Why worry about your Sunday dinner? Go to the Palace Hotel—a good meal, well served, prepared by all white help.
Pap Simons is agent for the sale of Perkins' National Herbs and is doing a good business. See his ad. in another column.
That new man at the laundry is doing the work. No need of sending anything away. Heppner Steam Laundry.
District Attorney Van Vactor was a business visitor to Heppner over Sunday, returning to Pendleton, Monday morning.
W. O. Minor departed for Denver this week to attend the livestock show and exhibit a bunch of his celebrated shorthorns.
M. S. Corrigall, president of the First National, attended the meeting of the shareholders of that institution on Saturday last.
Herb Olden was up from Ione yesterday to attend the meeting of the Farmers' Union, in which organization he is greatly interested.
Louis Pearson, tailor, has returned to Heppner and will open up shop again in the building formerly occupied by him on May street.
Alex Lindsay was in from Butter creek, Tuesday. He is busy feeding cattle these days and all stock is doing fine. The sheepmen have plenty of hay and contemplate no trouble whatever in getting through the winter in good shape.
Ends Winter's Troubles.
To many, winter is a season of trouble. The frost-bitten toes and fingers, chapped hands and lips, chilblains, cold-sores, red and rough skins, prove this. But such troubles fly before Bucklen's Arnica Salve. A trial convinces. Greatest healer of Burns, Boils, Piles, Cuts, Sores, Bruises, Eczema and Sprains. Only 25c at all druggists.

S. Roberts and wife came down from Toll Rock, Tuesday, and departed for Newport, Wednesday, where their son Hugh is living. They will be absent about a month or six weeks. Hugh Roberts has been an invalid for some years past and the last year or so has been living in California. He is reported to be slowly regaining his health.
Editor Seely, of The Times, was called to Portland, Friday, by the serious illness of a daughter, and later news bears the sad intelligence of the child's death. In this sad bereavement Bro. Seely has our sincerest sympathy. He is making arrangements to move his family to Heppner, and has rented the G. W. Swaggart property.
Programs were furnished by this office this week for an entertainment to be given at Walker's Hall in Ione on Tuesday evening, Jan. 24. Miss Bessie M. Whitcomb, soprano, and Mrs. C. S. Whitcomb, pianist, of Morgan, and Prof. Kaufman of the Ione High school, are the entertainers, and the program will be good.
Banker T. J. Mahoney was an incoming passenger last Thursday evening from Salem. After attending the stockholders' and directors' meetings of the First National, he returned to the legislative halls, Monday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Mahoney.
Clyde Wells returned from Portland, Monday evening. He is putting through a deal by which the Morrow block is to be transferred to local parties, but we did not learn the name of the prospective purchaser.
Martin Hicks is doing the stunt of mail clerk on the branch this week, while Mr. Zehring, the regular agent, is taking his vacation. Martin is preparing himself to go into the railway mail service.

NON-RUSTABLE

ADJUSTO CORSETS

With Patented REDUCING BANDS

PRACTICAL, STYLISH, COMFORTABLE, DURABLE—these words summed up tell you the story of the ADJUSTO. This matchless corset is the final result of years of study, research and practical application of a thoroughly practical idea.

The ADJUSTO

has many times proven itself to be of inestimable value, not only as a reducing corset, but as a perfect abdominal support. Then, too, with the aid of the Improved Reducing Bands and Supporter Loops, the corset skirt is held down smooth and flat, uniformly reducing hips and upper limbs.

Thousands of women—the average, the slender, the stout—never experienced the joy of real corset comfort until they wore the Adjusto.

Moulding and shaping the form the ADJUSTO way is the modern way—the correct way. Try it. PRICE $3.
