DEATH OF TWO HERDERS

One Killed by a Tree Another Dies Suddenly of Dropsy.

Two herders in the employ of M. S. Corrigall looking after sheep in the Blue mountains in the vicinity of Sumpter, died during the past 10 days, one being killed by a falling tree while the other died very suddenly of dropsy.

A man by the name of Richardson was killed a week ago Saturday by a tree falling across the tent in which the unfortunate man was sleeping. The faithful sheep dog met the same fate as his master. Richardson's remains were buried near the scene of his death.

Pat Connelly, the other herder in the employ of Mr. Corrigall went to Sumpter last Wednesday and while in town took suddenly ill with dropsy and died within a few hours. His remains were taken to Baker City for burial.

Young Connelly was quite well known in Heppner.

High Priced Wheat.

Dollar wheat and $6 flour are again in sight—likewise smaller loaves of bread for consumers.

With wheat prices advancing daily both in Portland and in Chicago; with Liverpool, Berlin, Paris, Antwerp and Budapest each giving out an advanced price for the cereal almost every day, the outlook for dollar wheat is very bright.

Millers are today freely offering 93 cents a bushel for bluestem wheat, based on track delivery at Portland, and it is stated that a cent or two more than this could be readily obtained for quality above the average.

The Pacific northwest is yielding its best quality wheat the present year and therefore it would take something exceedingly good to range above the average.

In company with the advance of three cents a bushel in the price of wheat today millers announce an advance of 20 cents a barrel in the price of patent hard wheat flour for tomorrow morning. An advance of 25 cents a barrel will be made at the same time in straight grade and 10c in Willamette valley soft wheat brands. The latter are still quoted at a price higher than the best flour.

Platform Adopted by Republican Assembly.

The Republicans of Oregon, in assembly convened, reaffirm their faith in the principles of the Republican party, and with pardonable pride point to the record of its achievements.

We reaffirm our faith in the principles of representative government and in the maintenance of political parties, believing that no party can maintain its identity or exert its proper influence for good government without organization.

As the representatives of the Republican voters of Oregon we find our warrant for this assembly in the express provisions of the preamble of the direct primary law, which reads as follows:

Political parties are useful and necessary. The method of naming candidates for elective public offices by political parties and voluntary political organizations is the best plan yet found for placing before the people the names of qualified and worthy citizens from whom the electors may choose the officers of our Government.

Every political party and every voluntary political organization has the same right to be protected from the interference of persons who are not identified with it as its known and publicly avowed members, that the government of the state has to protect itself from the interference of persons who are not known and registered as electors.

We commend as the sentiment of this assembly the words of Governor Charles E. Hughes:

I believe in party organization and I desire to see it strong, efficient and representative.

And the expression of Theodore Roosevelt that: Voters should be guaranteed the right to determine within the ranks of their respective organizations who the candidates of the parties shall be.

We reaffirm our faith in the principles of representative government and the maintenance of political parties, believing that no party or association of men can maintain its identity or exert its influence for the principles it expresses without organization; we believe in the wisdom of counsel, and as free citizens of a free government we enjoy the constitutional right as members of the Republican party to assemble for the purpose of adopting a platform, considering the fitness of candidates, making recommendations to the people and performing such other duties as may be deemed wise and expedient; and that any infringement upon such right is a denial of the wisdom of the founders of our Government, both state and National, and against the rights guaranteed by our constitution and a violation of the real spirit of the direct primary law, with the fundamental principles of which we are in hearty accord, and believe it should be supported and obeyed.

We favor the creation of the office of Lieutenant-Governor of the state, who shall perform the duties of the Governor in case of his inability to act.

We favor the abolishment of all useless and unnecessary offices, boards, commissions and clerkships and for a just and economical expenditure of public moneys.

We are opposed to the pending bill providing for the election of delegates to National conventions of the Republican and Democratic parties at the expense of the taxpayers. These delegates are not public officials, but are representatives of their respective parties and the taxpayers of the state should not be called upon to pay their railroad fare, hotel bills and other expenses on these trips.

We favor an appropriation by Congress placing the Indian war veterans of the Pacific Northwest on an equality with the veterans of the Civil War in the matter of pensions.

We favor only such conservation of the public resources as will best develop and settle the country.

We unqualifiedly indorse the Administration of President Taft and point with pride to the fulfillment by the National Republican party of the pledges contained in its last platform. We point with pride to the history of the Republican party and to the capacity of the party, so often demonstrated, to solve public questions and to legislate and administer the Government in the interest of the whole people. We affirm our continued loyalty to the principles and policies of the party, and we mutually pledge ourselves to the effort necessary to strengthen the party organization and to put into office men who are loyal to its principles.

CANAL WORK MOVES RAPIDLY

It is Estimated That the Great Task Will be Finished in 1915.

William H. Macfarlane left Panama on 84 days' leave of absence, and when his time is up he will send his resignation to the Government and will remain in Portland to engage in business.

In Panama Mr. Macfarlane held the responsible position of inspector of construction for the Government works on the Isthmus.

With J. W. Travis and Colonel L. O. Garrigus Mr. Macfarlane has formed the Suburban Home Construction Company, which was incorporated in the office of the Secretary of State yesterday.

Mr. Macfarlane says he is glad to get away from Panama, although the country now, he declares, is good to live in. All the rough features of the pioneering have been overcome, all the sanitary work has been done, the place is as civilized as the States. The first month he was there 240 cases of yellow fever appeared among the workers on the Canal, with 80 deaths. There has not been a single case since then, he says.

"All the building incidental to the work of digging the canal has been finished," said Mr. Macfarlane. "The Government has built a new country there. Every trade under the sun is represented and the Government runs a bakery, turning out pies and cakes; has a coffee plant, roasting and sacking the berries which are bought from the planters; owns a machine shop, with which is connected a foundry; has built houses, hotels, sheds and all the structures that go to make up a city. In short, you have there an example of a paternal government."

"You don't need any money to live there, either—that is, if you have a Government job. When you go to a hotel for a meal you present your hotel book and a coupon is torn out to represent that meal. It is the same with a lodging for the night. When you go to a store to make a purchase, you hand over your book and coupons are torn out to pay for what you get."

"It is marvelous, the variety of industries that Uncle Sam is mixed up in. He built the Tivoli Hotel at a cost of $200,000, which I superintended, and this is as good a hotel as you would care to find. He takes care of the grounds, runs water systems and light systems and has two of the largest power plants in the world. All these things are run simply to get the digging of the canal done and the building of the dam finished, and, let me tell you, it will all be completed by 1915. In reality it will be done a year earlier, for this is the time the present Commission has set."

"I have seen three chief engineers on the work since I have been there, Theodore F. Shonts, John F. Stevens and Colonel Goethals, and the best of the three was John F. Stevens. He is the man who originated the system that is in use today."

"My own work was sort of a general supervision of the buildings there. If some woman thought her house should be painted a different color I was the one whom she had to try to convince. It didn't do any good, for the Government decreed that all the houses should be exactly the same color—inside white ceiling, pea green walls and brown base, and outside sort of a slate color. Members of the 'official classes,' though, might choose their color. These are the men who draw salaries of $400 or more."

"This was one result of the tender solicitude exercised by the paternal Government."

"It rains some down there. The rainy season lasts from April to January, and in one month I saw 58 inches of rainfall. It is hot, too, about 83 degrees all the year with a humidity of 85. Those are some of the things that make me glad I am not going back, especially since I have seen Portland and have a chance to get into part of the business that is going to make a great city here."

Getting Tired of Canada.

Emigration of homeseekers to Canada, which has been the subject of great concern to the administrators of the public domain, has turned, in the opinion of the officials of the Reclamation Service, thousands have returned and a great many more are expected back soon.

Clarence J. Blanchard, statistician of the Reclamation Service, who is in the field inspecting irrigation projects, reports that he has interviewed many settlers in Montana who had tried the Canadian experiment, but were glad to return home. They said that practically every American farmer near Alberta, where the Canadian government maintains an irrigation project, was anxious to get back if he could sell his holdings in the Dominion.

The American settlers were dissatisfied with the character of the land, the crops which they alleged consisted principally of alfalfa and such hardy grains as winter wheat and even these were not sure. The form of government did not appeal to them, and they considered railroad rates exorbitant. The climate was a source of dissatisfaction, ice and snow in August and September of last year adding to their discontent. During the last nine months, it was said at the reclamation office today, 15,000 settlers have returned from the states from Canada.
