Injunction Erred.

"What," said the little girl. The father is something of a fastidian as to speech, and he said to the five-year-old: "You should never say 'What?' my dear; always say: 'I beg your pardon.'" That the injunction erred on the side of sweepingness was conveyed to him later, when the little girl, pointing to a blossom, said: "'I beg your pardon' is the name of that flower?"

Name Spelt in Various Ways.

The orthographic liberties that are taken with the good, old-fashioned name of Catherine—or Catharine—are increasing. Among the earlier ones was the spelling of the name with a "K." Then came others, among them Kathleen, Kathaleen, Katrine, Katrina and later Kathrine and Kathryn—not to mention Katherina and several others.

Blood Humors

Commonly cause pimples, boils, hives, eczema or salt rheum, or some other form of eruption; but sometimes they exist in the system, indicated by feelings of weakness, languor, loss of appetite, or general debility, without causing any breaking out.

They are expelled and the whole system is renovated, strengthened and toned by

BOYS' SHOES, $2.00, $2.50 AND $3.00. BEST IN THE WORLD.

The benefits of free hides, which apply principally to sole leather, and the reduced tariff on sole leather, now enables me to give the wearer more value for his money, better and longer wearing $3, $3.50 and $4 shoes than I could give him previous to the tariff revision.

If I could take you into my large factories at Brockton, Mass., and show you how carefully W. L. Douglas shoes are made, the superior workmanship and the high grade leathers used, you would then understand why Dollar for Dollar I Guarantee My Shoes to hold their shape, look and fit better and wear longer than any other $3.00, $3.50 or $4.00 shoes you can buy.

President W. L. Douglas Shoe Co.

Do you realize that my shoes have been the standard for over 30 years; that I make and sell more $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00 shoes than any other manufacturer in the United States? Quality counts. It has made W. L. Douglas shoes a household word everywhere.

HORSES THAT FEED ON FISH

Wild Banker Ponies Greedily Devour Fish Left Stranded by High Tide.

Along the shores of Albemarle sound, South Carolina, lie miles of low sandy banks, the greater part being covered with little vegetation save coarse grass, wild parsley, and other salt-water weeds. To this region come those who shoot the canvas-back duck that frequents the little streams and salt marshes with which this coast abounds, feeding upon the wild parsley and marsh grains. On some of these banks are a breed of small wild horses, known in the neighborhood as "banker ponies." They are quite untamed and uncared for, have rough shaggy coats, and are generally about twice the size of a Shetland pony, now and again one reaching the size of a small horse.

Each year the herd-owners drive them into pens, where the foals are branded with his owner's mark, and those required are caught and sold to the dealers. It is said that these beasts have to be starved into eating grain and hay or grass, their whole subsistence up to this time having been the rank salt grass of the marshes, and fish. The latter they catch for themselves at low tide, using their hoofs to dig deep holes in the sand below high-water mark; and they greedily devour the fish so left stranded, often fighting over an especially tempting one.

In captivity they are said to display intelligence, though seldom a reliable temper. They are tamed by darkness and semi-starvation, and make excellent draught animals, showing strength far beyond their size. They eat voraciously, consuming as much as full-sized horses.

The foals bred from "banker ponies" in captivity make valuable animals. They are strong, healthy and intelligent, less vicious than their parents, and command good prices.

DRINK PLENTY OF WATER

It Flushes the System, Carrying Out Impurities and Leaving What Is Beneficial.

To say that drinking at least three pints of water a day would make a girl beautiful would be grossest exaggeration, but it is perfectly true that such an amount of fluid, taken judiciously every day, will be a wonderful aid in acquiring or increasing good looks, and it is such a cheap way of improving one's appearance that to ignore it is a pity.

Water, properly taken, flushes the system as a pipe is cleaned by putting down it a large quantity of pure cleansing liquid at once. And, as with the pipe, impurities are carried out, leaving only that which is beneficial.

In order that the good effect shall be gained, two facts are important: One is that the liquid shall not be taken with meals; and the other that it shall not be of icy temperatures. In the former case it dilutes the gastric juices, sometimes causing indigestion, and certainly neutralizing some of the nourishing properties of food; in the latter it stays digestion, and may be the cause of severe pain.

Many dietitians now agree that water should not be taken with meals, and that many cases of indigestion may be traced directly to the fact that this theory is unheeded. To derive benefit a glassful should be taken at a time, sipping it slowly and not gulping in large quantities. Ten minutes for each glass is none too long. The temperature may be cool, but not sufficiently so to chill the stomach.

The first drink is not to be taken sooner than half an hour after a meal, and water is not to be put into the stomach later than half an hour before a meal.

Lacked Length of Legs.

A large pompous person, wearing a high-hat, a long coat, yellow spats and a congenital sneer, for several days made himself obnoxious around a Washington hotel a bit ago.

He announced he was from New York, nagged the bellboys, jawed the clerks, cussed the service, roared at the food, complained about his room and the elevator and the telephones and the bar, and everything else.

One afternoon he walked over to the porter and said: "Here you, I'm going to quit this town and go back to New York, where I can get some decent service. I want you to buy me two seats in a parlor car on the 4 o'clock New York train. Get me two seats now, and meet me at the station with the tickets. I want one chair to sit in and one to put my feet in."

The seats were delivered at the train just before it pulled out. One of the seats was in car No. 3 and the other was located in car No. 4.—Cleveland Leader.

Can't Wear Brown Shoes.

"Do you know that certain individuals cannot possibly wear brown shoes?" inquired the veteran shoe clerk.

"I have been in the business more than twenty years, and I can name several regular customers, who every season make a frantic but futile effort to wear brown shoes in precisely the same size, made over the same last and in the same quality of leather as the black ones they are discarding, and yet within a month the customers come back saying they had given away or sold for a song the brown shoes. It seems as if some feet are not constituted to endure the touch of the brown leather."

Prosecuting Solicitor Attempts to Belittle Testimony of Witness With Dire Result.

It was at the police court. A witness for the defense had been examined, when the prosecuting solicitor stood up to crush him.

Solicitor—Why did you hide Sullivan in your house on that Saturday night?

Witness—I did not see Sullivan at all on that night.

Solicitor (knowingly)—Will you swear your wife did not hide Sullivan on that night?

Witness (hesitatingly)—Ye-es.

Solicitor (more knowingly)—Will your wife swear that she did not hide Sullivan in your house that night?

Witness (more hesitatingly)—Well—I—don't—think—so."

Solicitor (most knowingly)—Ah! And perhaps you can tell the court how it is you can swear your wife did not hide him, while she cannot swear the same thing. Speak up now, and tell the truth.

Witness (unhesitatingly) — Well, you see, I'm not a married man.

She Could, Too.

Soon after the removal of a certain Indiana minister to California, the father took Elizabeth, aged five, out for a walk. Looking at the mountains around the city, he remarked:

"Just think, Elizabeth, God made these beautiful mountains. Isn't it wonderful?"

Elizabeth, not being in a spiritual mood, replied:

"Hm, I could, too, if I had the dirt."—Delineator.

Our Thoughtful Government.

Hiram Hawkins—Say, Lem, what d yew suppose them thar 'pustal savings banks' air fer, anyway?

Postmaster Perkins—Wa-al, peers tew me, Hi, they air fer folks thet's bin gittin' a hull lot o' them pictur pustals from all over th' world, an' bein' thet they want tew save 'em, why, th' guv'ment's startin' up them kind o' banks 'round th' country.—Judge.

A GREAT DEAL.

Estelle—Does Miss Scads spend much in charity work?

Edith—Oh! yes. It was only the other day that she paid $100 for a slumming gown.

Breaking the News.

"Minnie, are you reading 'Home Hints'?"

"Yes, darling.

"Will you look among 'Home Recipes' and see if there's anything about taking stains out of carpets."—Merry Thought.

Difficult Eating.

Mabel (aged five)—But, mamma, how do they get the cans open?—Ideas.

The Poor Granger!

Little Willie—Say, pa, what is a poor, down-trodden farmer?

Pa—He is one of those fortunate individuals, my son, who have real cream in their coffee.

The Impossible.

"A man can do almost anything when he discovers that he must."

"Have you ever felt that you must get upstairs at two a. m. without waking your wife?"

Or Did He Escape.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES

They Are Closely Observing Public Health Conditions

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview on the subject, made the astonishing statement that the reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of applicants do not even suspect that they have the disease.

He states that judging from his own experience and reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has probably been more successful in relieving and curing these diseases than any remedy known. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of cures.

We find that Swamp-Root is strictly an herbal compound and we would advise our readers who feel in need of such a remedy to give it a trial. It is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes—fifty-cents and one-dollar.

However, if you wish first to test the preparation, the manufacturers will gladly forward you a sample bottle by mail, absolutely free. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention this paper.

Cherubini's Advice.

A young man with an extremely powerful voice was in doubt what branch of musical art to adopt. He went to the composer Cherubini for advice. "Suppose you sing me a few bars," said the master. The young fellow sang so loud that the walls fairly shook. "Now," said he, "what do you think I am best fitted for?" "Auctioneer," dryly said Cherubini.—Old Farmers' Almanac, 1882.

Care of Screens.

Window and door screens usually get very dusty during the latter part of the summer, and it is poor economy to put them away in that condition; neither is it a good idea to wash them just before storing unless they are most carefully dried to prevent rusting. Kerosene applied with a paint brush cleans the wires better than water, and also prevents rusting.

Constipation causes and aggravates many serious diseases. It is thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. The favorite family laxative.

The Peaceful Man.

First keep thyself in peace, and then thou wilt be able to bring others to peace. A peaceful man does more god than one that is very learned. A passionate man perverts even good into evil, and easily believes evil. A good, peaceable man turns all things to good.—Thomas à Kempis.

Her One Condition.

He—Would you be satisfied to give up your present beautiful home and live in a little white cottage?

She—I might, if there was a little, red automobile hitched in front of the door.—Montreal Star.

Pleasant Speech.

Musician (after much pressing)—Well, all right, since you insist; what shall I play? Host—Anything you like; it's only to annoy our neighbors.—Rire.

Looking Into Future.

"How about the future? Will this high pressure continue?" "I presume so. Among other things I predict a seven-ring circus and a cigar with three bands."

Discovered in Egypt.

One of the most exquisitely finished discoveries in Egypt is a case of neatly fitting alabaster embalming instruments, taken from a tomb 5,000 years old. One of them is an instrument used for opening the mouth after death, it being supposed that if the mouth was not opened the poor departed would be unable to eat in the next world.

Wise Law of Moses.

Corn-mills are often mentioned in the Bible. The original corn-mill much resembled the modern druggist's pestle. Moses forbade corn-mills to be taken in pawn, for that, he thought, was like taking a man's life in pledge.
