Checks for the Communion Table.
The author of "The Sabbath in Puritan New England" mentions a custom which prevailed in several New England churches that made it the duty of the deacons to walk up and down the aisles of the church at the close of each service and deliver to every person who in their judgment was fitted to commune a metal check, which entitled him at the next celebration of the Lord's supper to join in the sacred ordinance. On the communion Sabbath it was the deacons' duty to see that every one who presented himself at the Lord's table had this check and to collect it from the communicant before passing to him the bread and wine.

All to Do Over Again.
It is an open question if the old fisherman in the following story ever got the right answer to the problem that was puzzling his head. A writer in Everybody's Magazine, at least, leaves one in doubt on that score. The riddle was this: "If a herring and a half costs a penny and a half, how many herrings can you buy for a shilling?" The old fisherman had worked on it for some time.

"What did you say the mackerel and a half cost?" he asked at last.
"I didn't say mackerel; I said herring," explained the skipper.
"Oh, that's different," said the other. "I've been figuring on mackerel."

Rob Dentists of Gold Leaf.

His Denial.
At a London board school the teacher had explained to the children the meaning of the word "ability." "Now, children," she went on, "what word would express the opposite to ability?"
A sharp faced little boy at the end of the end form bobbed up his head and exclaimed, "Please, teacher, nobility!"—Work and Play.

Near Its Final Stage.
Mr. Dorkins—Maria, I think I can make this dining table last a while longer by replacing a few of the top boards with new ones.
Mrs. Dorkins—Well, go ahead and patch the top of the old thing up if you think you can, but I want you to understand that it's on its last legs.

PILES
"I have suffered with piles for thirty-six years. One year ago last April I began taking Cascarets for constipation. In the course of a week I noticed the piles began to disappear and at the end of six weeks they did not trouble me at all. Cascarets have done wonders for me. I am entirely cured and feel like a new man." George Kryder, Napoleon, O.

The Ambiguous Cook.
Mrs. DeAysker—Did your cook leave on account of the extra 15 cents a week that the Razer woman offered her?
Mrs. Von Holmer—I can't tell; she said she was going to leave because she wanted the change, and I don't know whether she meant the money or the new place.

Back to Nature.
"Yes, I am a milliner."
"Trim hats, eh? Maybe you can pick up some ideas out here in the country."
"I have already learned much. I had always supposed that the blossoms were wired to the bushes."—Kansas City Journal.

An Amendment.
"Are you ready to live on my income?" he asked softly.
She looked up into his face trustfully.
"Certainly, dearest," she answered, "if—if—"
"If what?"
"If you get another one for yourself."—New York Journal.

Not Appalled by Figures.
Stage Manager—Do you know, my dear sir, that not more than one play in fifty is a success?
Ambitious Author—Yes, sir, but that doesn't scare me. This play is one of a thousand.

cleaning the Henhouse.
If you wish to rid your henhouses of lice and mites now is the time to do it.
Clean them perfectly, whitewash the sides and roosts, remove all litter from the nests and whitewash them outside and in. Take out all droppings and litter on the floor and sprinkle ashes over the floor every few days.
Fumigate the house once or twice a week with sulphur or tobacco smoke. Make a war on the insects for the next two months, and you will not be troubled much with them during summer.

Aeroplane Made Comfortable.
Aeroplaneing is to be made comfortable. Henri Deutsch of Paris, whose prizes did so much for the advancement of aviation in its early days, is having an aeroplane built for his own use. The aeroplane is of the Wright type, but a little cab of basketwork is being made to shelter the driver and his passenger from rain and cold.

Suggesting a Reason.
Corkins—I don't know how I do it, but I can always tell what time of day it is without looking at a watch or clock.
MacStab—To be sure. Nature always confers instinct upon creatures that lack the higher faculties.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Getting Honest.
"This is your birthday, isn't it, Beas?"
"Yes, Dick."
"How old are you?"
"Twenty-two."
"Well, I'm going to give you a kiss for every year of your life."
"Why, Dick! Dick—I may as well confess to you that I am really twenty-six."

Domestic Fiction.
Mrs. Brown—I used to be so fond of fiction before I was married. Mrs. Smith—And don't you read much now?
Mrs. Brown—No; after the tales my husband tells me about why he is late getting home merely printed fiction seems so tame and unimaginative.

Protecting Seed Corn.
A method of protecting seed corn against the crows is to add a tablespoonful of chloride of lime to a peck of shelled corn mixing it well. It is a very cheap and easy way and the seed is more agreeable to handle than when coated with tar after the more common method.

What the Wild Waves Heard.
"You're looking blue," remarked the lobster. "What's the matter?"
"I have just heard," the oyster answered, "that there are such things as vegetable oysters."

Economical.
Whyte—Browne is very economical, isn't he? Black—Browne? Well, I'll tell you. Browne is the sort of man who, when he wants an awl and hasn't any, instead of buying one will go to work to make one by straightening out a corkscrew.

Kindred Spirits.
"John, what kept you out so late?"
"Didn't I tell you, Maria, that I had to go to a meeting of the True Knights of the Mystic Brotherhood?"
"Now that you mention it, I believe you did."
"Well, we had a long wrangle, as usual."

Vocal.
"Ruggles, you are spending a great deal of money on your daughter's voice, aren't you?"
"Not exclusively. I'm spending some of it on her accent. She's learning French."

BURMA A WOMAN'S LAND.

Country Affords the Sex Much Freedom and Many Opportunities.
For the woman Burma is a veritable heaven on earth. No country elsewhere furnishes her more freedom, more opportunity. Even occidental countries cannot vie with Burma in this respect. Mrs. Burma outshines everybody and everything. Moreover, she is ubiquitous, the Southern Workman says.

You find her here, there and everywhere. You stop at the jewelry stores containing millions of dollars' worth of pearls and rubies and precious stones, and the person in charge of the establishment is a woman. The salespeople are also women. You go to a fruitstand and it is a woman who owns and conducts it and sells you a banana or a mango.

At railroad stations a Burmese woman sells you the tickets and a fair daughter of the land is ready to take your dictation and do your typewriting if you are looking for an amanuensis. The Burmese woman is not only an efficient business woman but a good mother. Her duties as mother and merchant do not interfere with each other in the slightest degree.

Added to her superior intelligence the Burmese woman has good looks. She has eyes of a deep liquid black or brown bordering on black. The forehead is usually high and well filled out and there is a purity of expression about the face. Her head is oval and shapely, this effect being heightened by the manner in which she dresses her hair in a big knot on top of her head. Her dress is white, with a tight-fitting jacket with large sleeves; the lower part of the body is covered by a bright silk petticoat, which also is tight fitting and displays the figure like a modern sheath skirt.

POEMS WE ALL REMEMBER

"Maud Muller."
Maud Muller, on a summers day,
Hid her jug in a pile of hay.

The Judge came by on his Arab steed,
And he was a very dry man, indeed.

"Aha," said he, with a winsome wink,
"Now where can a dry man find a drink?"

She put her finger in her mouth,
And slyly said, "A half mile south."

So the Judge he galloped, lickety-split,
Which showed that Maud had a pretty wit.

"Hiawatha."
Hiawatha, in his plug hat,
Whispered low to Minnehaha;
Put his graceful arm around her,
Held her fingers tight in his;
Just about to woo her wildly
With the chorus from a coon-song,
When there came the U. S. agent;
Made a gesture at his wrist-band,
Said, "You'll kindly please to move on
People who have fallen at farming
Now would like to try it over.
You are sitting on the town-site;
Skiddoo, please, and three and twenty."

"The Girl I Left Behind Me."
Oh, the day was dark and the hour was sad
When Mary Jane declined me,
But oh, just think of the luck I had
With the girl I left behind me!

She's fair and fat and forty, too,
I wonder what inclined me
To ever want to wed and woo
The girl I left behind me!

"The Old Swimmer's Hole."
Oh, the old swimmer's hole, in the creek so cold and still,
There are moments that I can't forget,
And likely never will;
Even now I'm still in wonder, and can't think to save my soul
'Tow we had the heart to climb out of the old swimmer's hole.

"Twenty Years Ago."
I wandered to the village, Tom,
I sat beneath the tree;
But things were sadly different from
The way they used to be;
The advertisement signs were out
To such a great degree,
It took me nearly half the day
To find the dog-gone tree!

A Wild Ride for Life.
Con Etrohm, of Panoche, Cal., raced against death when he was bitten in the heel by a rattlesnake. Mounted, he covered a score of miles, and reached the Hazel Hawkins Hospital, in Hollister, before the venom had completed its deadly work. Etrohm was walking through a patch of sage brush when the snake struck. He killed the reptile. A handkerchief was bound tightly around the wound before the dash to the hospital started.

An Oversight.
An old German maker of violoncellos has just finished one which he considered to be a particularly fine piece of work, and he proudly lifted it up for a friendly musician who was standing near him to admire. He had just called attention to its beautiful lines when all of a sudden something rattled.
"Ach," he exclaimed, "I have left der glue pot inside!"

Her Self Possession.
"Miss Oldcastle is always self possessed no matter what happens."
"Well, she ought to be seeing that she has had practice in the self possession line for at least thirty-five years."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Strawberries Grown in City.
To show that strawberries can be grown in the heart of the city, Willis A. Hendricks of East Twenty-first and Albert streets brought to the office of the Oregonian a number of boxes of Magoon and Oregon improved berries containing an average of twenty berries to the box. The berries were grown on an ordinary city lot without irrigation. Mr. Hendricks had 1,000 plants on his lot and at the first picking he picked a total of 55 boxes of the monster berries. A number of the berries were over five inches in circumference and one measured 7 1/2 inches in circumference.—Portland Oregonian.

The Burning Question.
Venus was rising from the sea.
"Great Jupiter!" cried the men, as they crowded the beach. "How did you lose your arms?"
But the women never noticed the arms.
"In the name of all that is wonderful," they chimed, "how do you keep your hair in curl in salt water?"—Judge.

His Question-Answer.
"Are marriages made in heaven?"
The lecturer paused, as if for an answer to his interrogation; whereupon a man with a hunted look glanced furtively over his shoulder, swallowed hard, moistened his lips and said, huskily:
"Do strawberries grow at the north pole?"

Mixed Feed for Horses.
In large city stables feeding the horses the hay and grain as mixed feed is the general practice and gives the best results. Keepers find that horses can be worked hard and kept in good condition on cut hay and cornmeal. The amount of hay fed varies from 8 to 14 pounds a day in different stables, and of grain from 7 to 20 pounds a day.

How a Boomerang Acts.
Rich Father—When I was a young man of your age I was compelled to keep an accurate expense account and wasn't allowed to be out at night later than 11 o'clock.
Son and Heir—Sorry to hear it, governor; your father couldn't trust you as safely as you can trust me.

Stops Hair Falling
Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, will certainly stop falling of the hair. Indeed, we believe it will always do this unless there is some disturbance of the general health. Then, a constitutional medicine may be necessary. Consult your physician about this.
Does not change the color of the hair.
Formulas with each bottle show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says.

The reason why Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair is because it first destroys the germs which cause this trouble. After this is done, nature soon brings about a full recovery, restoring the hair and scalp to a perfectly healthy condition.

Attractive Letters.
Rodrick—Yes, he came over here to learn our language and started on the alphabet. Began picking up letters, you know.

Rodrick—Oh, he soon found that the only letters he had time to pick up were the X's and V's.

Mike and Pat were hired to clean a cistern. Mike took a firm hold of the rope and started to let Pat down. When about half way down Pat yelled up:

"For why?" said Mike.

EMERALD PACIFIC INSECT REPELLENT
Drives away Flies, Mosquitoes and Gnats. It protects horses and cattle from attacks of insects, enabling them to feed and sleep in peace. It prevents loss of weight and strength from worry caused by attacks of insects, and from the irritation of their bites and stings. There is a satisfaction in the relief it affords domestic animals from the scourge of maddening parasites and flies, besides the profit in returns. Horses do more work on less feed and cows yield more and better milk when relieved from the frenzy incited by constantly fighting a swarm of voracious, insatiable insects.
