"Well, mum," answered the sailor man, "I s'pose it's my fault. Every time I hear him speak a bad word it makes me so wild that he gets a chance to learn a lot of new ones."—Exchange.

Macduff was laying on lustily. "I don't allow any man to swear at me!" he exclaimed.
For at that time there had been no court decision to the effect that the word used by Macbeth was not profane.

Its Painful End.
The last of the Labrador ducks was about to die.
"It isn't the thing of dying, in itself," gasped the duck, "that grinds me! It's the fact that while my race hereby becomes extinct, the gaunt, ungainly, worthless whitepope will live on!"
Uncheered even by the reflection that the carrion crow survived the dodo, the hapless bird breathed its last.

GERMANY'S JEAN VALJEAN.
Millionaire Philanthropist Who 49 Years Ago Was a Bandit.
Herr Charles May, of Berlin, may be termed the Jean Valjean of Germany. Millionaire whose time and money were spent in doing good, author of religious books and altogether a splendid figure of Christian manhood. May was just a few days ago branded by a jury as the perpetrator of many violent crimes in southern Saxon mountains forty long years ago, where he led a band of desperate brigands. May, who is 70 years old, collapsed and was put under guard to prevent his committing suicide. The charges were made by Wilhelm Leblus, a trade union leader. May sued for libel. The jury decided that Leblus had proven the allegations in a court at Charlottenburg, a suburb of Berlin. Not only was it proven that Herr May had been a notorious bandit, but there is no doubt but what he is the author of a long series of cheap novels written many years ago in which he describes the deeds he had committed. Herr May is a splendid linguist, speaking even Chinese and Choctaw.

Slim Chance for Her.
A missionary who was making his way through a backwoods region came upon an old woman sitting outside a cabin. He entered upon a religious talk and finally asked her if she didn't know there was a day of judgment coming.
"Why, no," said the old lady; "I hadn't heard of that. Won't there be more than one day?"
"No, my friend; only one day," was replied.
"Well, then," she mused, "I don't reckon I can get to go for we've only got one mule, and John always has to go everywhere first."—New York Sun.

Not in His Judgment.
"The next thing in order," said the master of ceremonies, referring to the slip of paper in his hand, "is music."
"No, sir!" savagely whispered the leader of the band. "Not music! The next thing is 'Hail Columbia!'"
Talking his station, he scowled, waved his baton, and the noise of the brasses burst forth.—Chicago Tribune.

LEGAL INFORMATION

For violating the statute providing that barbers shall be licensed and registered before being allowed to engage in tonsorial toil, appellant in Jackson vs. State, 117 Southwestern Reporter, 318, was convicted. The law exempts students in the university and barbers in small towns. Its purpose is to insure efficiency in the barbers and hygienic conditions in their establishments. The statute was declared unconstitutional by the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals on the ground that it was contrary to the provision prohibiting taxation of mechanical employments, and that by its exceptions it became discriminatory because the evils intended to be prevented could as easily arise in an institution of learning or a hamlet as in the freed school parlors of a metropolis.

A Missouri statute prohibits courts from punishing contempt by fine exceeding $50 or imprisonment for more than ten days. In Chicago, B. & Q. Ry. Co. vs. Gildersleeve, 118 Southwestern Reporter, 86, it appeared that appellant had disregarded an injunction forbidding his traffic in partly used railroad tickets, and had been sentenced to fifteen days' imprisonment for contempt. Appellant relied on the statute, and expressed the fear that unless the statute were recognized as constitutional the courts could exercise their power to punish for contempt in an arbitrary and oppressive manner. The Missouri Supreme Court held that as the court was created by the constitution, and had inherent power to punish for contempt, allowing the Legislature to regulate this power would be permitting the legislative body to exercise functions properly belonging to the judicial. Three judges dissented.

In United States ex rel. Atty. Gen. vs. Delaware & H. Co. 29 Supreme Court Reporter, 527, the statute prohibiting railroads from transporting in interstate commerce commodities manufactured, mined or produced by them, or in which they were directly or indirectly interested, was construed, three justices dissenting from the court's opinion. The Federal Supreme Court held, in substance, that although a railroad corporation could not transport the product of its own mines, yet it could control a corporation engaged exclusively in mining, and transport the mineral for the corporation which it owned or controlled; that the ownership of a railway carrier of stock in a bona fide corporation producing coal was not the interest in the commodity forbidden the carrier. The court illustrates its deduction thus: A carrier mines and produces and owns coal as a result thereof. It sells the coal to A. It is impotent to move it for account of A. in interstate commerce because of the prohibition of the statute. The same carrier becomes a dealer in coal, buys and sells coal to A. This coal it may transport in interstate commerce. Thus if the rule of literal interpretation were applied this incongruity would result, and the intention could hardly have been to offer an incentive to a carrier to become a buyer and seller of commodities which it transported.

SWIMMING STROKE FOR WOMEN.
"Australian Crawl" Now Is Popular with Modern Water Nymphs.
"Leander wasn't much of a swimmer if it bothered him any to swim the Hellespont," said Swimming Instructor G. H. Corsan of the Brookline municipal baths.
"Now, if Leander had used the 'Australian crawl,'" Mr. Corsan continued, "instead of the old-fashioned 'breast stroke,' he'd have been across the Hellespont before he knew he was started."

Instructor Corsan has been telling Brookline swimmers that they don't know what swimming is if they don't know the "Australian crawl," the Boston Herald says. "The Australians didn't invent this stroke. In the British museum there is a bas-relief of some Assyrians crossing a river—men, women and children—with their enemies shooting arrows at them from the bank. Those Assyrians—and heaven knows how old the bas-relief is—are employing this 'Australian crawl' as plain as day. They'd laugh to see us floundering along with our clumsy breast stroke. The 'Australian crawl' is the only thing for ease, grace, speed and hygiene. It's great exercise for the shoulder and arm muscles, yet there is no effort to it."
"On that account it's a fine thing for girls and women. Up in Toronto, which is my native city, I have been teaching the girls this 'crawl.' They got tired of being taken out canoeing in Toronto bay, having the canoe upset and being left by the fellows to drown or get ashore as best they might. No, Toronto boys aren't more unallant than any others. They're about alike anywhere. But Toronto girls decided they'd learn to swim for themselves. They are experts, too."

The First Thousand.
"It's the first thousand dollars that's hard to get."
"That's right," assented the owner of the garage. "After you separate 'em from that, they'll loosen to any extent."—Louisville Courier Journal.

No girl is entirely happy and satisfied with her lover if she continues to say her prayers during her engagement.
Speaking for himself, a man rarely says that competition is the life of trade, as if he really meant it.

Curious Remedies.
In some parts of England one of the best cures for a swollen neck is to draw a snake nine times across the throat of the suffering one, after which the snake is killed and its skin sewed in a silken bag and tightly sewed around the neck. Another way, almost as good, is to put the live snake in a bottle, which is tightly corked and buried near the roots of a rosebush, and as the helpless snake decays the swelling in the neck of the patient will disappear.

Jimmy Dolan's Sister.
A Buffalo youngster told the teacher that his sister had the measles. The teacher sent him home and told him to stay there until his sister got well. After he had skipped joyfully away another boy held up his hand and said: "Teacher, Jimmy Dolan's sister what's got the measles lives in Omaha."
The chances of sudden death are greater among men than women in the ratio of one to eight.

Constipation

"For over nine years I suffered with chronic constipation and during this time I had to take an injection of warm water once every 24 hours before I could have an action on my bowels. Happily I tried Cascarets, and today I am a well man. During the nine years before I used Cascarets I suffered untold misery with internal piles. Thanks to you, I am free from all that this morning. You can use this in behalf of suffering humanity." B. F. Fisher, Roanoke, Ill.

A Fire Drill.
"What kept you so late at the factory?"
"We were having a fire drill."
"Isn't that something new?"
"None; the boss was trying to drill it into the heads of the men that if they didn't improve the class of work they were turning out they would be fired."—Houston Post.

A Storekeeper Says:

"A lady came into my store lately and said:
"I have been using a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove all winter in my apartment. I want one now for my summer home. I think these oil stoves are wonderful, comfort they are, they would all have. I spoke about my stove to a lot of my friends, and they were astonished. They thought that there was smell and smoke from an oil stove, and that it heated a room just like any other stove. I told them of my experience, and one after another they got one, and now, not one of them would give hers up for five times its cost."
The lady who said this had thought an oil stove was all right for quickly heating milk for a baby, or boiling a kettle of water, or to make coffee quickly in the morning, but she never dreamed of using it for difficult or heavy cooking. Now—she knows.
Do you really appreciate what a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove means to you? No more coal to carry, no more coming to the dinner table so tired out that you can't eat. Just light a Perfection Stove and immediately the heat from an intense blue flame shoots up to the bottom of pot, kettle or oven. But the room isn't heated. There is no smoke, no smell, no outside heat, no drudgery in the kitchen where one of these stoves is used.
