.—Professor Irving Fisher.

Henrik Ibsen's posthumous works have just been published in Norway. They consist of a collection of verse, biographical material and sketches of the plots and morals of his plays, as well as the text of the plays as first completed, the last showing the great importance Ibsen attributed to careful planning of his plays in advance and to thorough revision.

Wilfred Stevens, of Shakopee, Minn., translator in the service of the United States government, has a working knowledge of twenty-odd languages and can converse is as many dialects of various other tongues as may be demanded of him. He knows more diplomatic secrets than any official of the government, with the possible exception of the President and the Secretary of State.

Hookworm can certainly be quickly conquered, malaria more slowly and consumption most slowly, but almost as completely. Consumption is virtually the same great, sweeping destroyer in modern cities of science that it was a century ago, say, in London. Indeed, since the great grip epidemic of 1831 consumption seems worse than it ever was before and the grip epidemic of twenty years ago did not make things any better.—New York Press.

In the British postoffice savings bank in 1907 there were 18,771,969 deposits, of the value of £44,217,288, and last year 18,379,991, representing £44,770,782. In 1907, 9,308,247 withdrawals were made, involving £46,463,632, and last year 9,922,169, representing £45,395,400. The interest credited to depositors in 1908 was £3,772,755, as compared with £3,719,975 in 1907, and the total standing to the credit of depositors on savings bank account on December 31, 1908, was £160,648,214, an increase of £3,148,137 in the year.

It was the custom one hundred years ago to purchase British army commissions for newly born babes, their rank progressing as opportunity occurred. One of these fortunate infants was the son of Sir William Honeyman. One day a caller heard Lady Honeyman shout from her bedroom door: "Jean, what's the matter? What's all that crying in the nursery?" And Jean answered: "Oh, my lady, there's naething the matter. It's only the major (still an infant) greeting (crying) for his parritch."

A Miracle of Science.

Aeroplaning is another miracle of practical science—another impossibility shown to be possible—another dream of centuries realized, but realized in a manner which none but this generation could have understood. Will the history of the steam locomotive repeat itself? The actual maximum speed on railways is no higher to-day than it was sixty years ago, though, of course, the train loads are very different. Will it be so with the aeroplane?

What's in a Name?

An amusing story has been told concerning Mr. Phillips' classic drama, "Ulysses." When it was being played in America, two young girls were sitting together in the stalls at a matinee performance, and before the curtain rose the following conversation was heard: "Say, Maude, I know this play is going to be funny." "What makes you think so?" asked Maude. "Why, anybody could tell that from the name!" was the reply.—M. A. P.

Small Humming Bird.

Cuba probably has the smallest humming bird in the world—Calypte Helenae (named after Princess Christian), but it may have a rival in timiness in a Peruvian species of Acestrura. The Calypte Helenae is an exquisite little creature not quite two inches long, with a forked crimson gorget.

En Famille.

Willie, a little country boy, 6 years of age, was taken one Sunday night to a large city church, where he saw for the first time a vested choir. To his mother's surprise and gratification, he not only kept wide awake, but seemed greatly interested in every part of the service. At its close he turned to her and said, "I like this church, it is so nice to watch the preacher when he comes out with all his wives in their nightgowns."—Harper's Magazine.

Died at Eighty-eight as Predicted.

Prophesying early in life that she would live to see her eighty-eighth birthday, Miss Julia H. Hancock, of Brockton, Mass., died a few days ago on the day she had previously set for her death. Infirmities of age are given as the cause. She gave no particular reason for her prediction, although she seemed imbued with the belief that her prophecy would come true.
