M. E. Church, South.

Sunday school at 10 a. m. At 11 a. m. services preparatory to the special revival which commences with this service, to which we invite every member of the church, and Christian who can be present. Don't fail us. The Epworth League will meet at 6 p. m. Every leaguer and friend to the move please be on hand. Preaching at 7 p. m. Subject: "The Unconscious Might of Character." This is an address especially suited to young men, and it will pay you to hear it. Won't you come?

As a pastor of the church, and as a citizen of your community I have been looking on with solicitude and studying the moral conditions and spiritual needs of the people. I have earnestly prayed that every church might succeed in doing the will of the master, and that every sinner might obtain a full and free salvation. I rejoice in the progress made, tending to that end. But I am sure we are far from a complete victory. Christian people of every name will you not come and join us in our prayers and efforts to save this people, and when they are saved let them join the church of their choice, and let us all work in harmony for the common good. Then I am sure the Lord will delight to bless us all. Let us cultivate the spirit of our Lord here, then we will love each other all the more up yonder.
