ASSEMBLY ENDORSES CANDIDATES

Morrow County [Republicans Hold Enthusiastic Meeting.

The Ticket.

For Sheriff—Fred Lucas.
For Clerk—W O Hill.
For Assessor—D O Justus.
For Treasurer—Frank Gilliam.
For Commissioner—J S Young.
For Coroner—Dr Chick.

Tuesday evening the Morrow county Republican assembly assembled at the court house, nominated a strong ticket, worked together in unadulterated harmony and wound up with an old fashioned love feast.

C E Woodson was chairman, and W W Smead acted as secretary. W L Smith was assistant secretary.

Considering the fact that the meeting was called in the midst of the harvest season, and a great many of the delegates reside in far away precincts, the attendance was somewhat remarkable.

It would seem that considerable interest must be shown when the farmer leaves the harvesting of his crop to come in and attend a political meeting.

of Morrow county's 16 precincts, 13 were represented. Out of the total 100 delegates, 66 representatives were there to cast their votes.

Roll call showed the following representation:

Alpine, 3; Cecil, not represented; Dairy, 8; Dry Fork, 3; Eight Mile, not represented; Gentry 5; Heppner, 5; Irrigon, 2; Lena, 5; Lexington, 6; Mattoon, 4; Mt. Vernon, 12; Pine City, 4; South Ione 6; North Ione, 3; Wells Springs, not represented.

In the opening address, Chairman Woodson stated that the time had arrived when the Republicans were to decide whether or not they should endorse candidates for the various county offices.

A motion by S E Notson to proceed with the nomination of the ticket started a little flurry of discussion.

Geo Currin was not in favor of putting up a ticket, and gave as his reason the position that the representation was not large enough. Did not favor the endorsement of a two thirds vote.

E H Andrews, of Ione, also opposed the endorsement of a ticket on the grounds that some of the delegates had been appointed.

Mr Bennett, of Irrigon, said that he realized the difficulty of holding meetings for the election of delegates in the smaller precincts and taking his precinct as a basis, felt that the appointees represented the sentiment of the precincts from which they came.

W W Smead took the same position as Mr Bennett. Mr Smead followed with an address in which the candidates were impressed with the fact that no candidate should present his name unless he intended to abide by the decision of the assembly. No matter what the result might be the assembly choice should be given the unqualified support of all who participated in it.

This sentiment was greeted with applause and it was plainly evident that a ticket was to be nominated.

Geo Bleakman, of Hardman, candidate for sheriff, was the first to break the ice and stated that he was willing to have his name placed before the assembly.

Mr Bleakman was followed by S W Spencer, Fred Lucas and Chas Valentine, all candidates for sheriff, who all declared that they were willing to go before the assembly.

A motion to proceed with nominations was carried.

By motion of Smead, the following committees were appointed:

Credentials—W J Blake, J H Wyland, L E Bisbee.

Order of business and permanent organization—D C Ely, W T Campbell, T W Morgan.

Platform and Resolutions—S E Notson, Mr Bennett, W P McMillan.

After the adoption of the committee reports, the vote on sheriff was taken up.

S W Spencer's name was presented by J H Barker.

Geo Bleakman was placed in nomination by James Wyland.

Fred Lucas' name was placed before the assembly by W P Dutton.

Chas Valentine was nominated by Al Osmin.

Jay Devin was placed in nomination by W B McAlister.

Vote for Sheriff.

First ballot—Spencer, 18; Bleakman, 17; Valentine, 2; Lucas, 20; Devin, 9.

Second ballot—Spencer 21; Bleakman, 13; Lucas, 26; Devin, 5; Valentine, 1.

Third ballot—Spencer, 22; Lucas, 27; Bleakman, 15. Devin withdrawn.

Fourth ballot—Spencer, 19; Lucas, 35; Bleakman, 12.

Vote for Clerk.

W O Hill was placed in nomination for clerk by W P McMillan of Lexington.

Joe Waters' name was presented by E H Andrews of Ione.

The result of the ballot was: Hill, 45; Waters, 21.

Mr Waters moved to make the endorsement of Mr Hill unanimous. Carried.

Assessor Endorsed.

Mr Bennett, of Irrigon placed the name of O P Hendricson, for assessor before the assembly.

D O Justus was nominated by R F Wigelsworth.

Andy Rood, Jr., presented the name of Gus Mallory. |

First ballot—Hendricson, 30; Justus, 26; Mallory, 10.

Second ballot—Hendricson, 29; Justus, 37. Mallory withdrawn.

Endorsement for Treasurer.

Frank Gilliam's name was placed before the assembly by D C Ely, of Ione.

W P McMillan, of Lexington, named Thos Humphreys |

The vote resulted: Gilliam, 39; Humphreys, 26.

By motion, Mr Gilliam's nomination was made unanimous.

Five Candidates for Commissioner.

The names of D C Ely, of Ione, W T Campbell, of Heppner, W B McAlister, of Lexington, J S Young, of Eight Mile, R F Wigelsworth, of Butter Creek, were presented for commissioner.

J S Young received 33 votes on the second ballot which gave him the nomination.

Coroner Nominated.

Dr Boyden, Dr Chick and J P Conder were placed before the assembly for coroner. Dr Chick received the nomination on first ballot.

Surveyor's Office Goes Begging.

The name of Mr Boardman, of Irrigon, was presented for surveyor. Mr Boardman declined the nomination.

Tired of Prohibition in Gilliam County.

Petitions have been prepared and will be circulated calling for a local option election in Gilliam county at the November election. Liquor men in the county feel reasonably confident that the bill, proposed by the Greater Oregon Home Rule Association, giving to incorporated towns the regulation of the liquor traffic, will be adopted by the people. At the same time they propose to make doubly sure of restoring the licensed saloon in Gilliam county by calling for a county local option election, feeling that the sentiment strongly favors putting an end to prohibition in Gilliam county.

Deprived of the revenue from saloons, the finances of the City of Condon are sadly depleted and the problem of providing sufficient funds for conducting the municipal administration is proving a knotty one for the city officers to solve.
