Evangelist Ledford

At the Baptist church every night, preaching and singing Gospel truths which have revolutionized the human heart and ennobled human lives.

The evangelist gives out no uncertain sound but rings out the old gospel in song and sermon.

The attendance is good but we want you to share in these rare advantages, and if you are willing you can make the instruction of lasting benefit in your battles of life.

The evangelist and all practical believers in God are the best friends of humanity including the entire Heppner community.

Why not give time and thought in the interest of the best things and choose the grandest life? It is not manly to do manly things. Come and see and hear a man who fears God and speaks the truth.

Special services next Lord's day for all and for believers in particular. We want you to help swell the number.

M. E. Church, South.

Sunday, March 25. Sunday school at 10 a. m., followed by Easter exercises. Epworth league at 6 p. m. Easter sermon on the resurrection at 7 p. m. E. P. Warren pastor.

J. S. Buesick came over from Hamilton, Tuesday.

Dan Rice came down from Hardman, Monday.

Dr M B Metzler returned Monday evening from the East.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Herren came down from the mill, Tuesday.

Mr and Mrs T J Mahoney returned from Portland, Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Beymer were incoming passengers from Monument, Tuesday.

Mat Halvoraen, W R Cochran and Joe Waters came up from Ione, Tuesday evening.

Attorney Chas. H. Carter of Pendleton, was in the city this week attending to legal business.

D. Bushee, of Yamhill, 86 years old, will retire from business next month, and will build a new house.

A real soaker of a rain fell Tuesday. The ground is now thoroughly saturated for a good depth and with the warm weather vegetation is making a very rapid growth.

Joek Scored.

"Well, Joek," said a laird to one of his tenants, "you are getting very bent. Why don't you stand up straight like me, man?"

"Eh, mon," replied Joek, "ye see that field of corn o'er there? Weel, ye'll notice that the full heids hang down an' the empty eens stan' strachit up."

—London Telegraph.

She Got It All.

"Do you give your wife an allowance?"

"Yes."

"How much do you allow her?"

"Don't you think it is rather impertinent for you to ask what my salary is?"—Houston Post.

Friendly Advice.

Mrs. Jawback—The doctor says I must sleep with my mouth shut. How can I get into the habit? Mr. Jawback—Try practicing it when you are awake.—Cleveland Leader.

The Difference.

She—When a man starts to talk he never stops to think. He—And when a woman starts she never thinks to stop.

Hope for the best, but work hard for the result.

The New Spring in the Women's Store

And the new merchandise is growing, growing, growing---Here a tender shoot, yonder a full bloom flower. A glimpse of all the charming things that are appearing after a winter of quiet but busy preparation, is quite enough to set the weather freaks to naught. Here is spring, no matter what March may be outside, and its high time to be about and stirring if you want to be ready. Our new merchandise is arriving fast, but a little later this year, due to the recent snows and floods and the difficulty of passing freight over the lines.
