Effect of Sound and Color.
Every one is familiar with the effects of sound upon the nervous. Harmonious sounds please and gratify, inharmonious sounds displease and irritate. Sweet music, the singing of birds, the purring of a brook, fall pleasantly upon the ear, soothing and delighting the hearer. The screeching of a rusty hinge, the banging of a door, the sound of a discordant piano, irritate and annoy the hearer. If long enough continued, such sounds will produce an evil condition of nervousness.

FOUR LADIES IN DISCUSSION

What Man Overheard While Dining at Restaurant—Women All Talked at Same Time.

A man dining alone at a restaurant the other night was observed to smile hugely as he listened to the prattle of four ladies seated immediately behind him. They were discussing divergent topics, and, as is usual in such cases, they were all talking at the same time. This is the result as it reached the man's ears:
"Thank goodness, my Polly is blessed—"
"With a calf's head and a pig's face—"
"I love to see little Johnny well dressed—"
"In the fish kettle over a charcoal fire—"
"To see the darlings dancing before one—"
"In the frying pan—"
"And to hear their guileless tongues—"
"Bubble and squeak—"
"I always see the children put to bed personally—"
"And smothered in onions—"
"And if they have been good bairns, I invariably order—"
"The heart to be stuffed and roasted, the gizzard to be peppered, and the sole to be fried—"
And so on, and so on.

Her Little Jest.
The man who goes about selling those little Swiss clocks stopped at the wayside cottage.

"Lady," he said, politely, "let me sell you one of these tiny timepieces. They are very simple and even the works are wood."

"Crack!" exclaimed the humorous housewife, with a merry twinkle in her eye, "I should imagine those clocks would be dangerous to have around in the summer."

"Dangerous in the summer? Why so, ma'am?"

"Why, on account of the wood 'ticks,"

Luncheon Taffy.
"Bring me a plain steak," orders the well patron in the lunch room.

"Yes, sir," responded the pretty waitress.

"And some plain potatoes."

"I have your order, sir."

"And some plain bread."

"Crack!" exclaims the humorous waitress, "bring me everything plain in here!"

"Yes, everything is plain, but the waitress."

And when the boss was not looking she slipped him two wedges of apple pie gratis.

Rejected.
Howard—How did you make your wife stop buying your ties?
Coward—I told her I'd let her pick out my ties for me if she'd let me choose the style of hair dressing for her.—Lifo.

Joe Handover
Bootle—I see the old foot doctor has an automobile. He must be making money these days.
Willie Worm—Why not? Nearly all his patients are centipedes.

Near.
"Did I understand you to say he was a near relative of yours?"
"Yes. He is a second cousin."
"I shouldn't call that very near."
"But he's Scotch."

The Philosopher of Folly.
"Many a girl can learn to love man," says the philosopher of folly "if the man has enough money to pay for her education."

No Other Excuse.
Tom—And was theirs a love match?
Jack—It must have been; they were both quite wealthy.

Vain Attempt to Show On.

A youthful masculine, scarce three years old, was listening to a story by his mother, but despite his devotion to her stories, kept making unaccountable excursions to a clear space on the park lawn and solemnly airing his sole physical accomplishment of a neat somersault. The mother wondered, but asked no questions. Presently, however, the mystery was explained. Another boy, seated near the open space with his parents, rose and walked away. The little acrobat sighed sadly. "I guess he never even saw me," he remarked.

Where Addison Was Married.
St. Edmund's, Lombard street, London, the rectory of which is vacated by the death of omniscient Canon Benham, had previously possessed literary associations. The register records the marriage of Joseph Addison to the dowager countess of Warwick on August 9, 1716. Dr. Johnson grimly remarks that this match resembled the marriages in which a sultan gives his daughter a man to be her slave; and Addison used to escape from the uncomfortable splendor of Holland house to a coffee house at Kensington.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Rubber Planted on Waste Land.
The wide reaches of waste lands on the island of Singapore, which have been of no use since the culture of gambler, coffee, and pepper was given up, are now the scenes of great activity. Rubber plants are being set out over these wastes and seem to do well. In the suburbs of Singapore city a considerable area of swamp land has been drained and converted into a nursery for Para rubber plants, which are sold at a good profit to the planters.

French Woman's Long Sleep.
A curious case is that of a woman in the hospital at Alencon, France, who has been asleep for 30 days, and, unlike most patients who fall into a lethargy, this patient has a perfectly normal temperature. Her teeth are rigidly set, and she has to be fed through a tube, which was introduced with great difficulty, and has been left between her teeth.

How He Knew.
"Love is blind," said the pessimistic looking man, quoting this worn-out chestnutty axiom with as much fervor as its originator could have done. "How do you know?" questioned the severe-looking woman with the high cheek bones. "I'm married," said he.

Bank's Cautious Business Methods.
Before discounting any paper the Bank of England requires at least two good British names, one of which must be the acceptor. It seldom holds over $150,000,000 in bills discounted and securities of all kinds.

The Trouble.
"Do you find any trouble writing stories, Daddy?" "None whatever. But I'd pay a man well that could sell them for me."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

LIVELY SHOW AT PENDLETON.

Frontier Celebration and Roundup Will Be "Wild and Woolly."

Pendleton—The final touches of the program for the Round Up and Frontier celebration which is held at Pendleton this year, September 28 to October 1, have been made, the list of prizes and purses finally decided upon, the wild horses secured, the famous bucking horses secured and everything is ready now. The program with the purses and prizes is as follows:
Bucking contest for the championship of the Northwest: Purse, $125 and silver mounted saddle and championship of the Northwest.
One half of the contestants in this event are entered to ride the first day and one half to ride the second day. Riders for each day to be determined by lot, horses furnished by the Round Up and riders to draw for mounts. Not less than six of the best riders of the first two days will be chosen by the judges to ride the third day in the final championship riding. Each contestant to ride any horse and as often as the judges may deem necessary; riding to be with plain halter, one end of rope free, with chaps and spurs, no quilt, all riding slick, no saddle trees over 14 inches wide to be used. Purse divided: first, $50 and championship

FASHION HINTS
Dark blue homespun is used for this early Fall suit. The jacket effect is novel. In front there is a panel from waist to hem, in semi-princess style. Silk in just color is used for banding and there is just a touch of braiding on the waist.

Educational Discipline.
Most persons will find difficulties and hardships enough without seeking them; let them not repine, but take them as a part of that educational discipline necessary to fit the mind to arrive at its highest good.—Charles Bray.

Why?
If it is true that the world has gone completely to the bow-wows, and that vice and corruption are in control, why is it that our penitentiaries have no more attraction than they do for men who call themselves honest?

Parent's Incentive.
Many a man holds on a staid career because of Tommy's framed school certificate upon the mantel-piece.

Wild horse race: This event is open to all. Purse, $200.
This contest is probably the most exciting event of its kind ever seen in the Northwest. The contestant, each with one assistant, is lined up on the starting tape. The gun is fired. He must then rope, saddle, mount and ride his wild horse once around the track.
Pony express race: First prize, $50 cash and silver mounted bridle; second, $30, and third $20. Each rider to have two ponies and one assistant. No race horses can be entered.
Ladies' relay race: First prize, $75 cash and Northwest championship cup; second, $50, and third $25.
Men's relay race (cowpony): First prize, $75 cash and silver cup; second $50 and third, $25.
Packers' race: First prize, $25 and Stetson hat; second $15 and third, $10. In this contest the entrant must furnish his own horse, saddle and rope. The load to be packed will be furnished by the management.
These are the main events. The others are: Maverick race each day; barrel race, three races, one each day; cowpony hurdle race; slow mule race; men's cowpony race each day; Ladies' cowpony race each day; ladies' riding contests; ladies' shooting contests; ladies' roping contest; men's riding, roping and shooting contests; Indian squaw races, Indian races, Indian riders and war dancers.
As a side feature there will be Buffalo Vernon, who throws a steer single handed and holds him down with his teeth. This is an event that has been put on at the Cheyenne shows with great success. Vernon rides into the arena on a horse, jumps from the horse to the back of the steer, slips down between the horns, gets a strangle hold and downs the steer. It is wildly exciting.
Special rates of one and one-third fare have been made by all railroads from all points in the Northwest.

Unprofitable Employment.
Galveston News.
Probably there is no more unprofitable employment on earth than that of counting the buttons down a woman's back.

The experimental use of the phonograph on Saxon railways is reported by Consul Thomas H. Norton, of Chemnitz. Two local inventors have patented a system which is adapted to both trains and stations.
