

Annual Spring Sale

A Famous Event--Immense in Magnitude--This Year the Greatest we Have Ever Announced
REDUCTIONS IN ALL DEPARTMENTS OF
Marquardsen's Department Store

Buy poison to kill that deceitful bug-humbug. Take equal parts of Truth and Honesty and apply as often as necessary. This is our Remedy; its alon tap in our Store, and there's two ways to be economical. One is by spending little money, another is by getting the best goods for your money. When you buy here you practice both economies.

A safe store to pin faith to—not the only safe store, but the best; because it is most liberal of any store in the country; because it is pleasant and most convenient in arrangement; because its goods are invariably of high grade and dependable, and because its prices are invariably low and generally lowest. Catchy advertising often brings temporary results, but permanent success is achieved only in the pursuance of honest business methods; by living up to the words and letters of our advertisements, giving honest values and the best service to our clientele. Every article mentioned below exactly as represented—every price a money saver.

It does not pay to be wedded to any one. There is too much progressiveness in these days of happenings. The business infant of today is the business giant tomorrow. Adaptability, brain, foresight, and lowest prices quickly make business mountains out of molehills. OUR CHANGE OF SEASON SALES always save you money. That is to say, our prices for the very best, the goods that are not only good to the eyes, but that will give the services; are no higher than those asked for inferior goods elsewhere. Prices have had their final reduction; don't wait thinking you are going to get something for less money than present rock-bottom prices. You will be disappointed if you do, and besides where the prices are at present you cannot afford to wait, for the lines will not hold longer than 7 days at these prices.

Our entire stock of Men's, Boys' and Ladies' Suits, Shoes, Furnishings, Dry Goods and Groceries to be sold at prices that are squeezed out of Shape for SEVEN DAYS ONLY.

On Memorial day we will close the entire store during services. Watch local items for the hour.

Memorial Services.

The union annual memorial gathering was in the Baptist church with discourse by its pastor. The local churches had a goodly representation present, although there could have been seated comfortably 40 or 50 persons more who had a desire to thus associate on such occasion.
Monday morning quite a gathering assembled in the cemetery to participate in the further duties and privileges of these annual occurrences.

A number of our worthy school girls sang several national pieces under the direction of Mrs. Phelps. Lincoln's Gettysburg address was well recited by Mrs. Binns, which was followed by a thoughtful, brief and patriotic address by Mr. [Notson].

These exercises were interspersed with appropriate short prayers by local pastors.

The general consensus of opinion is that these annual gatherings and observances have been profitable and calculated to inspire intelligence, sense of responsibility and true American spirit.

How to have a sane and safe Fourth of July celebration is bothering many Oregon towns.

In Perfect Accord.

Some years ago there came to an American city a delightful German, Herr von Blitz, who intended to support himself by giving lessons in his native tongue. When he had been here several months and had secured a moderate number of pupils he went one day to the mother of one of them and to her great surprise asked for her daughter's hand in marriage.
"But, my dear sir," said she, "my daughter has no fortune."
The suitor smiled upon her in an expansive generosity.
"Me, too," said he reassuringly.
"And, although we are not rich, we have thus far been able to give her every comfort. She is indeed used to luxury."
"Me, too," was the smiling rejoinder.
"But, Herr von Blitz, she will never be able to manage affairs."
"Me, too," rejoiced the lover.
"And I feel obliged to tell you that my daughter has a very high temper."
"Me too—me too."
That was enough. The mother retired from the contest, and the professor won his suit.

Our Safety Valves.

The invention of the safety valve for steam engines has saved thousands of lives and millions of dollars in property. It is an invention that stands prominently to the front in this age of mechanical progress. But nature supplied us each with a safety valve which for effectiveness works better than any made by man. If we did not have this safety valve we could not live twenty-four hours. This safety valve is the perspiration, or sweat, gland, and to make sure that we should not run short of the supply she has furnished the body with some two and a half millions of them. If our temperature rose 7 or 8 degrees we should die within a few hours, and yet we could not run, row, indulge in any athletic exercises or even walk safely any distance without increasing our temperature to the danger point if we had no safety valve provided so ingeniously by nature.

Paddy's Cat.

An Irishman fresh from the "old sod" secured a job with a lumbering crew in the Minnesota woods. While sound asleep in his bunk one night a lynx slipped in at the open window, espied Paddy's brindle whiskers and promptly pounced on its supposed enemy. A terrific contest ensued, during which Paddy's clothing was reduced to ribbons, but ending happily when the brawny son of Erin secured a half nelson on the beast and heaved it bodily through the window.

He was instantly surrounded by a score of excited and admiring woodsmen. After examining himself critically Paddy straightened up slowly and remarked with distinct emphasis: "Bedad, if I knew th' dom mon that owned that cat I'd be after rammin' me fist down th' throat av 'im—I wud that!"—Judge's Library.

The "Arabian Nights."

The collection of tales called the "Thousand and One Nights" or the "Arabian Nights," is of unknown date and authorship. It was first made known in Europe about the end of the seventeenth century by Antoine Galland, who was employed by Colbert to collect manuscripts in the east. The copy of the Arabic manuscript brought by Galland from Syria contained a marginal note dated 1584, and from internal evidence the middle of the fifteenth century has been fixed upon as the probable period of the composition of the work. Some of the tales were evidently borrowed by the writer from other authors, and Von Hammer identifies at least the plot and some of the stories of the "Arabian Nights" with an earlier collection in Persian called the "Thousand Fanciful Stories."

The Morrow County Woolgrowers Association held a meeting Monday evening in the council chamber. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year. Executive Committee—Geo. Currin, W. G.
