Bad Breath
For months I had great trouble with my stomach and used all kinds of medicines. My tongue has been actually as green as grass, my breath having a bad odor. Two weeks ago a friend recommended Cascarets and after using them I can willingly and cheerfully say that they have entirely cured me. I therefore let you know that I shall recommend them to any one suffering from such troubles.—Chas. H. Halpern, 114 E. 7th St., New York, N. Y.

A TEXAS PIANIST.

Houston Girl Scores a Great Success in Berlin.

Helena Lewyn, a Texas girl, is one of the latest of the American "invaders" to make an impress on music-loving Germany. After four years of study in Berlin, supplementing her work since childhood at her home, she made her professional debut and scored a distinct success, which she has accentuated since by her concert. So favorable were the criticisms that she has been offered a number of professional engagements in Europe, which would occupy three years, but she has declined them to accept an invitation from Prof. Damrosch to play in New York at his spring festival next April. She has been the pupil of Godowsky and has studied composition under Stillman Kelly, an American who has added to his reputation by his work in this country. After her first appearance on the public stage in Berlin she gave, by request, last fall concerts at Homburg, Baden-Baden and Bad-Naumburg, at each of which she was enthusiastically received. Her concert in Berlin at the end of last month attracted much attention from the masters, and they declared that the brilliant promise of her early years is being well fulfilled. She has a repertoire of extraordinary length and variety, considering her youth—she is in her twenties—and few women students have had the reputation that has been accorded her. Her technique has been pronounced almost flawless, her execution brilliant and sentimental. The young woman is from Houston, where her family lives. Her concerts have been attended by many of the American colonies here and elsewhere in Germany, and they felt a pride in the newest success of their compatriot. Miss Lewyn is a typical western girl in size and strength, which is of no small aid in the rendition of some of the heavy, more difficult movements of the old composers.

Legal Information

That a riparian owner conveys electric power generated by the fall of the stream, to non-riparian land, for use, is held, in Mentone Irrig. Co. vs. Redlands Electric Light & P. Co. (Cal.), 100 Pac. 1082, 22 L. R. A. (N. S.) 382, not to render his use of the water for generating it unlawful.

A riparian owner is held, in Miller vs. Madera Canal & Irrig. Co. (Cal.), 99 Pac. 502, 22 L. R. A. (N. S.) 391, to be entitled to enjoin the diversion of flood waters of a river, which annually flow over his land, bearing fertilizing material, and irrigating it sufficiently to make it productive, whereas, should the flow cease, the land would become arid and greatly depreciated in value.

An abutting owner is held, in Tomlin vs. Cedar Rapids & I. City R. & Light Co. (Iowa), 120 N. W. 93, 22 L. R. A. (N. S.) 530, to be entitled to no damages for the construction of an interurban electric railroad along a strip of land which was formerly a street, where the municipality had vacated the street, and granted the fee thereof to the state and a right of way along the strip to the railroad company.

The question of the negligence of a passenger on a sleeping car of a vestibule train, who, upon the train's approaching a stopping place in the night, goes upon the platform, and stumbles over a package placed by the porter near the top of the steps after opening the door and raising the trapdoor over the steps, so that he falls off the train and is injured, is held, in Johnson vs. Yazoo & M. Valley R. Co. (Miss.), 47 So. 785, 22 L. R. A. (N. S.) 312, to be for the jury.

A complaint which states, in substance, that the defendant, a banker and man of wealth and influence in a community, maliciously established a barber shop, employed a barber to carry on the business, and used his personal influence to attract customers from the plaintiff's barber shop, not for the purpose of serving any legitimate purpose of his own, but for the sole purpose of maliciously injuring the plaintiff, whereby the plaintiff's business was ruined, is held, in Tuttle vs. Buck, 17 Minn. 145, 119 N. W. 946, 22 L. R. A. (N. S.) 599, to state a cause of action.

A Garrick Incident.

The picture of Garrick in the witness box, tongue tied and smothered with confusion, is an amazing one, for Garrick where speaking was concerned was the pride of London. Members of parliament envied him his powers. Burke envied him. There is that instance in parliament when during a heated debate a member moved that the gallery be cleared. This was ordered to be done, and the strangers with drew, all save Garrick. Still the member objected. Then up spoke Burke. Would it be fair to exclude from their debate the master of eloquence, the genius who taught them the art of speaking? he demanded. For himself he was proud to acknowledge his indebtedness to Garrick. Fox followed in the same strain. Add Townsend. The house then voted that the "stranger should remain." And Garrick did not budge!—St. James' Gazette.

And It Did.

"Roll on, thou mighty ocean!"
The poet wrote his song.
Ah, well, the bard had had his way.
For ever since that fateful day
The ocean has, in ceaseless play,
Been rolling right along!

Squabbling About Nothing.

"To-day my wife and myself had the most foolish squabble of our married career."
"And what was the subject of your discussion?"
"How we would invest our money if we had any."—Kansas City Journal.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

As He Ground.

Tennyson had just begun to write the "Charge of the Light Brigade."
"Half a league, half a league,
Half a league onward—
Then he stopped.
"Sounds a good deal like 'Off agin, on agin, gone agin, Finnegan!' he said, knitting his brows.
But he went ahead with it, and the jingle made a decided hit.—Chicago Tribune.

Didn't Exactly Mean It.

The Girl—Isn't this play tiresome!
The Young Man—It's an awful bore. But there is no use, Miss Pinkie, of your trying to conceal a yawn with that fairy little hand of yours; it can't half cover—er—I mean—that is—

His Pursuit.

"What does Ardup follow for a living?"
"Just now he is following old Scadwell's daughter, in the hope that he will be living in the Scadwell family some day."

Our Lucky Age.

"Speaking of the Wright brothers, it's a good thing for people who like to travel by water that Fulton lived a good many years ago."
"Why that?"
"He would undoubtedly be trying to get an injunction on all the boats afloat."—Boston Herald.

Pleasant, Refreshing, Beneficial.

Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna appeals to the cultured and the well-informed and the healthy because its component parts are simple and wholesome and because it acts without disturbing the natural functions, as it is wholly free from every objectionable quality or substance. In its production a pleasant and refreshing syrup of the figs of California is united with the laxative and carminative properties of certain plants known to act most beneficially, on the human system, when its gentle cleansing is desired. To get its beneficial effects, always buy the genuine, for sale by all reputable druggists; one size only, price fifty cents a bottle. The name of the company—California Fig Syrup Co.—is always plainly printed upon the front of every package of the genuine.

The Wisdom of Silence.
The late Judge Elias Bryan, the father of William J. Bryan, once had several hams stolen from his smoke-house. He missed them at once, but said nothing about it to any one. A few days later a neighbor came to him. "Say, Judge," he said, "I heard yow had some hams stole 'tother night."
"Yes," replied the Judge, very confidentially, "but don't tell any one. You and I are the only ones who know it."
