For Business Use

There are a great many places and occasions when the possibility of getting extra heat immediately effects an economy by decreasing the discomfort of the worker. In the office, in the early morning or late at night, before or after the steamheat is on, it is of importance to have extra heat. In the builder's outside office, in the shipping room, in the checker's shack, on exposed lofts, in railroad stations, in studios, the

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER
Absolutely smokeless and odorless is often a necessity. It is safe, smokeless and odorless. Apply a match, and it gives heat quickly. With four quarts of oil it burns nine hours. Has automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be cleaned in an instant.

It has a cool handle and a damper top. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking.

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in Japan or nickel. It is strong, durable, well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

Remedies for Seasickness.

Among curious remedies for seasickness is that which is popular among the mariners in the Levant—the daily swallowing of iron rust, which is obtained by scraping it off the anchor or anchor chain. But this is only part of the necessary treatment, for a small pouch containing roasted salt and flowers of thyme must be tied upon the abdomen as firmly as can be borne—this being considered to counteract the effects of the internal disturbance caused by the rolling of the vessel.

MAN WAS TOO ENTHUSIASTIC

Noted Horse Trader Would Not Lie About Horse's Good Traits—Merely Suppressed Truth.

Hank Dobbs was noted as an "honest" horse trader. He would not lie about a horse. He would merely suppress the truth. Incidentally, he always beat the customer who dealt with him. The way he could stir over the defects and buzz about the virtues of an animal amounted to genius.

Once Hank was trying to sell a neighbor a horse that had an eye which was nearly sightless. The neighbor knew Hank would not lie outright to him, so he questioned the horse trader as to the various points of the brute.

"How about his eyesight? Can he see out of both eyes?"

"Sure," said Hank, "he's got good eyes." Here he leaned forward, his eyes fairly scintillating with suppressed honesty. "One eye is particularly good."

Hank's enthusiasm for the truth had carried him too far. The deal was off.

Happy Thought.

"Your story is good," said the publisher to the author who had called to learn his fate, "but there is one thing about it that I can't understand."

"What's that?" queried the author.

"You have the climax in the middle chapter instead of the last," said the publisher. "Why is that?"

"Oh," answered the author, "that is a little scheme of mine to keep women from knowing how the story is going to turn out by reading the last chapter first."

Costly Articles.

The most costly book in the world is a Hebrew Bible, owned by the German government, which a few years ago refused the Pope's offer of $125,000 for it. The most costly medicine a few years ago was metallic gallium, which sold for $150,000 a pound; and radium is now the priceless gem of the mineral world, selling for more than that price an ounce.

Human Life as National Resource.

The gradual lowering of the death rate is one of the great achievements of science and civilization. Conservation of life is the most important of the many current projects for conserving national resources. But human life is still held far too cheap and methods of checking waste are still more or less rudimentary.

Anxious Father's Advertisement.

A Frenchman's advertisement, in a Boston paper, ran in the following singular strain: "Lost, last evening; a child about five years old; whoever will return him to his home, in Fore street, shall be handsomely rewarded by his afflicted father, Jean Baptiste, who likewise deals in French brandy."—From a London Newspaper, 1807.

Bulls Haul Street Cars.

Four miles of street, railway and some bulls are making a rich man out of a resident of Daet, in the Philippines. The little railroad runs from Daet to the port, and has no lack of passengers or of freight traffic. The cars are of the small street railway type, and they make the four miles uphill from the port to Daet in twenty-eight minutes, although the bulls who draw the cars do not exert themselves unduly.

"Say," said our Country Cousin, "you was wrong when you said that Mr. Jones wouldn't have time to talk to me. Why, he hadn't read that letter of introduction you gave me half through before he told me to call again. Yes, sir, he seemed to want me to come and see him real often. While I was explainin' who I was, he invited me to call again at least six times. And I'll bet I wasn't there more'n an hour."

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Strange Hobby.

William James, probate court deputy, tells of a pest extraordinary that comes about that office. She is a woman, a middle-aged, heavy jowled person, who comes around shortly after she has read in the paper of the death of a prominent man. And she comes because she wants to read the dead man's will as soon as it is probated. She has no hopes of receiving a bequest in any of the wills. She just likes to look them over. Reading wills is her hobby.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Liberia.

Liberia, the West African negro republic, was founded mainly through the efforts of American quakers, organized under the title of the Pennsylvania Colonist society. The chief bar to the development of Liberia is a law by which white men are not allowed to hold property in the country. Capital has, therefore, gone elsewhere and Liberia possesses none of the resources of modern civilization.

Destroys Hair Germs

Recent discoveries have shown that falling hair is caused by germs at the roots of the hair. Therefore, to stop falling hair, you must first completely destroy these germs. Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, will certainly do this. Then leave the rest to nature.

Does not change the color of the hair.

Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says.

Ayer's

Recent discoveries have also proved that dandruff is caused by germs on the scalp. Therefore, to cure dandruff, the first thing to do is to completely destroy these dandruff germs. Here, the same Ayer's Hair Vigor will give the same splendid results.
