The committee will hold a meeting next Saturday evening to report progress and make final arrangements.

Favors Development of Resources.

William L. Taylor, ex-Attorney-General of Indiana, is one of the big politicians of the East who has changed his opinion on the conservation policy of Gifford Pinchot. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are staying at the Portland Hotel, and it is this trip through the West that has caused the ex-Attorney-General of the Hoosier state to view the predicament of the West in an entirely different light from that entertained before he made a personal investigation of conditions in the Pacific states, says the Oregonian.

"This is my first trip through the West," said Mr. Taylor, "and it only requires a glance to grasp the situation. I have an entirely different view of conservation than when I left Indiana. The power stored in your mountain streams can hardly be realized. True conservation would be to develop this immense power instead of keeping it locked up. Of course, laws should be passed so that this great power should not come into the possession of a few corporations or individuals, but the barring out of everyone is not the remedy. I believe there would be little difficulty in drafting a law that will allow these magnificent power sites to be developed and at the same time prevent them from being gobbled up by gigantic corporations."

Mr. Taylor, who is apt at giving illustrations, sizes up the situation thus:

"Take for instance, the granting of a street railway franchise in a city. A street railway with good service is necessary for the welfare of any city. That does not mean a franchise shall be given to a corporation that will not respect the rights of citizens. Neither does it mean that exactions should be made that will prevent the building of streetcar lines. A franchise may be granted so that a streetcar system will be remunerative to the corporation owning it, and at the same time, the rights of the people for adequate service will be recognized and granted."

"There is always a dividing line between the two extremes. It would be of no benefit to prohibit the building of streetcar lines by extreme conservation of the people's rights, and it would not be right to exclude the people's rights in favor of a grasping corporation. So it is with the conservation of natural resources. A law should be passed that will allow your immense water power to be developed, and at the same time, protect the people. That is conservation of the natural resources."

"I believe that if every man in the East who favors radical conservation should visit the West and study the situation as I have done, would change his views. We in the East do not comprehend the vast resources of the West. This trip has been a revelation to me and such a trip would be a revelation to every other man in the East who has not seen the West as I have seen it. I am convinced that the West should have something to say about a conservation policy."

MANY LIVES LOST IN FOREST FIRES

Great Loss of Property in Idaho and Montana.

Medford, Or., Aug. 21.—The forest fire situation in the Crater National forest grows steadily worse. Numbers of the present inadequate force of fire fighters are nearly exhausted, many have had no sleep for 60 hours, men have fallen asleep on the fire lines and only saved by friends from death in the flames.

Two hundred and fifty soldiers will arrive tomorrow morning. Acting Supervisor S. S. Swening and Assistant Forester O. J. Buck, of Portland, who are here to assist in directing the fight, are hopeful that with the arrival of the additional troops the situation can be handled.

Another large fire was reported today. It is on the divide between the middle and south forks of the Rogue River in township 33 south, range 2 east. This is a continuation of the big fire on Buck Creek which has leaped across the river. This country is heavily timbered and brushy, as well as exceedingly rough and the fire is working through it at a rapid pace. So hot is the fire that ranger George West had a narrow escape. He sent in a call for men and 100 of the soldiers will be sent there.

The big Cat Hill fire has reached Blue canyon and a ranger and 40 men from Pelican Bay, who attempted to reach the fire at this point, were forced back by the smoke and heat.

Fifty soldiers are assisting the settlers in township 34 south, range 2 east. They are having a hard fight to save the settlers' buildings. No effort is made to save the timber, the whole battle being directed toward the saving of life and homes. In some instances wet blankets were resorted to in order to save buildings. The fire in Ashland canyon has increased and there are five district fires in the canyon. City officials and the city council are co-operating in this fight.

Reports from the Buck Lake fire and west of the range are hopeful. There is a series of fires extending from Mount McLoughlin north to the middle fork of Rogue River, a distance of 40 miles. The fires are burning north and west but so far all the fires have not become united.

Towns burned and others in path of flames in Idaho and Montana.

Fifty are reported dead in and around Wallace, Idaho, where the property loss is $1,000,000. The fire has not enlarged on the area burned Saturday night.

Mullan is probably safe but fires threaten.

Elk City reported still unburned.

Four or more are dead in fires near Newport, Wash. One hundred and eighty men in the forestry service are surrounded in the St. Joe country.

Taft and St. Regis, Mont., have been burned. Salt Lake is surrounded by fire. Deborcia is seriously threatened. Haughan, Mont., is reported destroyed.

There is a solid line of fire from Thompson Falls, Mont., for 50 miles to the Idaho line, with portions of Belknap, White Pine, Noxon and Heron burning.

Confagurations rage in the Gallatin forest, Montana. Thompson Falls is in peril.

Ymir, B. C., is in danger from fires which are burning in the bush. Other fires are gaining headway in that region and the situation is serious.

Avery, Idaho, is destroyed, the people fleeing to Tekoa.

From Sickness to "Excellent Health."

So says Mrs. Chas. Lyon, Peoria, Ill. "I found in your Foley Kidney Pills a prompt and speedy cure for backache and kidney troubles which bothered me for many months. I am now enjoying excellent health which I owe to Foley Kidney Pills."

To keep your health sound; to avoid the ills of advancing years; to conserve your physical forces for a ripe and healthful old age, guard your kidneys by taking Foley's Kidney Remedy.

Big Show for Pendleton.

Pendleton, Ore.—Articles of incorporation for the Northwestern Frontier Exhibition Association have been filed and all arrangements have been completed for holding the first annual "Round-up" in this city which event will be the biggest frontier celebration ever held in the northwest. It is to be an annual event and an effort is to be made to make it rival the big shows at Cheyenne and Denver.

When the plan was started a few days ago the capital stock was placed at $9000. The committee was overwhelmed with applications for the stock and the amount was increased to $5000 and no man was allowed to subscribe more than $10.

Events characteristic of frontier days and military spectacles by the U. S. army will have place in the contests, which will cover three days, September 29, 30 and Oct. 1.

Pendleton is ideally situated for such a show since it is the trading center for cattlemen and horsemen in practically all of eastern Oregon. Several thousand dollars will be offered in prizes besides each contest in the riding, roping and racing events will be for the championship of the northwest.

Several hundred Umatilla, Walla Walla, Cayuse, Yakima and Nez Perce Indians are to be invited. Bronco busters and owners of outlaw horses from northern Idaho to Oklahoma have already signified their intention of participating. Insuring a frontier show well worth going hundreds of miles to see.

A race track is to be constructed and the racing of cowboys and Indians in old-fashioned western style will be a feature.

Saved From Awful Peril.

"I never felt so near my grave," writes Lewis Chamblin, of Manchester, Ohio, R. R. No. 3, "as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 115 pounds in spite of many remedies and the best doctors. And that I am alive today is due solely to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. Now I weigh 160 pounds and can work hard. It also cured my four children of croup." Infallible for Coughs and Colds, its the most certain remedy for LaGrippe, Asthma, desperate lung trouble and all bronchial affections, 50c and $1.00. A trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.
