

A Merry Dance

Dame fashion leads us a merry dance following her whims and fancies. The Fall and Winter fashions of Men's suits reflect the perfection of simplicity. Good dressers no longer wear freak clothes. The fad fashion days are over for awhile. In looking over the fashion plates displayed in our new fall lines, you'll notice the absence of cuffs, fancy flaps and other freak ideas, but at the same time you will see that we have many entirely new ideas for young men, extreme dressers without showing freak fashions. On our cuff plate there are several designs which can be put on any of the regular fashions, so that the younger fellows who want to be a bit different can be satisfied.

If Beau Brummel Could Come Back

If that old fashioned dandy should walk into a well dressed circle today, folks would think that he was advertising a patent medicine or a circus. They would laugh at him and his fussy clothes of real lace, satin and velvet. Every day mens' fashions become more simple. Simplicity in tailoring requires the best workmanship. Its easy enough to disguise poor materials under a lot of fancy flaps, straps and and unnecessary buttons, but when it comes to smooth shoulder seams, close neck, hugging collars, and puckerless lapels, then you have careful tailoring.

Watch our windows. The new fall goods will soon arrive, and a series of displays will be put in that will interest you.

Ballinger Will Quit.

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 12.—Certain events of today following incidents of the last week or so lead to the conclusion that a complete political readjustment in circles close to President Taft is in progress.

Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, of Rhode Island, called to see the President today before the Chief Executive had finished his breakfast. He talked with the President 35 minutes. He found that Mr. Taft had not had an opportunity to read the Senators' reply to Senator Bristow's charges regarding the rubber tariff. The President was gratified, however, that Senator Aldrich had consented to make a statement. In doing so, it is said, the Senator from Rhode Island performed an act that fitted exactly into a programme framed by party leaders close to the President.

Although he is not to retire until after March 4, 1911—and Senator Aldrich confirmed to President Taft today his intention to do so—the readjustment plans now in progress apparently treat whatever influence Mr. Aldrich may have had with the President as a thing of the past.

The elimination of Mr. Aldrich, according to close political observers, is soon to be followed by the retirement of Secretary Ballinger from the Cabinet.

Mr. Ballinger has lost practically all his personal fortune in defending himself from the attacks that have been made upon him. It is said that one attorney fee alone in the Congressional investigation cost him $10,000. If the Secretary is to recover the losses, it is said he must soon resume the practice of law.

The retirement of Mr. Ballinger is fixed for September 15. The congressional committee will have reported by that time and the date is sufficiently early to take the so-called Ballinger issue out of the campaign.

The third move in contemplation is said to be directed against Speaker Cannon. It is not admitted in Beverly that Mr. Cannon will even be a candidate for the Speakership.

The Cannon situation, as a thing of the future is a little difficult to handle. If it were only known that the President would like to see a change it is believed all doubt as to the result would be removed.

Reports have reached Beverly that the recent results in Kansas and Iowa were due largely to the activity of Speaker Cannon in Kansas. To the charges against Senator Aldrich and to doubt in the West as to whether he actually intended to retire.

The situation developed by these two states evidently has made an impression upon party leaders that has stirred them to action.

Senator W. Murray Crane, of Massachusetts has been one of the active forces in the new political movement. It was he who went West to see Secretary Ballinger and it was he who also went to see Senator Aldrich at Warwick, R. I., last Sunday. Hereafter, Senator Crane's movements will be watched with particular interest. There have been stories in progress of friction between Mr. Hitchcock and Senator Crane and some political jealousy as to their influence with the Administration. These stories are declared to be without foundation. No question has arisen as to their political precedence.

Mr. Hitchcock participated in the conference which the President had this afternoon with four Republican leaders from Tennessee. The Republicans are laying plans to capture that state this Fall with the aid of independent Democrats.

President Taft conferred with Mr. Hitchcock and Secretary MacVeagh this afternoon regarding postal savings banks. It is said now that the first of these banks cannot be put in operation until November 1.

Senator Dick, of Ohio, came to Beverly today, but decided to await the arrival here tomorrow of Warren G. Harding, the Republican nominee for Governor of Ohio, before calling on the President.

Although admitting that the fight in Ohio is going to be hard and that the campaign must begin early and carried into every part of the state, Senator Dick believes that the Republicans will win.

OREGON'S NEXT GOVERNOR.

It might be well to remind the people of Eastern Oregon that it has been 24 years since a governor of our great state has been elected from the Eastern portion of the state.

While the occupant of the executive chair represents the whole state and no particular section or class in carrying out good government and siding good citizenship, still the pride of our own district makes us here in the great inland empire feel honored to know that Jay Bowerman has been endorsed for governor.

Jay Bowerman is a man well qualified for governor—the right kind of timber for the Republicans to unite upon.

And why not? A man of undoubted ability. A man whose public and private record stands without a blemish.

His public career shows everywhere honest effort in upholding the sacred rights of the people.

The Gazette believes that Jay Bowerman will be elected governor. Let us make the majorities decisive.

Why We Do it

Our purpose in holding this contest is to acquaint the people of this section with the value of the Pianos we handle. We have convinced the manufacturers of these pianos that this form of advertising is far more effective than spending large amounts in magazine advertising.

We believe the best advertisement for a good Piano is a satisfied customer, and we believe, further, that the advertising allowance should go to the person who buys a piano, not to expensive magazines.

We want everyone to know that ours are the only stores in the West that sell the famous Chickering, the oldest and most expensive of American pianos; the beautiful toned Sohmer; the now celebrated Lester of Philadelphia; the world-renowned Kimball, given the Highest Grand Award at the Chicago Exposition, and again at the Seattle Exposition last year; the genuine Decker, and our own Eilers Orchestral Piano, the beautiful toned Hobart M. Cable, which is so rapidly becoming a favorite among musicians, as well as the famous Autopiano, which everyone can play without practice.

We have arranged with America's foremost manufacturers to join in this publicity campaign.
